

Dramatization of Helen Keller Begins Union Program Series

The Nebraska Union has a wide program of entertainment planned for students and faculty during the summer session. The schedule includes entertainers and lecturers, movies, bowling, tours and bridge lessons in addition to the Union's regular facilities.

The Union artist series will open with a solo dramatization of the life story of Helen Keller, by Muriel Wolfson to be presented Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Union Ballroom.

Miss Wolfson, a noted actress in the Chicago area, has toured the United States and Canada with one act dramatizations, taught creative dramatics and appeared in several radio day-time serials.

In her original drama of Helen Keller called "Two Lives," she introduces the presentation by pointing out that, while "Two Lives" is the story of two women who together triumph over the greatest personal handicap "it is in the broadest sense the story of you and me — since we're all, in some way, to some degree handicapped."

Other programs in this series will feature C. Shaw Smith, known in the eastern states for his smooth talk and sleight-of-hand magic. Audun Ravnar, who will appear with the All-State Band, is a faculty member of the University of Nebraska especially noted for his brilliance on the piano. The summer choral concert will feature Miss Margaret Hillis, visiting choral director from the American Choral Foundation in New York City.

"Lords Puppets International" will delight old and young, when the Nebraska

MISS WOLFSON

Union artist series joins all of the other Union facilities for a Family Night. Closing the Summer Calendar will be a concert by the Summer Symphony and a Peruvian Festival, featuring his excellent Fernando Berckemeyer of Peru.

Tours Scheduled
Tours, this year are to the Lincoln Air Force Base, Nebraska State Penitentiary and the Journal-Star Printing Company. Sign up lists will be in the Union Program Office.

Two film series are offered during the Summer, Nebraska Union Film Classics on Thursday evenings at 7:30 p.m. will be held in Love Library Auditorium. This series includes a broad selection: "Broth of A Boy" is an Irish film; "When Comedy Was King" and "The General" is a salute to silent comedy and early talking comedies; "The Sea Around Us" is on life under-water.

Monday nights "Cinema '61" will provide movies in the Nebraska Union Auditorium.

Free Bridge Lessons for beginners and "experienced, but need help" will be taught on Tuesday afternoons at 4 p.m. by a professional instructor. During "duplicate bridge" on Thursday afternoons at 4 p.m., bridge partners will be provided.

Family Night
Especially of interest to married students, faculty and staff will be Family Night. All Union facilities are opened from 6-10 p.m. for this night, at special rates, while a baby sitter will be provided for children under 8 years.

Information on any program is available at the Program Office, Room 136 Nebraska Union.

Other Union facilities include:

The Cafeteria which will be open for lunches Monday through Saturday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and for dinners Monday through Friday from 5-6:30 p.m.

The Colonial Dining Room which will be open from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The Crib, fountain and grill, which will be open 6:30 a.m.-10:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday, Friday and Saturday it will be open from 6:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Sundays the Crib will open at 2 p.m. and close at 10:30 p.m.

The music rooms and book nook will be open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily, except on Sunday when they will be open 2-10:00 p.m.

The Union games area offers bowling, billiards, table tennis, bridge, checkers, chess and scrabble. Instructors are available in all areas of the Games department.

Union services also include lunch room and the University Book Store.

NU Coed Named Miss Nebraska

A University student, Nancy Foreman of Albion, was named Miss Nebraska at the beauty pageant in Fairbury last weekend.

Miss Foreman, a junior majoring in speech, was awarded a $1,000 scholarship. She was crowned by Cheryl Ann Jaeke, last year's Miss Nebraska and also a University coed.

Summer Bookshelf

The University library staff has provided the Summer Nebraskan with the following list of books suggested for summer reading. Some of these books are fiction, some non-fiction and some are even recommended reference books to enhance your summer curriculum. The reading list will be a regular feature of the Summer Nebraskan.

Kiver, Milton S. Transistors in Radio, Television and Electronics is a book about the specks of equipment used in all fields of electronics and in products ranging from miniature pocket radios to room-size computers.

Nyren, Dorothy. A Library of Literary Criticism. Criticism of 170 American authors has been arranged for quick reference in this volume. The authors included wrote or came to prominence after 1900. Full bibliographical information allows the reader to go to the source for more detailed criticism if he wishes. Dorothy Nyren's "library" is a welcome continuation of the eight-volume Library of Literary Criticism of English and American Authors, which was completed by Charles Wells Moulton in 1905.

The Marzuban-nama. Tales of the Arzuban; translated from the Persian. These Persian fables were collected in the thirteenth century, though their origin is much earlier. The collection is regarded by Persians as one of their great prose classics. The fables, like those of Aesop and La Fontaine were intended to impart wisdom in the guise of entertainment. The translator, Reuben Levy, is professor of Persian at Cambridge University.

World Health Organization. Air Pollution. This is collection of essays on the nature of various kinds of air pollution, their effects on human health, animals and plants and pollution prevention and control. The book is intended primarily for public officials and in particular, public health officials, who are faced with the necessity of taking appropriate and effective action.

Shapley, Harlow. Sourcebook in Astronomy. Sixty-nine essays which illustrate the vigorous march of astronomy from 1900 to 1950 and which are informative to the general reader. Some fairly technical essays have been included which represent the high points in our understanding of astronomy.

British Association for the Advancement of Science. The Complete Scientist. An inquiry into the desirability of broadening the education, both in secondary schools and universities, of those intending to become professional scientists and engineers.

Shirer, William L. The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich. Shirer's perceptive, on-the-scene reporting coupled with careful and extensive research has led to a powerful reconstruction of the days of the Third Reich. Documented by transcripts of secret conferences, diaries and testimonies of Nazi leaders, army orders and private letters, Shirer presents a compelling history of one of the greatest and most frightening chapters of our time.

Gordon, Richard E. and Katherine K. The Split-Level Trap. The authors first outline case histories of various individuals trapped into suburban living by the great American urge to get ahead fast. The remainder of the book is devoted to suggestions and techniques of adjusting to the tensions brought on, or multiplied by, the sudden transition to suburbia.

KUON-TV Summer Programming

KUON-TV's Peabody Award-winning series, Heritage, will be seen on Channel 12 again this summer on Tuesday and Friday evenings.

The series is designed to present distinguished persons in an informal setting and allow them to comment on the ideas and ideals which have contributed to their philosophy.

Judge Learned Hand of the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals and Dr. Mortimer J. Adler, director of the Institute for Philosophical Research in San Francisco, are featured in the current sequence of programs.

The following schedule is a complete listing of KUON-TV programs for the week of June 13-19:

- Tuesday, June 13
 - 5:30 p.m. Evening Prelude: One full hour of classical dinner music.
 - 6:30 Meant for Reading: "Freedom." This ten-part series is a spoken anthology of great literature chosen and read by Dr. John W. Dodds. Each program blends philosophy and literature around a social theme with readings from authors as varied as Socrates, Shakespeare, Donne and Benly.
 - 7:00 Great Plains Trilogy: "The Fur Trade-Big Business." The first map of the West was drawn on a beaver skin. Fur trade posts and fur companies are shown.
 - 7:30 Family Doctor: "Heart Disease," Dr.

Cherkasky explains the methods of examining the heart, including the taking of electrocardiographs. He describes the effects and the causes of the heart attack and the steps that can be taken to guard against it and to lessen its effects.

8:00 Oriami: Japanese Paper-folding. "Crane" For this last program, Mr. Mikami creates one of the most popular and best known Oriami subjects — the crane. He folds it several times and explains the reason why it is so popular in Japanese decoration.

8:30 Heritage: "Capitalism and Democracy." In what is perhaps the most controversial program of this series, Dr. Adler discusses the ramifications of the role of "pure capitalism" in a democracy. His proposals are unusual and involve some very spirited discussion.

9:00 National Goals: See Monday, 7:30 for details.

9:30 Jazz Meets The Classics: "Rhythm." Can jazz and the classics agree? Are they completely separate, or can they come closer together in understanding? This program shows classical music lovers how to find satisfaction in jazz.

Featured Personalities: George Shearing and the Quietist and Father Norman O'Connor, C.S.P., Catholic Chaplain at Boston University.

Wednesday, June 14

5:30 p.m. Evening Prelude: One hour of classical dinner music.

6:30 Visit With A Sculptor: "Architectural Sculpture." Merrill Gage models in clay a relief which he has designed for use on the wall of a building. He demonstrates how a pointing machine is used to assist the sculptor in transferring the dimensions of the plaster model to the stone wall of a building.

7:00 Great Plays in Rehearsal: "Part II." The Master-builder by Henrik Ibsen. The Master-builder avoids discussion of Ibsen's use of symbolism.

7:30 Bible Plays: "The Balaam Narrative." Balaam (Numbers 22) is known chiefly for his locationist dorkery. Dr. Boyd does a masterful job of explaining the deeper significance of this curious story. This is the second program in a series designed to explore the literature and history of the Bible.

8:30 Family Doctor: See Tuesday, 7:30 for details.

9:00 Inquiring Mind: "The Inquiring Mind in Action, Part I." Dr. Houle and Ernest Earl Harrett, president of the Northeast Mississippi Junior College, describe ways in which adult students continue to learn. Where do they receive their education?

Thursday, June 15

5:30 p.m. Evening Prelude: One full hour of classical dinner music.

6:30 Inquiring Mind: See Wednesday, 9:00 for details.

7:00 Ordeal by Fire: "Scott's Anaconda." In this part of the history of the Civil War, Edwin MacMasters is appointed Secretary of War, Winfield Scott proposes that a Union ship be stationed off every Confederate port to strangle the rebellion in the "coils of the Navy," and the Confederacy cities begin to suffer from a lack of trade.

7:30 Oriami: See Tuesday, 8:00 for details.

8:00 Family Families: Babies don't grow like weeds — they have to be brought up. And the manner of their upbringing not only determines what kind of people they will be, but also provides important information about the kind of society into which they will be integrated. This program takes the viewer into four typical families, one each in Canada, Japan, India and France, and lets the viewer see how different social approaches the children.

9:00 Die Deutsche Stunde: This program is one of a series designed to present a background of conversational German. In the program, an American family is in the home of a German family. As he learns the basics of the language under their direction, the situations which the American finds himself are very comic indeed. This presents a very pleasant way to acquire a background in conversational German.

Friday, June 16

3:30 p.m. Evening Prelude: One hour of classical dinner music.

6:30 Die Deutsche Stunde: See Thursday, 9:00 for details.

7:00 Heritage: See Tuesday, 8:30 for details.

7:30 Briefing Session: See Monday, 9:00 for details.

8:00 Fine Arts Festival: See Monday, 9:30 for details.

9:00 Casuals Master Class: See Monday at 9:30 for details.

Monday, June 19

5:30 p.m. Evening Prelude: One full hour of classical dinner music.

6:30 The Quietist Plays Beethoven: "Opus 15." This program is devoted to the last complete work written by Beethoven. On this last program, producer Vincent Park introduces the instruments used by members of the quartet.

7:30 National Goals: "Economic Growth." What can this country achieve if the industrial spiral is leveled off and unemployment diminished. How high a rate of growth is necessary if we are to achieve the things we think are important? Dr. Wriston and William Bundy are joined by Lincoln Gordon to discuss these issues.

8:00 Backyard Farmer: How to care for those spring and summer lawns and gardens and how to deal with other specific problems that are part of backyard farming are topics on this program.

9:00 Briefing Session: "Our National Debt." Guest Representative Gerald R. Ford, Jr., R. Michigan, a member of the House Military Affairs Committee, and Professor J. Sterling Livingston, Harvard School of Business Administration join host Edward P. Moran to discuss the question of our national defense.

9:30 Casuals Master Class: "Haydn, Concerto in D, Opus 101 and Boccherini, Sonata in A Major." This program features another lengthy performance by Casals. It is particularly interesting because the Boccherini Sonata is a work rarely performed, even for a recording. Mr. Casals demonstrates his remarkable memory for the cello repertoire by playing with Miss Marshall without once consulting a score or faltering for a note.
