

DAILY NEBRASKAN SPORTS

Speedy Arizona, Next Nebraska Foe, Has Three All-American Candidates

By Dave Wohlfarth
 "Speed!" That is the one-word description of the Arizona Wildcats, Nebraska's next opponent, by Husker scout Dick Monroe.
 Nebraska will meet the explosive Wildcats Saturday at 2 p.m. at Memorial Stadium. The Huskers will go into the game with one win, a 33-0 scalping of the North Dakota Sioux in the NU opener last weekend.
 After watching Arizona down Colorado State 28-6 Saturday, Monroe pointed out that Arizona has "three of the finest backs we will be going against all season."
 The three, quarterback Eddie Wilson, and halfbacks Joe Hernandez and Bobby Thompson, are all considered possible All-American candidates.

Wilson, the commanding signal-caller, was Arizona's chief weapon against weak Colorado State Saturday. He passed for two touchdowns—one for 70 yards, the other 54—and scored a third TD himself after he had set it up with a 20-yard pass to the 3-yard line.
 Last season Wilson compiled a .534 completion percentage for 1,020 yards and nine touchdowns.
 Wilson hit each of his sparkling halfbacks in the Colorado State game, completing the 70-yarder to Hernandez and the 54-yard strike to Thompson.
 Hernandez, known as "Jackrabbit Joe," will be starting in the right halfback slot Saturday. Last season he scored 76 points for the Wildcats, which ranked him tenth in the nation in scoring.

 His co-hort, "The General" Thompson, left half, piled up 732 yards last year for an 8-yard average per carry.
 Husker Coach Bill Jennings commented Monday that Arizona uses a straight T formation and flankers. He warned of Wilson as a "dangerous thrower" and said that Nebraska's pass defense will get a stiff test this week.
 The Huskers, who held North Dakota to a minus eight yards rushing and only 42 yards through the air, will have their work cut out for them in corraling the speedy "Cat backs."
 "If our defense can hold up as well against the faster Arizona crew as it did against North Dakota we might celebrate another victory Saturday," Jennings stated.

 He described the Arizona line as average size, not big. Wildcat coach Jim LaRue has singled out Bob Garis, center and line-backer, and junior guard Howard Breining as "having the makings of the best blockers in the country."
 Nebraska came out of the rain-soaked opener with no serious injuries. Senior tri-captain Mick Tingelhoff, Husker center, who did not play in the NoDak game due to an elbow infection, is still on the doubtful list, according to Jennings.
 Tackle Bob Jones is again bothered by boil trouble and will not see any contact work this week, Jennings said. Reserve center Duncan Drum has a charley horse from the game and end Larry Donovan is back to duty this week.

The same as opened the Sioux game. For Monday's workout, Gary Toogood replaced the injured Jones at number one left tackle with Monte Kiffin running number two.
 George Haney and Ron Michka, who saw plenty of action Saturday, were the top two centers. Tingelhoff was still confined to Student Health, Jennings added.
 Jennings had plenty of praise for the Huskers in their opener and called the ability of the Huskers to get up even if they'd been knocked down, "a good second effort."
 He reported that quarterback Ron Meade, "threw well and ran the ball club well."
 Claridge Looks Good
 He also praised quarterback Dennis Claridge, who lived up to his billing in his first game as a Husker, and defensive halfback Warren Powers.
 Linemen receiving praise from the NU head coach included Bob Brown, Jones, Toogood, Ed Mitchell and Tyrone Robertson.
 Archie Cobb's status in regard to his attempt for a draft deferment is still unknown, according to Jennings. Cobb, NU's punting specialist, is scheduled to be drafted into the service Oct. 1. Jennings said he planned to use Cobb again this week.
 Dick McDaniel, senior end, tied a varsity record when he caught five passes, all from quarterback Meade, in the Husker opener.
 Coach Jennings swept the bench during the game, using 46 players, including five quarterbacks, whom he said he felt performed well.

NU Dressing Room Happy; Sioux Coach Proud Despite Loss

By Mike MacLean and Mel Hester
 "The most fun we've had in a long time" commented Husker junior quarterback Ron Meade when asked about Saturday's 33-0 victory over North Dakota.
 Meade seemed to reflect the attitude of the entire Cornhusker team in that they were elated over the season opener. He also was confident about the future, saying, "We can beat anybody."
 Bill "Thunder" Thornton felt that the backs had a difficult time getting footing, and that the score might have been higher if the field had not been so wet. Thornton said that the team was in "great shape. We were right in there all the time. We had good passing and a tremendous defensive line."
 When asked about the future, the Toledo star retorted, "We're going to be tough, real tough."

"We've got it this year, if we keep hitting, we'll have a great year." Concerning next week, he said, "Arizona will be tougher, but we will do well."
 Sioux Coach Proud
 "We're proud of our team," was the comment made by North Dakota coach Whitey Helling. Helling also stated his boys had a little of that old disease, stage fright.
 "With the defense set to stop the power of Bill 'Thunder' Thornton we might have helped some of the other Nebraska backs and I know we helped their air attack," was another comment made by the Sioux head coach.

Duane Breitling, North Dakota center, praised the half-back Thornton and tackle Bob Jones along with the tricky traps Nebraska executed for good yardage. Other Cornhuskers who were pined by the North Dakota club as being tough were Don Purcell, Ron Meade and Pat Clare.
 Bill Leifur, former Nebraska footballer who didn't see action because of injuries, commented that Nebraska has seemed to open up on offense and have gone to the air much more than in previous years.
 North Dakota, with their first string center on the injury list with a broken foot, had troubles with four of the snaps. "Snapped it a little too quick on that first one," said Breitling. "I don't know what happened on the next bad one."

Big Eight Roundup Colorado-Cowboy Battle Highlights Big 8 Slate

Big 8 Standings

Team	W	L	T	Pct.	Pts.	Opp.
Iowa State	1	0	0	1.000	14	7
NEBRASKA	0	0	0	.000	0	0
Kansas	0	0	0	.000	0	0
Missouri	0	0	0	.000	0	0
Oklahoma	0	0	0	.000	0	0
Kansas State	0	0	0	.000	0	0
Colorado	0	0	0	.000	0	0
Oklahoma State	0	1	0	.000	7	14

up against the Minnesota Gophers. Ron Taylor was a big gun against Washington State with two touchdown dives from one yard out.

Texas Christian had something under their sleeves Saturday to nip favored Kansas 17-16, or, anyway, that's what the predictors are saying. Kansas had their hopes shattered when junior Jerry Spearman kicked a 36-yard field goal through the uprights to clinch the game for TCU with minutes remaining.
 There was another shock in Kansas but with a different tang tied to it. Kansas State, which proved the predictors to be wrong again by upsetting Indiana 14-8.
 Reigning at the top of the Big Eight list is Iowa State after their conference win over Oklahoma State 14-7. One man dominated the Cyclones scoring column with both touchdowns. Tailback Dave Hoppmann gathered a 87 yard touchdown and a 40 yard touchdown to spark the Cyclones to their second win of the season.

A cross country team of four lettermen and four sophomores will compete for Nebraska this season, according to coach Frank Sevigne.
 Most talented returnee is Ray Stevens, a junior from North Platte who finished eighth in the Big Eight Conference meet last year with a 15:28 mark. Stevens also is co-holder of the Midwest AAU title over a four mile course in 21:06.

Other veterans to provide top performances are Bill Kenny from Waterloo, Ia.; Clarence Scott from New York City and Paul Nielsen from Western.
 First year varsity men include John Portee from Newark, N.J.; Stuart Tucker from New York City; Jim

WILDCAT BACKFIELD ACES—Pictured are Arizona's big three—all strong candidates for All-American honors—right half 'Jackrabbit' Joe Hernandez (35), offensive captain and quarterback Eddie Wilson (12), and left halfback Bobby Lee 'The General' Thompson (24).

Four Vets and Four Sophs To Pace Husker Runners

By Jan Sack
 Lewis from Butte and Andy Steele from Beverly, Mass. Last year in cross country postal conference Portee finished second with a 9:33.
 "The team which has been practicing for the past week has a lot better balance than in the past," Sevigne said.
 Returning letter winners will have the experience needed and the sophomores are also looking strong, he said.
 Sevigne expects to find the conference unchanged from last year when none of the schools had an outstanding team. Oklahoma State won the conference title last year with an upset. Strongest teams this season should be Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State.
 Nebraska will travel to Manhattan, Kan. for the season opener against Kansas State and Colorado on Oct. 7.

ARCHIE SAYS:

My cousin Archie—he thought the electric razor his gal gave him last Christmas was o.k. Then he tried Old Spice Pro-Electric, the before shave lotion. Now the guy won't stop talking, he thinks electric shaving is so great.

ARCHIE SAYS Pro-Electric improves electric shaving even more than lather improves blade shaving. ARCHIE SAYS Pro-Electric sets up your beard by drying perspiration and whisker oils so you shave blade-close without irritation. ARCHIE SAYS Pro-Electric gives you the closest, cleanest, fastest shave.

If Archie ever stops talking, I'll tell him I use Old Spice Pro-Electric myself.

P. S. There's a 40 size but Archie gets the 1.00 bottle. (He always was a sport).

SHULTON

On Campus with Max Shulman
 (Author of "I Was a Teen-age Dwarf," "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis," etc.)

THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND ME

It happens every day. A young man goes off to college, leaving his home town sweetheart with vows of eternal love, and then he finds that he has outgrown her. What, in such cases, is the honorable thing to do?

Well sir, you can do what Rock Sigafos did. When Rock left Cut and Shoot, Pa., he said to his sweetheart, a simple country lass named Tess d'Urbeville, "My dear, though I am far away in college, I will love you always. I will never look at another girl. If I do, may my eyeballs parch and wither, may my viscera writhe like spiders, may the moths get my new tweed jacket!"

Then he clutched Tess to his bosom and planted a final kiss upon her fragrant young skull and went away, meaning with all his heart to be faithful.

But on the very first day of college he met a coed named Fata Morgana, a girl of such sophistication, such poise, such savoir-faire as Rock had never beheld. She spoke knowingly of Franz Kafka, she hummed Mozart, she smoked Marlboros.

Now, Rock didn't know Franz Kafka from Pancho Villa, or Mozart from James K. Polk, but Marlboros he knew full well. He knew that anyone who smoked Marlboros was modern and advanced and as studded with brains as a ham with cloves. Good sense tells you that you can't beat Marlboro's exclusive selectrate filter, and you never could beat Marlboro's fine flavor. This Rock knew.

So all day he followed Fata around campus and listened to her talk about Franz Kafka, and then in the evening he went back to the dormitory and found this letter from his home town sweetheart Tess:

Dear Rock,
 Us kids had a keen time yesterday. We went down to the pond and caught some frogs. I caught the most of anybody. Then we hitched rides on trucks and did lots of nutty stuff like that. Well, I must close now because I got to whitewash the fence.
 Your friend,
 Tess

P.S.—I can do my Hula Hoop 3,000 times.
 Well sir, Rock thought about Tess, and then he thought about Fata and then a great sadness fell upon him. Suddenly he knew he had outgrown young, innocent Tess; his heart now belonged to smart, sophisticated Fata.

Rock, being above all things honorable, returned forthwith to his home town and walked up to Tess and looked her in the eye and said manly, "I do not love you any more. I love a girl named Fata Morgana. You can hit me in the stomach, with all your might if you like."

"That's okay, hey," said Tess amiably. "I don't love you neither. I found a new boy."

"What is his name?" asked Rock.

"Franz Kafka," said Tess.

"A splendid fellow," said Rock and shook Tess's hand, and they have remained good friends to this day. In fact, Rock and Fata often double-date with Franz and Tess and have heaps of fun. Franz can do the Hula Hoop 6,000 times.

Marlboro, in the king-size soft pack and famous flip-top box, is sold and enjoyed in all 50 States. And king-size unfiltered Philip Morris Commander, made of superb natural tobaccos, is also available wherever you travel.

Cliffs
 gifts of distinction
 13th & M
 Lindell Hotel
 come and browse
 open evenings
 til 9 p.m.

NOTICE
 Ask anyone and they will tell you that the place to get your flat-top or Ivy League is at—
BOB'S BARBER SHOP
 1315 "P" HE 5-9323
 appointments available