

NU Thinclads Risk Record at Colorado

By Jan Sack
Nebraska's cindermen will lay their perfect record of 3-0 on the line Saturday when they meet the Colorado Buffs at Boulder.

Colorado will be competing with a crippled team due to injuries. Both sprinters Ray Graham and Rich Haskell are out of action because of pulled muscles. Pole vaulter Roger Olander will also see no action because of a sprained ankle.

Despite this Coach Frank Sevigne said, "This could be a close meet either way."

One of the best events should be the pole vault where Jim Kraft and Don Meyers will try to break a jinx. Both vaulters have tied in all their meetings in the last several years, Sevigne said.

In the shot put Al Wellman and Larry Reiners of Nebraska will face husky Bob Crumpacker. Crumpacker has a shot put mark of 53-6 1/4 compared with Wellman's best of 53-1 1/4. These same three will vie for honors in the discus.

The javelin should be especially good with Buff Dick Clark ranking third in the nation with a toss of 235 feet. Clark, the best in the Big Eight, will be out to grab a first from Husker Al Roots who holds the Nebraska varsity outdoor record with a toss of 218-4.

The broad jump will pit Meyers and Bill Toomey of Colorado against Bob Knaub of Nebraska who recently jumped 23-11 1/4. Last year against the Huskers Toomey jumped 25-0.

High jumpers to represent Nebraska will be Bill Williams and Vayden Anderson. On the track Colorado will be especially strong in the 440-yard run. Jim Health, a sophomore who lowered the Big Eight Indoor 600 record to 1:12.0, will be competing against LeRoy Keane and Dick Hoelscher of Nebraska.

The 880 should also provide plenty of excitement as Bill Kenny and Clarence Scott match strides with Toomey of Colorado.

Ray Stevens, sophomore, should have no trouble capturing the mile and two-mile mile run against the Buffs. Paul Nielsen will run the two-mile event for the Huskers.

Colorado boasts a top mile relay team with a clocking of 3:15.2. In the Colorado Relays Bob Knudsen and Rich Toomey led off with marks of :49.9 and :50.0 respectively. On his third leg Toomey ran a :47.7 and Heath ran the anchor leg in :47.3.

The Husker Mile relay team will probably consist of Knaub, Scott, Kenny and Hoelscher.

Sophomore Steve Pfister will run the 100- and 220-yard dashes for the Huskers. Entered in the 120-yard high hurdles are Bill Fasano, Fred Wilke and Milt Haedt. In the low hurdles competing for Nebraska will be Wilke, Fasano, and Keane.

NEBRASKAN SPORTS

NU to Bowl In Mountain Tournament

The Nebraska bowling team will compete this weekend in the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Bowling Tournament. The Huskers won the Nebraska state team championship in order to qualify for this meet. Winners of the Big Eight Bowling Tournament, the Huskers are currently ranked sixth in the United States.

Bowlers representing Nebraska are Ralph Holmstrom, Keith Van Velkinburgh, Dick Haase, Stu Kutler and Victor Bejot.

Winner of the conference will be determined by the total number of pins. Each team will shoot five games. Competition for the Nebraskans will be Denver University, Kansas University and North Dakota State.

The North Dakota State team is the only team that has beaten the Huskers this year. The winning team in the Rocky Mountain Conference will shoot three other teams from three other divisions in the United States at a later date with the total pins determining the U.S. champ.

GET ALONG LITTLE DOGGIE, THE RODEO'S COMING

Leon Olsen, University student from Wahoo, samples some of the stock as he practices calf roping at the College of Agriculture Arena for the upcoming Nebraska Intercollegiate Championship Rodeo May 13. This year's rodeo will feature calf roping, steer wrestling, saddle bronc riding, bareback riding and bull riding in the men's events and pole bending goat tying and barrel racing in the women's events. All-around cowgirl of the 1960 rodeo, Judy Maranville of Beatrice will defend her laurels.

NU Golfers Set For Two at Home

The Husker golfers will meet Kansas and Kansas State for the only athletic events taking place in Lincoln this weekend.

Kansas will face the Huskers on Hillcrest Country Club Course at 9:30 Friday morning, and Kansas State will tee off at 9:00 a.m. Saturday.

If the golfers can win both of these meets they will boast a 10-4 record.

Injury-Riddled Nebraska Nine To Meet Kansas in 3 Games

Tony Sharpe's baseball squad, reduced to 16 players when Dave McClatchy injured an ankle by stepping off a curb, will meet Kansas in a three-game set at Kansas today and Saturday.

In sixth place in the Big Eight with a 3-8 record, the Huskers hope to overtake Kansas State and Oklahoma in the Lawrence series. Kansas is in the league cellar with a 1-7 record.

Jan Wall, only seasoned pitcher on the staff, is slated for duty Friday in the opening game of two 7-inning frays. Ron Havekost will start the second game.

The Husker batting order: Rex Swett, ss; Don Schindel, cf; Steve Smith, lf; Jerry

Joyo: "Tomboy & the Champ," 7:20, 9:20.

Jennings Gets Mitchell Grider

Donald Goos, all-conference end in football and forward in basketball from Mitchell, will attend Nebraska next fall, Coach Bill Jennings announced.

Goos is 6-2 and weighs 175. He has earned four football letters, two in basketball and three in track. He played Legion baseball when attending school at Lovell, Wyoming, his team winning the state title in 1958.

In football, Goos has played end quarterback and tackle, and at center and forward in basketball.

Scrimmage Today

Nebraska Football Coach Bill Jennings has moved the scrimmage slated for Saturday up to 3 p.m. today if the weather permits. Jennings said a regular workout would be held Saturday.

Husker Netters Travel to Iowa

The Nebraska tennis team will be Iowa-bound this week end as they meet Drake University in Des Moines on Friday and Iowa State at Ames on Saturday.

Husker net hopes for their second victory will be centered on the performance of Jack Craft, senior letterman who has recently joined the 1961 squad.

The Husker tennis team's only victory came when they downed Omaha, 6-2, in Lincoln early in April.

Papadakis Nominated For Top IM Athlete

Handball and Paddleball Champion Myron Papadakis is the first nominee for the Daily Nebraskan Outstanding Intramural Athlete award.

Papadakis, a junior in mechanical engineering and Navy ROTC, is described as an all-sport intramural athlete, participating in football, tennis, badminton, volleyball, softball, handball and paddleball.

He holds the all-University individual title in handball and paddleball and is a member of the all-University paddleball team along with fellow Delta Upsilon Dean Prazak.

The nominating letter qualifies Papadakis as a nominee with "Pappy is not only an outstanding intramural athlete, but he has been a member of Coach Dick Klass's varsity swim team. He earned his N as a butterfly swimmer. "He has won six All-University titles, three of them this year. He owns the handball and paddleball titles for the University."

The letter goes on to mention that Papadakis represented Nebraska at the Intercollegiate National Softball Tournament last year. He also placed second in class A doubles at the Midwestern AAU Tournament this year. "Pappy is planning to compete in the national tournament again this year," the letter continues.

Papadakis plays second base on the DU softball team and holds down the starting center position on the fraternity football squad.

"Excellent and versatility" are used to describe the Daily Nebraskan's first nominee for the outstanding intramural athlete award.

Winner of the award will be announced in the final issue, May 26, of the Rag and will be presented at a luncheon in the Student Union that day.

The award covers both semesters of this school year and any intramural athlete is eligible for the award.

An outstanding varsity athlete will also be selected. Nominations should be directed to: Hal Brown, Sports Editor, Daily Nebraskan, Student Union.

Two Huskers to Vie For Handball Titles

Two Huskers, Myron Papadakis and Paul Kotsines, have entered the U.S. Handball Association Intercollegiate National Championships to be held at Purdue University in Lafayette, Ind., May 11-13.

Papadakis has entered the Class B singles and Kotsines is entered in the Class A singles competition.

Dick Chamberlain and Al Cummins, last year's doubles representatives, will not make the trip this year. Texas won last year's team trophy with Colorado finishing second.
