Alterations Made In Administration

By Bob Nye

Dr. Adam C. Breckenridge, dean of Faculties, has announced several structural changes in the administrative organization. One shift involves giving total responsibility of student housing to W. C. Harper, director of University Services. Formally, off-campus housing has been the responsibility of Van Westover.

Peace Corps Agent Talks To Students

Ray W. Focht, a Peace Corps field representative, will be on campus Thursday to discuss the Peace Corps with interested students and faculty.

Focht will have his headquarters in 235 Student Union from 2 to 5 p.m. His visit is part of a national information program involving over 500 campuses in regard to the Peace Corps.

Also in regard to the Corps program, the confirmation of the appointment of 128 corpsmen to the Philippines was received this week. Karen Long, a former student and the first Nebraskan selected for Peace Corps training, is a member of this group.

Of the original 157 candidates in the training program, 25 were not selected to serve abroad and four dropped out before the completion of the training period.

Any person who is interested in taking the Peace Corps examination, which is required before an applicant is considered for the training program, may take the exam this Saturday at the Lincoln post office. Application blanks may be obtained from Dean Breckenridge who is the University Peace Corps liaison.

Student Loans, previously the responsibility of University Services, has been merged with Scholarships and Student Employment. Dean Breckenridge said this will make it easier for those seeking financial assistance of all types.

The head of Junior Division and Deputy Registrar have had their working facilities arranged so that they will be able to work more closely together since they are both directly concerned with admissions. There was, however, no change in the structural skeleton of either office.

These changes are results of a committee for the evaluation of all Student Services, headed by Dean Breckenridge. The committee's function is to analyze and evaluate services which include, but are not limited to, matters of student housing, administration, records, health, the Nebraska Union and related activities, relations with organized houses, discipline, and financial assistance.

Dean Breckenridge stated that the committee is not looking for reorganization of services but merely making a complete survey. He said, however, that if the report submitted to the Chancellor indicated a need for change it would be taken before the Board of Regents.

He also said that he hoped to work with representatives of student organizations on this survey although there are no definite plans as of now.

Another committee which will be appointed about Nov. 1, will advise the Chancellor on individuals to be considered for the Dean of Student Affairs.

Phillip J. Colbert, present dean of Student Affairs, will retire July 1. The committee is expected to give their recommendations to the Chancellor during the spring.

Peterson Will File As Regent

Regent Foote Silent After Hearing News

Val Peterson, three-term governor of Nebraska and United States ambassador to Denmark, announced that he will file soon as a candidate for the Board of Regents of the University from District 5.

The fifth district post is represented currently by Frank Foote of Axtell. Foote, in an exclusive phone interview with the Daily Nebraskan, declined to comment about Peterson's decision to file for the post. Earlier Foote said he would decide whether or not to file for re-election "when the time comes."

In making the announcement, Peterson said: "A great many of my good friends from all walks of life have come to me in recent weeks and asked me to seek this post on the Board of Regents. I have decided to do so because of the importance of the University and because I want to see our great state have the finest possible higher education that it can afford."

Peterson, a native Nebraskan, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Wayne State College and his Master's degree from the University. He formerly held an instructorship in government here.

Peterson was elected to three consecutive terms as governor of Nebraska. He served in that capacity from 1947 to 1953. He became Federal Civil Defense Administrator in 1953 and relinquished that post in 1957 when he was appointed ambassador to Denmark.

He resigned his ambassadorship in 1961 and became vice chairman of the board of the J. M. McDonald Co., with headquarters in Hastings. He and his wife now reside in that city.

Innocents Agree to Increase '61 Homecoming House Display Budgets from $150 to $250

By Margy Martin

The Innocents Society agreed Monday night to raise the expense limit for Homecoming displays from $150 to $250.

They explained their action as necessary because most houses now exceed the present $150 limit. However, they stressed that the new limit will be enforced very strictly and any house judged by the evaluation team that has surpassed the limit will be disqualified immediately. Also, an organization does not have to spend as much as $250 on a display.

The Innocents also clarified the fact that the words "Homecoming" and "alums" do not have to appear in the title of the display. In the past a sign welcoming the alums to Homecoming was and still is sufficient.

The 1961 Homecoming has been set for Nov. 4, when Nebraska meets the Kansas Jayhawks.

Friday Evening

Homecoming house displays will be judged Friday evening, November 3. House display plans must be in the Innocents Society mailbox by 1 p.m. Friday afternoon, October 13. In case of duplications, the entry submitted first will be accepted. Entries must include a theme and a fairly detailed sketch of the display. A $15.00 entry fee must accompany all entries. The entry fees should be paid by check made payable to the Innocents Society.

The evaluation team will check all materials and equipment being used on the afternoon of November 3. All materials used must be outside by 2 p.m. and evaluation sheets filled out by that time.

Completion Time

Displays are to be completed November 3, by 6:30 p.m. and be in operation from 6:30 until 10 p.m. For the benefit of Saturday visitors, all houses are encouraged to keep their displays intact until after the game and to operate their displays from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. The displays will be judged on four points: originality, attractiveness, construction, and general relationship to the Kansas Jayhawks. A reference to Homecoming and alums must still be incorporated.

Correction

The name of Jack Watkins was unintentionally omitted from the list of Prince Kosmet finalists in Tuesday's Daily Nebraskan. Watkins is a senior majoring in music and is a member of Beta Sigma Psi fraternity.

In order to keep the competition controlled price-wise, the Society has given the appraisers the following criteria:

- 1) All expendable materials will be assessed at face value. This includes paint, all lumber (allowances will be made for lumber in very poor condition), wire, paper, etc.
- 2) All borrowed items will be assessed at rental costs. A valid rental receipt must be shown for each rented item. Transportation costs of these borrowed and rented items are to be included. In this category will be items such as large dimension lumber, public address systems, electrical equipment, scaffolding, lights, etc.

There will be three divisions in the competition. One division will consist of women's organizations. The remaining two divisions shall consist of the men's organized houses. Group I of the Men's Division includes Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Tau Delta, Kappa Sigma, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Chi, Theta Xi, Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Farmhouse, Delta Upsilon, Sellick Quadrangle.

Group II of the Men's Division includes the following houses: Acacia, Alpha Gamma Rho, Alpha Gamma Sigma, Beta Sigma Psi, Delta Sigma Phi, Pi Kappa Phi, Sigma Alpha Mu, Zeta Beta Tau, Theta Chi, Cornhusker Co-op, Brown Palace, Pioneer House, Ag Men's Club.

First, second, and third place plaques will be awarded in each of the three divisions. A first place traveling trophy will also be presented to the winner of the Women's Division, and a traveling trophy will be presented to the grand champion winner of the Men's Divisions. All awards will be made at the Homecoming Dance.

Last year's display winners were Gamma Phi Beta, Phi Gamma Delta and Delta Sigma Phi.

Each organized house selects an Honorary Producer candidate. These candidates sell University Theater tickets. The sorority and fraternity representatives selling the most tickets in proportion to the members of the house will be selected Honorary Producers for the 1961-'62 season. The membership totals will be provided by the Dean of Student Affairs office.

The first and second place winners in both the sorority and fraternity divisions will receive trophies which they may keep for one year and the following Rush Week. If a house wins the traveling trophy three years in a row, they retain possession of it. The Honorary Producers will each have a page in the Cornhusker and publicity in the University Theater play programs.

Last year's winners were Alpha Xi Delta and Delta Sigma Phi. Runner-ups were Sigma Kappa and Theta Xi.

ROTC Program--Strengths, Weaknesses

Editors' note: this article is the third in a series examining different views of the compulsory ROTC program.

By Tom Kotouc

It's Christmas 1961. A grimy frost has been sprayed on the barracks and parade ground outside. I got a letter this morning from a buddy of mine at the University who escaped the draft. He had been talking to Col. Francis Drath, the Deputy director of the State Selective Service Department, about his draft status.

The requirements are essentially the same as October he said. Local draft boards are not inducting anyone under 22 years of age, but are concentrating on 23-year-old men in the 1-A classification. Fathers, and high school students too, are now exempt, but husbands are not.

Generally, anyone satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course in college will not be drafted. Although local draft boards have the option of taking any college student not in the upper one-half of his class at the end of his freshman year, in the upper two-thirds at the end of his sophomore year, or in the upper three-fourths at the end of his junior year, the boards have not been exercising the option while adequate manpower is available outside this category.

A student above these minimum standards is classified 2-S while one below may be classified 1-A at the option of the board. A man is also deferred if remaining in college until the end of his freshman year.

Grad Students

A graduate student is usually deferred if studying in the sciences, mathematics, teaching or engineering fields and if carrying what the dean of the graduate college determines a full time course of study. Graduate students not working in these critical fields should check with their local draft boards to determine what deferment value their course of study has. Undergraduates in these fields are also usually exempt. Students in pre-med
