

Concert Plans to Add Bonus Show

Due to an "enthusiastic" response, the Lincoln Community Concerts Association is in the planning stage of a fifth bonus concert in their 1961-'62 season.

John West, chairman for the University Drive for the Lincoln Community Concert tickets, stated that the response has been "very good" however there are a few more memberships available until noon Saturday. Students may get their tickets from house representatives or the booth in the Student Union.

West further explained the bargain the students were getting for the $4 ticket price. They are receiving four scheduled concerts and a possible fifth bonus concert for that price. West said that if Mantovani was on tour and played a concert in Lincoln, the price for that one concert would be $2.50 to $3.

In 1951 the "New Music" which made Mantovani the most distinctive personality in the world of light music was recorded. He won the first of many gold discs with the recording of "Charmaine."

The highlight of the concert season will be his return to the United States for his fifth tour after a season's absence.

also excellent, as is proved by its three Academy Awards in technical areas — for 'Best Color Cinematography,' 'Best Color Art Direction and Set Decoration,' and 'Best Color Costume Design.' Composer Alex North has given the film an exciting, conquering score, available in LP record form. "Spartacus" is a great achievement for 31-year old director Stanley Kubrick. This is his fifth film — the others were "Paths of Glory," "The Killing," "Killer's Kiss," and "Fear and Desire" — and it proves Kubrick has a tremendous technical talent and comprehension of human values. "Spartacus" is a must!

Talent Auditions

... What?

But nevertheless, you must confess, If they take your ID. Maybe you remember this one: "The team was in the huddle, The captain lowered his head, And this is what they said: We'll take it, We'll win it, We'll raise that score— Nebraska, Nebraska — more, More, MORE — money." From the Omaha schools comes this epitome of positive thinking. No team can go wrong with this one:

"We can do it, We can do it, We can do it, HOW! We can do it, We can do it, We can do it, NOW! We can hit'em high, we can hit'em low— Let's have that chorus agina." And the last one really makes us question the logitivity of our existence: Cheerleader: "What's the matter with Nebraska?" Stands: "THEY ALL RIGHT!" Cheerleader: "WHO'S all right?" (And he asked it.) Stands: "Nebraska!!" Cheerleader: (65 years old) "LET'EM HEAR 'YA!"

At this point the quarterback is waving his hands for everyone to shut up their mouths so old Red and White can hear them numbers. But oh no: Stands: "NEE-BRASS-KK-AAAA!!!" Cheerleader: "Fifteen rahs and three (get this) yeah-bo's." At this point the ball is snapped, no one on our side knows it, and the opponents snatch the little devil and run 90 yards for a touchdown. You can't beat school spirit.

houses to do more than support or reject the IDEA of a parade or of concession stands, neither. The houses' contribution to the spirit of Homecoming is most adequately fulfilled in their displays. It is the organizations which we were depending on for sponsorship of concession, their work being completely separate from house displays.

The organizations of old N.U. have not, in the past few years, strained themselves to add spirit to Homecoming. Our questionnaire was planned to either give them a chance to contribute to Homecoming or to remain dormant as they have in the past. This is their decision, not Tassel's demand.

Tassels received much criticism last year because there was no Homecoming parade, or like substitute. Thus, in an effort to please all and to generate NEW SPIRIT for Homecoming we have submitted for student opinion the mentioned questionnaire. What spirit lives or dies during Homecoming we leave in the student's hands. What you, N.U., what you do not want we will not make a burden, by golly!

With spirit,
Mary Burbridge
Tassel's Homecoming Chairman
