The Nebraska Cornhuskers will be trying to upend Syracuse for the first time in 33 years when they meet the Orangemen in Memorial Stadium at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

The last Nebraska victory over their powerful Eastern rivals came in 1928 when they won a 7-6 verdict. In the series between the two schools NU has won three, lost five and tied one.

With the renewal of the series in 1957 Syracuse has zipped the Huskers twice. In '57 the Orange won 26-9 and shutout the Cornhuskers 35-0 at Syracuse in 1958.

Tomorrow's clash will be a battle of the bulge. The first units on the clubs are almost perfectly matched weight-wise. The Orange average 211 pounds per man on the first team and the Huskers tip in at 210 per man.

Lines Weigh Same
Both first team lines average 218 per man and the Syracuse backfield is only six pounds per back heavier than the Huskers.

Syracuse's second unit holds a 208-193 weight advantage over the Husker second eleven.

Bob Brown, Nebraska's 251-pound right tackle, is still on the doubtful list for Saturday's game. Brown has an ankle injury and has not been able to practice all week. If Brown is unable to go, Husker Coach Bill Jennings has indicated he will move Tyrone Robertson and Lloyd Voss up to the first and alternate units.

down a little and get the ball some, we can score somehow," Jennings said. "However, they have a bad habit of keeping the ball all day," he added.

"We certainly feel we have a good chance to win," Jennings stated.

He warned that Syracuse would not be overlooking Nebraska even though they have their traditional battle with Penn State next week. "It is a must game for us," he concluded.

Syracuse won its first two games this year before falling before Maryland 22-21 last week. The Orange will be out to bounce back and boost one of the most potent offenses in college football today.

Leading the Syracuse attack is All-American halfback

Ernie Davis. Davis, who has gained 214 yards this season in three games, will be the man the Huskers must stop in order to win.

The Orangemen can also strike through the air and quarterback Dave Sarette has already passed for four touchdowns this year.

The massive Syracuse line is bolstered by big John Brown, 230-pound outside tackle in the unbalanced Syracuse formation.

Coach Ben Schwartzwalder's Orangemen, ranked in the top ten in most pre-season polls, defeated Oregon State 19-8 and West Virginia 29-14 before being upset by Maryland.

Syracuse won seven and lost two last year and eighteen lettermen returned from the 1960 team. Key victories last year for the Orange were over Penn State (21-15), Kansas (14-7) and Miami (21-14).

Nebraska is undefeated but tied this year. Opening with a 33-0 win over hapless North Dakota, the Huskers were held to a 14-14 tie the next week by Arizona.

Last week Nebraska really came alive to knock out Kansas State 24-0 to win its first conference game.

Syracuse quarterback DAVE SARETTE (23) holds the ball for place-kicker end KEN ERICSON (87).

36,000 Expected

There are still some bleacher seats available for the Syracuse-Nebraska game, according to business manager A. J. Lewandowski.

Lewandowski estimated that 36,000 people will attend the game and added that a new innovation will be tried this week. The Nebraska band will sit in the north bleachers instead of the east stadium to make more reserve seats available.

Girl Watcher's Guide

Presented by Pall Mall Famous Cigarettes

Three views of an average, healthy girl

LESSON 1 - How to recognize a girl

It is not surprising, in these days of constantly changing fashion standards, that girls are often mistaken for men.

Certain popular items of apparel, such as slacks, baggy sweaters and jockey suits, contribute to this unfortunate situation. Therefore, we suggest that new students of girl watching start with the fundamentals (see above diagram). As you can see, girls are easiest to identify from the side. However, even the beginner will soon achieve proficiency from front and rear as well.

Advanced students can usually tell a girl from a man at five hundred paces, even when both are wearing asbestos firefighting suits. (You might try offering the subject a Pall Mall, but you won't prove anything. It's an extremely popular brand with both sexes.)
