Civil Engineering Society Merges with Chi Epsilon

The civil engineering honorary society at the University will become nationally affiliated with Chi Epsilon, National Honorary Fraternity for Civil Engineers.

Chi Epsilon will be the third Engineering departmental honorary at the University.

The affiliation is the result of three years of planning and petitioning of the national organization. The society officially began May 1, 1958 when twelve Civil Engineering students consolidated their efforts and began laying the groundwork for the honorary.

Installation ceremonies and banquet will be held on May 13 at Cotner Terrace, with Professor Flanders of the civil engineering department of Oklahoma State University as the main speaker.

Scott Tucker will be installed president with J. D. Schafer vice-president; Milton Thomson, secretary-treasurer; and Brian Paulsen, transit correspondent.

In addition to the thirteen alumni, the chapter members are made up of fourteen actives and nine pledges. The actives are: Donald Campbell, Roger Johnston, Albert Kendall, Brian Paulsen, Ronald Rockwell, Stanley Ruden, Donald Straub, Jim Vincent, Alex Cheng, Bob Clary, Lloyd Krivanek, J. D. Schafer, Milton Thomson and Scott Tucker.

English Prof Will Consult At Session

Dudley Bailey of the University English department, will be a consultant and speaker at the fourth summer conference on the Teaching of Composition, Language and Literature sponsored by the University of Missouri.

The conference will be held on the MU campus June 12-16, June 19-23, June 26-30 and July 3-7. The conference will present current points of view on course content, standards and requirements, techniques of instruction and grading practices.

To allow full participation, attendance at each of the five-day periods will be limited to 25-30 teachers. There will be three sessions each day: 8:30-9:50 a.m.; 10:11-11:40 a.m.; and 1-2:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

On three evenings there will be discussions and demonstrations of new teaching films from the Commission on English and of other audiovisual aids.

There will be no fees, but attendance will be by enrollment only, through the University department of English.

Other speakers and consultants in addition to Bailey include: Richard Corbin, Hunter College; James Downer, University of Michigan; Willoughby H. Johnson, University of Missouri; and Robert Wells, Washington University.
