

Kappa Sigma Wins All-University Crown

Defending Champs Edge Navy for IM Cage Title

By Cloyd Clark

Kappa Sigma edged Navy ROTC, 55-53, to retain its all-University basketball title for the second consecutive year. Navy, independent champions, struggled to dethrone the Kappa Sigs at several points in the game, but the "old man" of intramural basketball, Bob Prokop, retained his poise and skill to fight off these attempts.

Navy's playmaker, Dean Prazak, scored five points in the first six minutes to put the independents on top, 13-6, in the first quarter.

This seven-point lead was the largest and the last time the NROTC hoopsters were ahead of the defending all-University champion.

With one minute remaining in the first quarter Navy ace Mike Stacey collected two quick fouls, which gave him a precarious total of three.

When Stacey left the game Prokop, Steve Sholders, and Al Wellman each made a quick basket to rally their team to within one point, 12-

Sigma Chi Nips Manatt For B Title

Paxton, Peterson Lead Sigs Win

Sigma Chi outlasted Manatt, 36-34, in a see-saw battle for the all-University B-team championship Friday.

Sigma Chi led the game most of the way but never by more than six points and often the score was tied.

The Sigma Chis led by one point at half time, 16-15, and two points at the third-quarter mark, 27-25.

The Sigs scoring leaders were Bill Paxton and John Peterson each with 9 points.

Peterson fouled out of the game with 2:33 remaining and the Manatt crew took advantage of the loss to start a last chance effort for victory.

Dennis Fredericks made a field goal with one minute remaining, making the score, 34-36. Sigma Chi and then 30 seconds later he was given a chance to tie the score with two free throws, but he missed both.

Neal Wilms was the game's leading scorer with 17 points for the Manatt squad.

NU Keglers Set for NDS

The Nebraska bowling team will face the nation's fourth ranked collegiate bowling team, North Dakota State University, at 1 p.m. today on the Student Union Lanes.

Recently in a match against Mankato State, North Dakota State shot games of 1061, 1065, 1011 for a three game series of 3177, a new Tri-state conference high.

Three of North Dakota State's starters have bowled 700 series and all five team starters have bowled a 268 or better.

Nebraska will counter against the ranked team with five starters averaging better than 185 in Big Eight competition. Representing the Huskers will be Ralph Holmstrom, Stu Kutler, Steve Lovell, Keith Van Velkinburgh and Dick Haase.

The Huskers are currently undefeated in intercollegiate face to face competition and are third in the Big Eight postal conference.

Husker Matmen Last in Big 8

Nebraska Fails to Qualify Grappler for Final Round

Nebraska failed to advance a wrestler to the final round and finished last in the Big Eight mat championships Friday and Saturday at Norman, Okla.

Favored Oklahoma State won the conference crown with 94 points. Oklahoma was second with 83 and Iowa State third with 59. Others were Kansas State 23, Colorado 15 and Nebraska 10. Kansas does not have wrestling and Missouri did not send a team to the meet.

NU Frosh Win Tourney At Omaha

Three Nebraskans Cop Mat Titles

Nebraska's freshman wrestlers copped the top spot in the Omaha Open Wrestling Tournament Saturday with 70 points to 53 for runnerup Omaha University.

Ron Bridegam, Jim Eitel and Jim Lytle won titles to lead the Husker victory. Bridegam decisioned Dale Simmonds of T-Club, 4-1, in the 95-pound match.

Eitel edged Bill Hudgins of Keilom, 8-7, to win the 137-pound crown and Lytle decisioned Art Ferguson of Omaha University in the championship match at 191 pounds.

In the 115-pound contest John Karrer of Nebraska was pinned by Steve Walenz of Omaha University. Husker Jim Fuxa dropped a decision to Tom Tomashek, 3-0, in the 123-pound division.

John McIntyre of Nebraska lost a 12-1 decision to Charles Coffee at 147 pounds and Husker Edwin Fox was edged, 1-0 by Jim Howard of Omaha University in the 157-pound class.

Nebraska's Jim Fox dropped a 5-0 decision to George Crenshaw of Omaha University at 167 pounds and Husker heavyweight Jerry Shaw was decisioned by Ron Larsen of the YMCA, 3-1.

Trailing Nebraska and scoring were Blue and Gold, a team of out-of-state collegians, with 37 points, YMCA 13, South Omaha Stars 12, Kellom 10 and T-Club 6.

Nebraska entered the semifinals with five grapplers remaining in contention. Harold Thompson, 157-pounder, came closest to making the final round when he lost a referee's decision after battling to a 1-1 tie with Virgil Carr of Iowa State. Carr lost a referee's decision in the finals to Phil Kinyon of Oklahoma State.

Husker sophomore Mike Nissen, 123-pounder was pinned by Duwane Miller of Oklahoma with two seconds remaining in their semifinal match. Miller decisioned Oklahoma State's Masaaki Hatta in the finals.

Jim Faimon of Nebraska was decisioned by Doug Wilson of Oklahoma State in the semifinal round of the 137-pound division. Wilson dropped a decision to Bill Carter of Oklahoma in the finals.

Nebraska's Dan Hoeyvet was pinned in the 191-pound semifinal match by Von Henry of Oklahoma in 5:40. Henry decisioned Tom Pilcher of Iowa State for the championship.

Husker heavyweight Jim Raschke was pinned by Oklahoma State's Ted Ellis in 5:46 of their semifinal match. Ellis lost a decision to Sooner Dale Lewis in the championship battle.

Delts Romp to Victory In Cornshucks Tourney

Delta Tau Delta-A smashed Law College, 59-42, in the final game of the "Cornshucks" basketball tournament on the freshmen court Friday afternoon.

Joe McWilliams led the Delt team's scoring with 22 points to stop the Lawyer's winning streak over the Delts.

In the two previous tourney games Law College had defeated the Delta Tau Delta-B and C teams.

Law College started the game off with a scoring barrage by Jack Barker and led the Delts, 10-1, early in the first quarter.

Jim Scanlon and McWilliams were able to erase the Law College advantage by the end of the first period and make the score 12-all.

By halftime the Delta Tau Delta team was leading, 25-23. They stretched the lead to 45-29 by the end of the third quarter and coasted to the final score of 59-42.

Barker took the scoring honors for the Law College with a total of 18 points, 12 coming in the first half. Dave Moesser was the second high Law scorer with five points.

John Nore with 15, Gary Schmidt with 11 and Jim Scanlon with 8 were Delta Tau Delta's leading scorers behind McWilliams.
