

NU Nine Will Try to Snap Losing Streak at Six Today

By Hal Brown
Nebraska will be trying to break a six-game losing streak and get into the win column in the Big Eight standings when the Huskers meet Iowa State in a double-header at 1:30 p.m. today on the NU diamond.

The two teams will meet again Saturday in a single game starting at 1:30.

Husker Coach Tony Sharpe has named Ernie Bonistall to start on the mound in today's opener with Ron Haveskost getting the nod in the night-cap. Both hurlers are sophomores.

Bonistall has an 0-1 record with a 3.00 ERA in 15 innings while Haveskost is the team ERA leader with a 2.25 mark and an 0-1 record.

Sharpe named this probably starting lineup: Dave McClatchey (.278) cf; Dale Anderson (.333) 3b; Jerry Harris (.242) rf; Dick Becher (.167) 1b; Bill Redmond (.303)

2b; Pat Salerno (.200) lf; Rex Swett (.086) ss; Dave Myers (.148) c; Bonistall (.200) p.

Heel Injury
McClatchey has been bothered this week by a heel injury and if he is unable to go, Steve Smith (.238) will get the call in center field.

Sharpe said the Saturday pitching assignment probably would go to either Ed Johnson or Tom Ernst, both sophomores. Ernst has a 1-1 record and has been impressive in relief roles in the last two series. Johnson is 0-1 and both hurlers have 3.00 ERA marks.

The Huskers have met the class of the Big Eight in the first two conference series and have lost all five league encounters. Nebraska dropped two to defending champion Oklahoma State and then lost three to Missouri although outthitting the Tigers, 21-19.

"Actually our fielding against Missouri was above par and our boys found out they could hit the ball," Sharpe said. "If we can lick the tendency to tie up with men on bases we could surprise someone."

Iowa State has won two and lost three with seven games being rained out. The Cyclones defeated Drake, 9-6, Tuesday in their last outing. The other Cyclone win came against Minnesota and two of the three losses were to Kansas State in a twinbill.

Five Hurlers Used
Iowa State Coach Cap Timm used five pitchers against the Bulldogs Tuesday with only Denny Hagen, the winner, going more than two innings. Hagen pitched 2 1-3 frames and will start the first game today.

Hagen is a 6-2, 180-pound senior righthander. Nick Bruno, a 6-3 senior southpaw probably will get the nod in one of the other two games.

The Huskers, with a team batting average of .194, have only three hitters over the .300 mark. Anderson leads with a .333 average followed by Redmond with .303 and Jan Wall at .300.

Redmond leads the team in hits with 10, total bases with 12, runs batted in with six and is tied with Wall for the lead in doubles with two. The Huskers have no triples or homers. Swett is the stolen base leader with three of the five Nebraska steals.

Swett also has been in on all eight of the Husker double plays.

Golfers Seek Eighth Win Against OU

Nebraska's golfers, one of two Husker spring sports teams with a winning record, will be going after win No. 8 today against Omaha University at the Hillcrest Country Club.

Coach Harry Good's linksters have a 7-3 record with the latest victory being a 14-1 conquest of Creighton Wednesday at Omaha.

The Huskers, playing without Dave McConahay, had little trouble with the Creighton club. McConahay was unable to make the trip because of the Honors Convocation. He was honored for being the Husker athlete with the best four-year average.

Nebraska's Ned Nolte and Ed Tabor tied for medalist honors with 72. Stan Schrag and Louis Titus each had 79 and Jerry Overgaard shot an 80. Best Creighton score was an 82 by Wilhoit.

The Husker golfers will meet Oklahoma State, defending Big Eight champions, at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at the Hillcrest Country Club.

"We'll have some idea of how we'll finish in the conference championships after this one," Good said.

Stocker, Bauers On Big 8 Team

Huskers LaVern Bauers and Joe Stocker have been named to the all Big Eight swimming team.

Stocker was placed in the 200-yard breast stroke and Bauers in the 50-yard freestyle.

Stocker holds four Nebraska varsity records in the 100-yard breast stroke, 200-yard breast stroke, 200-yard individual medley and is a member of the record-holding medley relay team. The times for these events are 1:06.6, 2:26.8, 2:20.4 and 4:05.9 respectively.

Bauers holds no varsity records, but placed third in the Big Eight 50-yard freestyle competition with a :23.6 time.

11 Huskers Entered In KU Relays

By Jan Sack
The Nebraska track team has entered 14 men in 11 events at the 1961 Kansas Relays being held today and tomorrow at Lawrence, Kan.

"Nebraska's sprint medley relay team was issued a special invitation to compete in that event," said Ike Hanscom, assistant track coach. The sprint medley event consists of teams which are specifically invited.

Huskers running in the sprint medley are Dick Hoelscher, Bob Knaub, Steve Pfister and Ray Stevens.

In the two-mile relay event LeRoy Keane, Bill Kenny, Clarence Scott and Stevens will match strides with the other top entries from all over the United States.

In the distance medley event Nebraska will go with Keane or Hoelscher, Kenny, Scott and Stevens.

Sophomore Pfister will challenge the other entries in the 100-yard dash. In the 120 high hurdles Bill Fasano, Fred Wilke and Milt Haedt will represent the Scarlet and Cream. Keane is the Husker entry in the 400-meter hurdle event.

In the field events Knaub will participate in the broad jump. He has a 23-11½ mark. Al Wellman and Larry Reinert will compete in the shot put and discus. Last week Wellman set a new Nebraska varsity outdoor record in the discus with a toss of 164-10.

Jim Kraft is entered in the pole vault and takes with him a 14-0 mark. Al Roots is entered in the javelin for the Nebraskans.

Passers Dominate 1st NU Scrimmage

By Dave Wohlfarth
Nebraska gridders showed some indication of what may be in store for the future when they combined good passing and some hard running in their first scrimmage Wednesday.

Directing the teams were quarterbacks John Faiman, for the Whites and Dennis Claridge for the Reds. Both signal callers figured prominently in the six touchdowns, three by each team.

Faiman, ex-Omaha South standout, hit end Jim Huger for a 15-yard TD play and scored twice himself on a 15-yard keeper and a one-yard sneak.

Claridge hit halfback Dennis Stuewe early in the scrimmage for a beautiful 50-yard scoring play. He also connected with Bill Comstock, formerly end now playing fullback, for a three-yard touchdown and got the final Red score on a sneak.

Claridge threw a dozen times, hit six and had one intercepted. Faiman completed four for seven.

Meade Hits 3 of 6
Ron Meade, who directed the No. 2 White team, hit three of six throws and had one intercepted. Ron Gilbreath, the Reds No. 2 quarterback, missed on three passes.

While the passing highlighted the one hour and 15 minute scrimmage, the running attack also looked improved. There was only one fumble during the hard-hitting session.

Only once did the varsity attack resemble the play of recent years, this being on the first play when a back took the ball, ducked his head and gained only a yard through the middle.

Two plays later Claridge threw his 50-yarder to Stuewe who wrestled it away from two White defenders.

Veterans Don Purcell, Dick McDaniel, Huger and newcomer Larry Tomlinson collaborated with Stuewe on pass-catching.

Thunder Rambles
Thunder Thornton was the outstanding runner of the scrimmage. Thornton, a halfback, ran 35 yards to set up the first White TD.

A seven-yard run by Pat Clare, Red back, brought his team in position for Comstock's score.

Up front Mick Tingelhoff, Lexington veteran, and Bob Brown, 234-pound Cleveland sophomore, looked tough.

Coach Bill Jennings' Huskers will practice Friday with another scrimmage slated for Saturday afternoon.

DU, K-Sigs Favored In IM Softball

By Cloyd Clark
Delta Upsilon and Kappa Sigma are scheduled to meet Monday in a playoff between the top contenders for the 1961 softball championship.

The DUs downed Delta Tau Delta, 10-1, Tuesday in their second game of the season. Jim Kowalke, a standout in last year's second place showing, is pitching again for the DU nine.

The Kappa Sigs beat Phi Kappa Psi, 12-6, to keep themselves in contention in this year's softball crown.

Sigma Alpha Mu drove home 12 runs to Beta Sigma Psi's nine in its opening round game in the double elimination tourney.

Ag Men were dropped to the loser's bracket of the tourney in their second game as Alpha Gamma Sigma won, 9-2.

The Ag Men won over Delta Sigma Pi in an opening game.

Manatt defeated Bessey, 16-10, and Kesselbach downed Gooding, 11-6, in the Burr-Selleck games.

Delta Sigma Phi compiled 13 runs to Acacia's one in the only other fraternity game on this week's schedule.

Vocational Education won its opening game, 12-6, over Newman Club to take a temporary lead in the independent league. Navy ROTC, Dent College and the Playboys are the other teams in the league.

All-State End Novak Will Enroll at NU
Dwane (Horse) Novak, all-city and all-state end from Omaha South will enroll at Nebraska in the fall, according to Husker Football Coach Bill Jennings.

Novak has lettered three years in football, one in basketball and three in track, not counting the current season. He is 6-0 and weighs 190.

Dr. Sakai Earns Black Judo Belt

Dr. Robert K. Sakai, associate professor of history, has been awarded a black belt in judo.

The black belt is a symbol of the judo instructor and the rating is awarded by the Kodokan Judo Institute of Japan to those who have mastered the principles of judo and have shown through years of practice a high moral and ethical standard.

Dr. Sakai is the first faculty member at Nebraska to receive such an honor.
