

EDITORIAL OPINION

Why Are Students Afraid to Speak?

"People are Funny" is a popular television show which entertains many of us at one time or another.

Yesterday The Daily Nebraskan printed an article which has taken nearly three years of hard work and research to complete.

Apparently some of the students of this University are under the wrong impression about yesterday's TNE article.

For years, the masses of the apathetic student body and the few of the leaders on campus have been complaining about the Administration and its tight control over the students.

Through the fault of the students and their continual shunning of responsibilities, the Administration has had to step in to take up the slack.

The picture, however, is not a one-sided story. The Administration has stepped over their limits many times, so no one is pure.

People on this campus are afraid of anything that may hint of change. People on this campus are afraid to speak about some of the injustices that continue to grow on this campus.

The staff of the Daily Nebraskan does not claim to be correct in everything it does. No one is ever one hundred per cent correct all the time.

The TNE activity on this campus is not a joke. If you think it is just read over yesterday's article and then think. Draw your own conclusions and make your own decisions.

The Bite's Worse

By Barbara Barker

After returning from a glorious and grandiose exploration of the city of New York, I entered the Rag office to wearily click off my usual Monday-morning column, only to find my "Bite" ousted by the intended publication of the ritual of one of our campus's illustrious sub rosa organizations.

The advertising convention which I attended during the past week, and the memorable week of pleasure-pursuing in which I indulged the week prior to it, were all in all, magnificent.

Being the aforementioned semi-literate, I can, however, comment on the many nightclubs and cocktail lounges (I'd say bars, but they're really too intriguing to be called bars) which I frequented.

Probably about the most fun part of exploring New York City is the fact that one is unbelievably inconspicuous. It is impossible to retain any amount of self-consciousness in a city of 7 million people, where everyone is minding his own business and nobody really cares whether you do or don't do.

What Social Fraternities Say About Subrosas

(Editor's note: The second part of the report on Theta Nu Epsilon is a condensed version of what eighteen national social fraternities on this campus have to say about TNE and other subrosa organizations.)

Nearly every national fraternity located at Nebraska has a definite statement of non-affiliation with any activity by subrosa organizations. Listed below is the stand of most of the fraternities:

ALPHA GAMMA RHO: "No chapter shall elect or initiate into Alpha Gamma Rho any member of any existing secret general national college fraternity." Since TNE is a secret organization, my interpretation is that the above clause bars our members from membership in it.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA: "Our fraternity (ATO) is in complete accord with the Interfraternity Council at the University of Nebraska in arresting the growth and influence of TNE." Norman E. Ritchie, Assistant Executive Secretary.

BETA THETA PI: "Beta Theta Pi does not permit its members to be members of any similar fraternity association. When ever I have heard TNE discussed it has always been in tones of derision or lack of regard for it." J. Moreau Brown, General Secretary.

DELTA SIGMA PHI: "... is definitely opposed to TNE and its actions, or any similar organization. Membership in these activities is prohibited and should we learn that an individual is a member of any such organization, he would be automatically expelled from the Fraternity." Francis Wacker, Executive Secretary.

DELTA TAU DELTA: "Members of Delta Tau Delta fraternity may not join Theta Nu Epsilon or Kappa Beta Phi."

FARMHOUSE: "Farmhouse is not in accord with the establishment and promotion of organizations such as TNE and will therefore cooperate with the administration of any college or University in its efforts to support only those fraternal organizations which have purpose, validity and reason for being on a college or university campus." Darl E. Snyder, National Secretary.

KAPPA SIGMA: "TNE Prohibited: No member of this Fraternity shall join the class society known and TNE or any class society which the E.E.C., by unanimous vote, shall declare a similar organization, and no person being a member of TNE, or any similar organization, shall be eligible to membership in this fraternity."

PHI DELTA THETA: "... No member ... may join any general or local ... class secret society or ribbon society existing at the institution where his chapter is established, in case his chapter shall have adopted a by-law or passed a vote, forbidding its members to join such society; ... Membership in organizations having a secret membership or those opposed by the authorities of the institutions where located, is prohibited."

PHI GAMMA DELTA: "No person who holds membership in Theta Nu Epsilon, Kappa Beta Phi or any other organization of similar character hereafter designated ... shall be eligible to membership in the Fraternity and ... shall be liable to expulsion."

PHI KAPPA PSI: "... Any member who joins such organization shall thereupon forthwith become and be suspended from membership ... and if he persists in such alliance, he shall be expelled from the Fraternity."

PI KAPPA PHI: "... such a diabolic operation as Theta Nu Epsilon would certainly place any member of our fraternity ... in jeopardy of being expelled from the fraternity by action of the National Council."

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON: "No member of Theta Nu Epsilon, Kappa Beta Phi, or any similar organization, shall be eligible to membership in Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity ... Any member who violates this law shall be expelled from the Fraternity."

SIGMA ALPHA MU: "Our National Officers join ... in eradicating TNE or any other subrosa fraternity from the campus of the University of Nebraska." James Hammerstein, Executive Secretary.

SIGMA CHI: "TNE, and any similar subrosa organization is definitely included in our Fraternity's statutes, and the disciplinary measure indicated in these statutes is applied without sympathy when such cases are brought to the attention of the Fraternity's executive committee. (Penalty is expulsion.)" Murray K. McComas, Assistant Executive Secretary.

SIGMA NU: "No member of this Fraternity shall join or belong to Theta Nu Epsilon, Kappa Beta Phi, or any other similar society which may be declared by the High Council to be determinative."

SIGMA PHI EPSILON: "No member of Sigma Phi Epsilon shall belong to any college society or organization, membership in which shall be inconsistent with the principles of Sigma Phi Epsilon, such as Theta Nu Epsilon, Kappa Beta Phi or kindred society or organization."

THETA XI: "5.71 No member shall be eligible to membership in this Fraternity who is a member of any other similar college fraternity or any outlaw fraternity."

DELTA UPSILON: "No member of the Fraternity shall belong to any college society, membership in which shall be inconsistent with the principles of this Fraternity nor shall any member belong to any fraternity represented in more than one institution, professional and honorary excepted."

NATIONAL INTERFRATERNITY CONFERENCE: "On motion by Delegate Hugh Ryan of Delta Sigma Phi, duly seconded and carried, the delegates voted to recommend to the members of this conference to advise their field secretaries to take appropriate action whenever they found evidence of any activity by TNE or any similar organization."

AUF Thanks Faculty, Others

To the editor, AUF would like to thank members of the University faculty for their contributions in the recent All University Fund drive.

The organization would also like to express its gratitude to The Daily Nebraskan staff, Jerry Petsche, Ed Hirsch and all those people who made the solicitation for charities possible.

The cooperation from these people was a definite aid in helping students and members of the faculty work together for a very beneficial cause.

The total amount received from the faculty drive will be published as soon as all of the contributions have been received.

The All University Fund

Council Clarifies Dorm Situation

To the Editor, One point of clarification should be made: Residence Association for Women was listed among those groups losing their constitutions. The reason for this is that this organization has been replaced by the Women's Residence Association, which is in perfectly good standing.

There has been some adverse publicity in various circles about the new organization and it would be well if this were cleared up.

Thank you, David Bliss, Student Council

Overset

By Norm Beatty

Now that the Pink edition and the "T" exposure have passed, I have great news for the male faction of our community before the next purge.

Men! Are you tired of campus queen after queen, heaped with honor after honor? If so here is a chance to win a little prestige.

Through the cooperation of Paramount Pictures, one male student on this campus will have an opportunity to win an expense paid trip to Hollywood, Calif., and a date with one of the starlets appearing in Jerry Lewis' newest production "The Ladies Man."

Each organized men's house of residence will be given the chance to submit one candidate for the local contest.

Each candidate will tell in 25 words why he thinks he should be Nebraska's Ladies Man on special forms to be distributed late this week. From this field of eligibles, finalists will be selected through interviews to be set up later this month.

The final winner will be selected early next month. I have tentative plans to hold the election on Ag campus on the same afternoon of the Spring Day games. As I have said this is only tentative and I will pass further information on to you.

The final winner on this campus will be entered in the national competition. The winner, as I have pointed out, will receive an expense paid trip to Hollywood and a date of his choice of the starlets appearing in the movie "The Ladies Man."

Second prize in the national contest is a roomful of Kroehler furniture.

Now is the time for each house to gather your thoughts and submit the name of your candidate before the coming weekend so I can get the application blanks to your own particular Ladies Man.

There is nothing to lose but much to win. Why not?

B. J. Holcomb Wins Contest

A University law student, Betty J. Holcomb, is the winner of a nation-wide Law Day poster contest sponsored by the National Association of Women Lawyers, according to Miss Adele I. Springer, national chairman of the committee on Law Day and World Peace Through Law.

Raymond Burr, TV's Perry Mason, and Edith Head, Oscar winner and chief designer at Paramount Motion Picture Studios helped choose the winner.

Poster entries were received from all over the United States on the themes of Law and Justice and World Peace Through Law.

The prize for the winning poster is a 20-volume set of World Book Encyclopedia.

THE DEAN YOU SAVE MAY BE YOUR OWN

Now in the waning days of the school year when the hardest heart grows mellow and the very air is charged with memories, let us pause for a moment and pay tribute to that overworked and underappreciated campus figure, your friend and mine, the dean of students.

Policeman and confessor, shepherd and seer, warden and oracle, premonstr and pal, the dean of students is by far the most enigmatic of all academicians. How can we understand him? Well sir, perhaps the best way is to take an average day in the life of an average dean. Here, for example, is what happened last Thursday to Dean Killjoy N. Damper of Duluth A and M.

At 6 a.m. he woke, dressed, lit a Marlboro, and went up on the roof of his house to remove the statue of the Founder which had been placed there during the night by high-spirited undergraduates.

At 7 a.m. he lit a Marlboro and walked briskly to the campus. (The Dean had not been driving his car since it had been placed on the roof of the girls dormitory by high-spirited undergraduates.)

At 7:45 a.m. he arrived on campus, lit a Marlboro, and climbed the bell tower to remove his secretary who had been placed there during the night by high-spirited undergraduates.

At 8 a.m. he reached his office, lit a Marlboro, and met with Derther Sigafos, editor of the student newspaper. Young Sigafos had been writing a series of editorials urging the United States to annex Canada. When his editorials had evoked no response, he had taken matters into his own hands. Accompanied by his sports editor and two copy readers, he had gone over the border and conquered Manitoba. With great patience and several excellent Marlboro Cigarettes, the Dean persuaded young Sigafos to give Manitoba back. Young Sigafos, however, insisted on keeping Winnipeg.

At 9 a.m. the Dean lit a Marlboro and met with Erwin J. Bender, president of the local Sigma Chi chapter, who came to report that the Deke house had been put on top of the Sigma Chi house during the night by high-spirited undergraduates.

At 10 a.m. the Dean lit a Marlboro and went to umpire an intramural softball game on the roof of the law school where the campus baseball diamond had been placed during the night by high-spirited undergraduates.

At 12 noon the Dean had a luncheon meeting with the president of the university, the bursar, the registrar, and the chairman of the English department at the bottom of the campus swimming pool where the faculty dining room had been placed during the night by high-spirited undergraduates. Marlbros were passed after lunch, but not lit owing to the dampness.

At 2 p.m., back in his office, the Dean lit a Marlboro and received the Canadian minister of war who said that unless young Sigafos gave back Winnipeg, Canada would march. Young Sigafos was summoned and agreed to give back Winnipeg if he could have Saskatchewan. The Canadian minister of war at first refused, but finally agreed after young Sigafos placed him on the roof of the mining and metallurgy building.

At 3 p.m. the Dean lit a Marlboro and met with a delegation from the student council who came to present him with a set of matched luggage in honor of his fifty years' service as dean of students. The Dean promptly packed the luggage with his clothing and Marlbros and fled to Utica, New York, where he is now in the aluminum siding game.

To the dean of students and all you other hard-working academic types, here's the new word in smoking pleasure from the makers of Marlboro—king-size unfiltered Philip Morris Commander. Welcome aboard!
