

Guest Soloists Sing 'Creation'

"The Creation of Haydn," the most popular oratorio ever written, will be presented Sunday evening at 8 p.m. in the Coliseum.

The Choral Union of the University, composed of 500 student voices, and the University Symphony Orchestra will present the program.

The soloists will be three professional operatic, stage and concert performers: Jeanette Scovotti, Leon Lishner and John Alexander.

Alexander is leading tenor soloist with the New York City Opera Company.

Professor Emanuel Wishnow, chairman of the department of music, will conduct the University's major musical production.

Miss Scovotti, which musically depicts the beginning of the world, will include the following selections:

Introduction - Representation of Chaos
Recitative - Bass - In the beginning
Chorus - And the Spirit of God

Recitative - Tenor - And God saw the light

Air - Tenor - Now vanish before the holy beams

Chorus - Despairing, Recitative - Bass - And God made the firmament

Solo - Soprano - and Chorus - The marvelous work

Recitative - Bass - And God said, Let the waters under the heaven

Air - Bass - Rolling in foaming billows

Recitative - Soprano - And God said, Let the earth be

Air - Soprano - With verdure clad

Recitative - Tenor - And the heavenly host

Chorus - Awake the harp Recitative - Tenor - And God said, Let there be lights

Recitative - Tenor - In splendour bright

Chorus with Trio - The heavens are telling

Recitative - Soprano - And God said, Let the waters bring forth

Air - Soprano - On mighty pens

Recitative - Bass - an God created great whales

Recitative - Bass - And the angels struck their immortal harps

Terzetto - Soprano, Bass, Tenor - Most beautiful appear

Trio and Chorus - The Lord is great

Recitative - Bass - And God said, Let the earth bring forth

Recitative - Bass - Straight opening her fertile womb

Air - Bass - Now heav'n in fullest glory shone

Recitative - Tenor - And God created man

Air - Tenor - In native worth

Recitative - Bass - And God saw everything that He had made

Chorus - Achieved is the glorious work

Trio - Soprano, Tenor, Bass - On Thee each living soul awaits

Second Chorus - Achieved is the glorious work

The production will be free to the public.

Calypso Jazz

Calypso music will be the feature of the Jazz and Java session to be held in the Crib this afternoon from 4-5 p.m.

Physics Prof Plans Lectures

National Science Grant Sponsors Dr. Richards

Dr. Hugh T. Richards, professor of physics at the University of Wisconsin, will serve as a visiting lecturer at the University, Monday and Tuesday.

Professor Richards, a representative of a nationwide program, is supported by the National Science Foundation, to stimulate interest in physics.

The topic of Dr. Richards' address to the Physics Undergraduate Seminar on Monday will be "Origin and Abundance of Elements." He will also address the Physics Department Colloquium on Tuesday on "Proton Scattering from Oxygen-16." Both lectures will be at 4:15 p.m. in Brace Laboratory.

Dr. Richards has also scheduled informal meetings with students and conferences with faculty members on curriculum and research problems.

A University of Wisconsin faculty member since 1946, Dr. Richards does research in nuclear physics. He worked at the Los Alamos Scientific Lab from 1943 to 1946, where he assisted in tests on the atomic bomb.

Huskies A'Comin'

The Cornhusker, University yearbook, will be distributed on Saturday from 1-3 p.m. and on Sunday from 2:30-4:30 in the Student Union party rooms on first floor.

Approximately 700 will be distributed on each of the designated days. Each purchaser must have a receipt.

Kohlhligian Leaves Nebraska Center

Martin Kohliligian resigned Wednesday as managing director of business affairs at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education.

Mr. Kohliligian, who came to the University in 1956 as food service director of the Nebraska Union, has accepted a position as food service director for General Motors in Rosville, Mich.

Shapiro Plans

Year Study Tour

Dr. Karl J. Shapiro, professor of English and noted poet, will complete a study of the middleclass American poet in Southern France from the last of May through June of next year.

His "million-word poem" in autobiographical form and a study of the little literary magazines of Europe will be financed by the Woods Foundation Faculty Fellowship from September through February and a University Research Council Grant from February through June, during extended leave from the University.

Dr. Shapiro will leave the University immediately after the conclusion of classes.

May 18 Sinfonia

Sing Cancelled

The Sinfonia Concert originally scheduled for May 18 has been cancelled.

However, Sinfonia, in cooperation with the three music societies, Delta Omicron, Mu Phi Epsilon and Sigma Alpha Iota, will perform an original requiem, written by Walter Ross.

This requiem will be performed on May 20 at the Music Theory Recital.

FRONT AND CENTER!

Cadet Ken Temporo is shown receiving the General John J. Pershing Award from Chancellor Clifford Hardin at the annual Army-ROTC Federal Inspection and Awards presentation Thursday.

ROTC Units Parade; Men Receive Awards

Parades and awards dominated the Military scene at the University Thursday afternoon when the Army ROTC and Air Force ROTC units marched in formation before visiting personnel.

Cadet Col. Kenneth F. Temporo was awarded the General John J. Pershing award by Chancellor Clifford Hardin for his outstanding work in the Pershing Rifles. Cadet Temporo has been a motivating force in the organization for four years and during the past year served as the National Commander.

Superior cadet awards were presented to an outstanding member of each class. Cadet Brig. Gen. Donald Epp won the award for the senior; Cadet 2nd Lt. Richard Schmelting, junior; Cadet Sgt. Craig Nolte, sophomore; and Cadet Peter Mazurak, freshman.

The awarded were presented by Col. Carl F. Lyons, representing Headquarters XVI U.S. Army Corps.

Col. C. J. Frankforter awarded three medals to the outstanding cadets who attained the highest standing at summer camp. The medals donated by Col. Frankforter were presented to Cadet Col. Arthur A. Hughes, the gold medal; Cadet Col. John C. Bond, the silver medal; and Cadet Col. Lowell E. LaRue, the bronze medal.

Reserve Officers Association medals were presented to Cadet Capt. Thomas D. Peck, senior, and Cadet Juris Jauntis, sophomore. Certificates of commendation were awarded to Cadet Col. Dee E. Cuttill and Cadet Capt. Rodson E. Ellerbusch, both seniors. Colonel R. J. Graham of the Lincoln chapter of the Reserve Officers Association made the awards.

The Edgar J. Boschult Memorial Award was presented to Cadet Sgt. Knute A. Bertsis, a first year cadet, by Commander Oran L. Graves of the Lincoln Chapter of the American Legion. The award also includes a $200 scholarship.

Cadet Sgt. Stephen J. Temporo was awarded the American Legion Auxiliary cash award of $25. Cadet 2nd Lt. Laurence E. Litetson was awarded the Forty and Eight cash award of $20.

Cadet Sgt. Elvin R. Lukenbach was awarded the plaque of the Military Order of World Wars by the John M. Birkiner chapter.

The Association of the United States Army Medal was presented to Cadet 2nd Lt. William E. Holland by Col. John H. Ratliff of the Association.

Col. V. R. Rawie presented the William Randolph Hearst Marksmanship Medals to Cadet Capt. Marvin A. Cox, Cadet Capt. Conley R. Cleveland, Cadet 2nd Lt. William E. Holland, Cadet 2nd Lt. Howard McNiff, and Cadet Thomas A. Berry.

Air Science students were honored at the University Air Force ROTC Change of Command Parade.

The Lincoln Air Force Reserve Award, presented to one of the outstanding seniors of the AFROTC was presented to Gordon W. Fox. The award was made by Lt. Col. Miles Johnston.

Lyle W. Burry and Dale M. Lutz, juniors, were presented the Reserve Officer, Lincoln District Chapter Awards.

The Arts and Sciences of Nation Defence certificates was awarded to David B. Gustavson and the National Defense and the Association certificate went to Robert F. Greene, Jr. These awards were presented by Col. Ralston Graham.

The Sons of the American Revolution Award were presented by Lt. Col. Richard L. Hamilton to William G. Bennett, Phillip C. Brugger, Ned H. Criscimagna, William J. Hemming, Jr., Ronald D. Jones, William G. Kaufman, Henry S. Klein, John E. Lahiff, Curtis W. Nicholls, Lynn S. Reed, Glenn R. Schaumburg and Steven Svendsen.

Council Members Elect Gage President; Year's Programming Outlined

By Norm Beatty Steve Gage was elected president of the 1961-1962 Student Council Wednesday at the old Council's final meeting.

There are two meetings scheduled for the newly-elected Council before the end of the semester, according to Gage who succeeds the outgoing president, Ken Temporo.

Gage will be aided by four other elected holdover members which include the new first vice president, Jim Samples and new second vice president, Don Witt. Al Plummer and Sukey Tinan will be the two remaining holdover members.

The new president announced his general platform Wednesday just prior to his election. Included is the adaptation of the internal reorganization of the Council formulated and proposed by outgoing president Temporo.

Two Subdivisions Under this plan, the Council would be classified under two main subdivisions which, for all practical purposes, would do away with the present committee system to deal with Student Council business.

The purpose of this change is to establish better coordination of the Council's business and legislation which would eventually allow the Council to serve its overall aims better according to Gage.

In connection with this plank in his platform, Gage said he will advocate the acceptance of a Student Council worker system for freshman and sophomore level students. Also proclaimed was a Student Council advisor system composed of interested junior

Ag Coed Selected Royal Princess

A 19-year old home economics major was named as the Varsity Dairy Club's "Dairy Queen Princess" at the tenth annual Dairy Royal on Ag campus.

Jean Olsen, a Chi Omega sophomore, was selected from a field of five finalists by the members of the Dairy Club.

Leading eleven entrants in the annual Coed Cow Milking contest was Gay Nelson of Pedde Hall who milked over two pounds of milk in two and one-half minutes to take championship honors.

Senior Division Showmanship honors went to Dennis DeFrain and Gene Grabenstein was named Junior Division Showmanship champion.

The Royal was held Thursday evening in the horsebarn on at the College of Agriculture.

N.I.A. Business Meet

The business meeting of the Nebraska International Association (NIA) will be held Sunday at 8 p.m. in the Student Union.

University students should give serious thought to attending summer school according to Frank Sorenson, director of summer sessions.

Sorenson said an accelerated educational program is vital to the student who wants to take a more responsible position in his community and to the nation as a whole as America moves into the complexities of the space age.

"Students used to be busy during the summer," he said, "but they too are beginning to realize they want to hasten the day of graduation."

"Education is the best route to better jobs," he said. "Students who attend summer school can earn a Bachelor's degree within three years after high school graduation, and thus begin graduate or professional work a year sooner, he said."

Students taking five year courses such as engineering and architecture have the opportunity to complete the course in four years.

Sorenson said the summer programs offer financial as well as academic advantages. "If a student were to work each summer after high school graduation and save $500-$700 per summer, his total savings over four years would still be only half of the $4,500-$5,500 he could earn during the added year of work gained by graduating early."

"And there is still time for plenty of vacation in August," Sorenson said.

He said a more mature level of campus entertainment is planned during the summer months.

This includes concerts, foreign films, off-campus tours to the Capitol, penitentiary, a tour of the Lincoln newspapers, summer theater presentations and a world affairs preview.

and senior students who are non-Council members.

"Such a program would establish pools of Council manpower to justly handle any problems which confront the Council at any one time. It allows flexibility with the committee framework to compensate for overworked council members and underworked council members," he noted.

Acquaintance Under this plan Council members would aid the non-Council members in acquainting them with Council functioning. At the same time non-Council members would aid the regular members by helping with the busy work that hinders the smooth operation of the Council itself, Gage explained.

Freshmen and sophomores who demonstrate an interest and an ability to contribute to the work of the Council would be recommended "as

Two Artists Win Awards At Exhibition

Two University representatives won purchase awards at the 11th annual Mid-American exhibition at the Nelson Gallery-Atkins Museum.

Winning the awards were: Jeanne H. Richards, assistant professor of art, who is exhibiting the print, "Medicine Man," and Larry T. Johnson, a senior in the art department, who is exhibiting a painting, "Landscape."

Johnson, who was last year's winner of the Vreeland Award in Art, will be on the staff of the Kansas City Art Institute next year.

Also selected for exhibition was the painting, "Black Painting 1960," by Tom V. Schmitt, assistant to the director of the University Art Galleries.

The annual Mid-American exhibition attracts an eight-state area for entries and selects the works to be shown on standards of artistic quality.

Miss University Will Accept Crown at Saturday Pageant

One of 11 finalists will wear the crown of Miss University of Nebraska when the Scholarship Pageant on Saturday has ended.

Everyone is invited to join in the suspense by attending the first Miss University Scholarship Pageant, Saturday, in the Student Union ballroom at 8 p.m. Tickets will be on sale at the door for 75 cents.

The purpose of the Pageant is to find the girl to represent Lincoln in the State Scholarship Pageant to be held on June 8, 9, and 10, in Fairbury, Nebraska, who in turn will represent Nebraska in the Miss America Pageant.

The Jaycees of Lincoln have broadened the scope of Pageants and Lincoln is the first city of the state to hold three Pageants. In addition to Miss University of Nebraska, the usual Miss Lincoln Pageant will be held Saturday, May 20th, and another new pageant, Miss Nebraska Wesleyan, Friday, May 19th.

The Pageant itself is not just another beauty contest, but rather a junior addition of the Miss America Pageant of Atlantic City. The purpose of the Pageant is to select a girl who could become Miss America.

The girls appearing in the Pageant are: Judith Mae Birney—Alpha Phi

Vicky Sue Cullen—Gamma Phi Beta

Lois Rae Deane—Delta Gamma

Kayla Ann Grueber—Alpha Phi

Lucille H. Madden—Delta Gamma

Cynde Peterson—Kappa Delta

Claire Rae Roehrka—Sigma Kappa

Joan Louise Sandall—Chi Omega

Suzanne Stolz—Alpha Omicron Pi

Judith Tenhulzen—Kappa Alpha Theta

Kitty Sue Troxel—Gamma Phi Beta

MAY 19 RAMSEY LEWIS FOUR PREPS