

NU Matmen Thump Tigers

Win Gives Huskers Best Mark Since 1929

By Hal Brown

Nebraska's wrestlers will be taking their best season record since 1929 into the Big Eight championships at Norman, Okla., Friday and Saturday.

The Huskers won their fifth dual meet Saturday night over Missouri, 25-3. Nebraska has lost three and tied one. The 1929 Nebraska team had a 5-3 record.

Only a one-point loss in the 157-pound match averted a shutout for coach Mickey Sparano's grapplers. Missouri's Noel Fischer scored a 2-1 victory over Dave Loos for the only Tiger win. Both wrestlers scored one point on escapes.

But Loos was charged with an illegal hold and Fischer was awarded one point which proved to be the deciding point. The official said Loos grabbed Fischer's headgear.

Husker Mike Nissen kept his unbeaten string alive by pinning Homer Page in 2:22 for his 12th win of the season. The 123-pounder was leading Page, 5-0, when he scored the pin.

Faimon Scores Pin

Jim Faimon of Nebraska, a graduate of the Nebraska School for the Blind, extended his season record to 10-3 when he pinned Curt Plummer in 4:37 after taking a 3-0 lead.

Nebraska's Harold Thompson, a 157-pounder moved up the 177-pound class and romped to a 26-8 decision in a crowd pleaser.

The Husker grappler from Osage, Iowa, toyed with his heavier opponent, Butch Russo, in taking an easy win. Thompson took an 8-1 lead early in the second period and then began to play with the Missouri foe.

He scored seven takedowns with six escapes by Russo sandwiched in between. After scoring a takedown, Thompson allowed the Missourian to escape so he could score another takedown. A takedown scores two points and an escape one point.

Thompson scored a total of 10 takedowns during the match and also picked up three points for a near fall with 22 seconds left in the match.

The results:
123—Mike Nissen (N) pinned Homer Page in 2:22
130—Dick Van Sickle (N) dec. Dave Douglas, 8-2
137—Jim Faimon (N) pinned Curt Plummer in 4:37
147—Larry Lebruska (N) dec. Nathan Paul, 6-1
157—Noel Fischer (M) dec. Dave Loos, 2-1
167—Stan Fraley (N) dec. Gil Compton, 2-1
177—Harold Thompson (N) dec. Butch Russo, 26-8
Hwt.—Pat Fitzgerald (N) dec. Alex Geiser, 7-2.

Huskers End Cage Season At Missouri

K-State Clinches Tie for Loop Title

Nebraska will be trying to make it three wins in a row over Missouri when the two teams meet tonight at Columbia, Mo., in the season finale.

The Huskers dropped a 76-56 contest to seventh-ranked Kansas State Saturday night at Manhattan as the Wildcats overpowered Nebraska with a strong second half.

Kansas State outscored the Huskers 43-28 in the second period after leading by only four, 32-28 at the halfway point. Nebraska led by one, 35-34, after three minutes had elapsed in the second half, but then the Wildcats began to pull away.

The win assured Kansas State a share of the Big Eight crown with an 11-3 record in the league and a 20-4 mark for the season. Nebraska is 4-9 in the conference and 10-13 on the season.

Rex Swett led the Husker scoring with 20 points and Jan Wall added 11. Ced Price hit 22 and Larry Comley 21 for the winners. Al Peithman, Hebron native, was held to four points by the Huskers.

Nebraska holds two previous wins over Missouri with one coming in the pre-season tourney and the other in the fight enlivened the last meeting between the two.

HANICH FLIES THROUGH THE AIR

Herb Hanich, shown on the still rings, scored 29 points in the All College gymnastics meet. He won the flying rings, placed third on the still rings and in the rope climb and was ninth on the parallel bars. The Huskers finished second to the Air Force Academy in the meet. (Photo by Dave Hillman).

Falcons Edge NU In All College Meet

The Air Force Academy edged Nebraska, 172-169, to win their third straight All College gymnastics meet Friday and Saturday at the Physical Education Building. Nebraska, unbeaten in dual and triangular competition, matched the Falcons in first places with five each, but the Air Force pulled down enough other places to nip the Huskers.

Trailing the two leaders were Colorado State College 85½, Mankato State College 80, Colorado 25½, Kansas State 23 and Fort Hays State 5.

Paul O'Connor of the Air Force Academy was the meet standout scoring 60 of his team's 172 points. He won the horizontal bar, parallel bars and all around events. The all around is a combination of six events, the free exercise, side horse, horizontal bar, parallel bars, still rings and long horse.

O'Connor added to his point total with a third place in free exercise and tumbling. He was fourth on the still rings and seventh on the side horse.

Williams Wins Three
Nebraska's Charles Williams matched O'Connor's first place points with first in free exercise, tumbling and rope climb. Williams set a meet record in the rope climb with a time of 4.6 seconds. He led the Husker scoring with 33 points. Other Husker scoring was by Herb Hanich 29, Dennis Anstine 27, Lou Burkel 23½, Doug Moore 23, Dick McCoy 19½, Gene Hart 11 and Bill Brass 3.

Hanich won the flying rings, was third on the still rings and rope climb and ninth on the parallel bars. Anstine was second in the all around judging, fourth on the parallel bars, fifth on the horizontal bar and sixth on the side horse.

Burkel was fourth on the horizontal bar and flying rings, seventh in all around judging, tied for eighth in free exercise, ninth in rebound tumbling and 10th on the still rings.

Moore placed second in the rope climb to give the Huskers a sweep of the first three places in that event. He was third in rebound tumbling, seventh on the horizontal bar and ninth on the flying rings.

McCoy finished fourth in free exercise, tied for fourth in tumbling, sixth in all around judging and 10th on the side horse.

IM Cage Action Nears Finish

By Cloyd Clarn

Five champions will be trophy laden and 1961 intramural basketball will be finished as the IM hoopsters play their final games this week.

Kappa Sigma, 1960 all-University kings, will lay its title on the line tonight against Beta Theta Pi.

The Kappa Sigs squeezed past the Betas, 55-52, in the quarter-finals of the Fraternity A division of the double elimination tourney.

If the Kappa Sigs win, they will have won the fraternity crown, but if Beta Theta Pi wins, both teams will meet again Tuesday and the winner of that game will be fraternity champions.

Gus I and Guss II will vie for the Burr-Selleck title and the winner will face the fraternity champion Thursday night on the varsity court of the Coliseum.

Gus I experienced a rough trip in the tournament action before they gained a berth in to the finals.

In early tournament competition they were defeated by Avery, 25-27, but in the semi-finals, they were able to win, 43-39.

The Betas also faced one team twice, but they beat Phi Delta Theta, 42-40, in the first match and trounced them, 59-31, in the semi-finals.

All the championship games Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be played along with the Nebraska High School basketball tournament on the freshman and varsity courts of the Coliseum.

The winner of tonight's semi-final C team game, Sigma Chi-Theta Xi, will face Phi Delta Theta in the all-University C team final on the freshman court Thursday.

The Schedule:

- Monday:
- PE Court 1
 - 6:30—Zeta Beta Tau vs. MacLean
 - 7:30—Gus I vs. MacLean-B
 - 8:30—Kappa Sigma-A vs. Beta Theta Pi-A
 - PE Court 2
 - 5:00—Sigma Chi-C vs. Theta Xi-C

NU Tankers 5th in Big 8

Nebraska's swimmers finished fifth in the Big Eight championships at Norman, Okla., Thursday, Friday and Saturday as the host Sooners walked off with their seventh straight championship.

Oklahoma scored 143 points with Iowa State second at 74 points. Others were Kansas 71, Colorado 45, Nebraska 39½ and Kansas State 11½.

Sooner swimmers won nine of the 14 events with Iowa State winning four and Kansas one. Ten conference records and one NCAA record were set in the three-day meet.

Oklahoma's Gordon Collet bettered the NCAA and conference record in the 100-yard breaststroke with a 1:02.9 clocking. The Big Eight record was 1:04.8 by Collet in 1959 and the NCAA mark of 1:03.1 was set in 1960 by Thomas Petersen of Stanford.

Collet also bettered the 200-yard breaststroke record with a winning time of 2:22.9.

Nebraska placed no one higher than third with Joe Stocker finishing third in the 200-yard breaststroke and Lavern Bauers third in the 50-yard freestyle. The Husker 440-yard medley relay team and 400-yard freestyle relay quartet each finished third.

Branch Walton gave the Huskers a fourth in the three-meter diving and Phil Swain tied for fourth with Dave Hinderliter of Kansas State in the 100-yard freestyle.

Stocker and Bauers finished fifth and sixth respectively in the 100-yard breaststroke.
