Frat Team Wins 68-60 Over Gus II

By Cloyd Clark

Kappa Sigma bounced Gus II out of their way 68-60 to win the 1961 Selleck-Fraternity intramural basketball title.

The victory pits Kappa Sigma against Navy in the All-University championship Saturday at 5:10 on the Varsity court of the Coliseum.

The Kappa Sig eight point final advantage was the largest margin they enjoyed in the hard fought battle for the Fraternity-Burr-Selleck title.

The score at half time read 29-26 in favor of the Kappa Sigs, but less than two minutes before Gus II lead by one point.

But Steve Shoulders and Bob Prokop shot two quick ones and pulled the fraternity team to their three point lead.

Shoulders lead the Kappa Sigs scoring tally in the first half with 13 points, followed by Larry Brockhaus with 7 and Bob Prokop with 5.

In the second half the scoring sheet was an altogether different story. "Porky" got hot. Prokop dumped in 22 points the second half and showed the skill that has won him All-University All Star rating since 1956.

Guss II, the Burr-Selleck champions, were led by Monte Kiffin, who scored 21 points for the losers.

Larry Brockhaus, Kappa Sigma second leading, first half scorer, fouled Kiffin for his fifth foul with 2:33 remaining in the third quarter.

Kiffin made the shot and advanced the score to 44-39 Kappa Sig. The Kappa Sigs immediately took the ball and scored two points, but then a rally offered by Gus II stalwarts, Kraus, Kiffin and Dyer nearly evened the score at 46-45.

Larry Kraus fouled out and evened the Kappa Sigs loss of Brockhaus with 4:37 remaining in the fourth quarter. Kraus scored 12 points for Gus II, ten of them coming in the second half.

Leo Fisher was runner up to Kiffin in the Gus II scoring honors with 14 points, followed by Kraus.

Steve Shoulders followed Prokop for the winners with a total of 16. The first half sparkplug could only hit one free shot and a field goal the second half.

Shot-putter, Al Wellman, put in 13 for the Kappa Sigs, followed by Brockhaus with 7. Bob Sellars was the only other man in the victors scoring column with 3.

Gus II scorers include Dallas Dyer 7, Pete Peterson, 3, Leo Fisher 14, Larry Krause 12, Dyrri Irving 12, and Kiffin 21.

RUSSELL

Russell Tops NU Scorers, Rebounders

Tom Russell, junior college transfer from Independence, Kas., led the Husker cagers in two vital statistics during the past season.

The 6-7 junior led the scoring with 300 points for a 12.5 per game average. He also topped the club in rebounding with 232. Russell had a 48.3 field goal percentage on 97 of 201 attempts to lead in that department also.

Rex Swett and Jan Wall, both juniors, also had scoring averages in double figures. Swett finished with an 11.5 average and Wall was 10.3.

The Huskers averaged 64.4 points per game to 65.5 for the opposing teams in winning 10 of 24 games in the season and four of 14 in the conference race. Nebraska outrebanded the foe by one, 1162 to 1161.

Huskers May Surprise In Big Eight Mat Meet

Although Nebraska isn't expected to dent the Big Three of Oklahoma, Iowa-State and Oklahoma State, in the Big Eight wrestling championships today and Saturday at Norman, Okla., the Huskers could surprise a few people.

Coach Mickey Sparano's grapplers finished the dual season with five wins, three losses and a tie for the best record at Nebraska in 32 years.

The Huskers chief title threats are Mike Nissen, 115-pound sophomore from Mason City, Ia., and Jim Raschke, Omaha North junior who finished second in the heavyweight division a year ago.

Nissen is unbeaten with an 8-0 mark in dual matches and a 4-0 record in tourney competition. He has been wrestling at 123 pounds with one match at 130. Six of Nissen's wins have come on pins.

Raschke has a 10-3 season record including five pins. Raschke was defeated in the finals of the 1960 championships by Oklahoma's Dale Lewis who is back to defend his title.

Other Possibilities
Other Huskers who could push for championships are Harold Thompson at 147, Gary Klemesrud at 130 and Jim Faimon at 137.

Thompson returned to action the second semester after laying out for a year and the Osage, Ia., product has eight wins, two losses and two ties. Three of his wins have been on pins.

Klemesrud came to Nebraska this semester from a junior college and has been plagued by injuries since arriving on the campus. If he is able to make the 130-pound weight, he should be a threat.

Faimon, a graduate of the Nebraska School for the Blind, has a 10-3 record including three pins.

Other probable Husker entries are Dick Van Sickle 123, Dave Loos 157, Stan Fraley 167, Pat Fitzgerald 177 and Dan Hoevet 191.

Oklahoma State is favored to wrest the crown away from defending champion Oklahoma. The Cowboys are ranked number one in the nation and hold two dual wins over the Sooners.

NCAA Kings
Oklahoma was also NCAA kings last year with Iowa State second. Two years ago

Oklahoma State topped the Big Eight and the NCAA.

Seven Oklahoma State entries are unbeaten. They are Mark McCracken at 115, Masaaki Hatta at 123, Doug Wilson 137, Bob Wilson 147, Bruce Campbell 167, Ronnie Clinton 177 and Bob Thompson 191.

Six defending champions will be in action. These are John Dooley of Kansas State at 115, Hatta of Oklahoma State at 123, Larry Hayes of Iowa State at 147, Clinton of Oklahoma State at 157, Campbell of Oklahoma State at 191 and Lewis of Oklahoma in the heavyweight division.

Petsch Leads NU Frosh In Scoring; Vincent 2nd

Daryl Petsch topped the Nebraska freshman basketball scoring for the past season with 241 points, a per game average of 17.2.

Bill Vincent was second with a 15.4 average and Charles Jones third with 11.0.

The Husker frosh won three and lost one in a four-game campaign against other colleges. Wins were over Kansas State, Luther Junior College and Fairbury Junior College with the loss coming at the hands of Iowa State.

The scoring:

|                 | G  | FG | FT-FTA | PF | TP  | Ave. |
|-----------------|----|----|--------|----|-----|------|
| Daryl Petsch    | 14 | 94 | 53-71  | 29 | 241 | 17.2 |
| Bill Vincent    | 14 | 90 | 35-46  | 31 | 215 | 15.7 |
| Charles Jones   | 14 | 72 | 20-40  | 36 | 164 | 11.8 |
| Roger Denesia   | 14 | 44 | 12-18  | 13 | 100 | 7.1  |
| Chuck Sladovnik | 10 | 36 | 17-30  | 18 | 89  | 8.9  |
| Dennie Puelz    | 13 | 36 | 15-23  | 16 | 87  | 6.7  |
| Neil Nannen     | 10 | 28 | 18-35  | 22 | 74  | 7.4  |
| Keith Sieck     | 14 | 21 | 23-37  | 25 | 65  | 4.6  |
| Linn Johnson    | 7  | 15 | 3-6    | 7  | 33  | 4.7  |

NU Gridders Face Fines for Absences

By Hal Brown

Nebraska's football coaching staff is trying out a system this semester which they hope will help cut down on the number of athletes lost through scholastic ineligibility.

The system provides for a fine of five dollars for each unexcused absence from class and is based on the honor system.

"We don't anticipate having to fine anyone," Coach Bill Jennings said. "We are putting the boys on their honor and I think they have enough integrity to tell the truth when we ask them about class absences."

Jennings explains that they also get reports from the administration regarding class attendance.

"We feel that a boy's main reason for coming to school should be to get an education and we want to help them get that education," Jennings continued.

Most students, after they get to be juniors and seniors, realize the importance of going to class, but often times while they are freshmen and sophomores, they feel that they would rather sleep an extra hour or go on a Coke date," he said.

Jennings points out that this isn't just true of athletes, but is also true of all students.

While this is the first semester such a program has been tried at Nebraska, it has been used at numerous other schools for several years, according to Husker athletic director Bill Orwig.

Three Advance In Cornshucks

Intramural basketball action Wednesday night was limited to the "Cornshucks" tournament.

MacLean, Delta Tau Delta-A and Law College won quarterfinal games to advance into the semi-finals of the losers tourney.

Law College downed Leita Tau Delta-B, 31-29. Both teams in this game were disqualified from the All-University competition. Delta Tau Delta-A defeated Alpha Gamma Rho, 50-37.
