

Ag YMCA Founder, Counselor Leaves Post After Forty Years

A University staff member whose name has been synonymous with the Agricultural College branch of the YMCA (Ag-Y) for almost 40 years is almost retiring from active association with the group—but not quite.

Dr. Carl E. Rosenquist, who organized the Ag-Y in 1923 and helped hold it together through some difficult early years, is relinquishing his longtime post as Ag-Y advisor. But his name is still connected with the student group as honorary chairman of the 1961-62 membership drive which opens with a kick-off dinner Wednesday.

After laying the foundation of Ag-Y in 1923, Dr. Rosenquist left Nebraska to teach at the University of Illinois for two years. When he returned to the state, he found the fledgling organization struggling for survival. He immediately began to rebuild it.

"We instigated a program designed to help freshmen," he recalled. "I spent many evenings in the Ag-Y room in Agricultural Hall helping freshmen with their courses." Emphasis on "how to study" aimed primarily at freshmen was continued for many years.

A sister "Y" organization on the city campus grew, thrived and "died on the vine," Dr. Rosenquist noted, but the Ag-Y has been continuously active through the years, and members are looking forward to its 40th anniversary in the spring of 1962.

Discussion about religion and student problems were very common in earlier meetings of Ag-Y, as is true today, the longtime botany professor observed.

"In the early days, many freshmen in college were away from home for the first time. They needed help and understanding. They needed the company of other boys who had the same ideals and problems. They also needed to work out and embrace a philosophy of life with God as the focal point," he concluded.

Richard Bringelson, Ag-Y president, said it is hoped that current membership of 25 can be doubled during the impending membership drive. Ag-Y membership chairman Elray Nieman has named Jay Graf as "head boss" of the drive.

Graf will work with "section bosses" Ray Preston and Jesse Felker who in turn are supervising six "freshmen" and 24 "riders." The total membership team of 33 men Ag students will call on 185 prospects, with the drive slated to end October 26.

Spanish Club Elects Officers for New Year

The Spanish Club has elected its officers for the coming year.

The new officers and their posts are Christy Froschheuser, president; Don Squire, vice-president; and Jose Rodriguez, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Robert Esquenazi of the romance language department is the new faculty advisor.

The first Spanish Club event will be the dance Wednesday featuring Latin American music and some dancing demonstrations.

Ag YMCA Begins Membership Drive

The Ag YMCA's annual membership drive will begin with a "Kick-Off" party Wednesday at 6 P.M. in the Ag Union.

The party includes all YMCA workers and leaders. A membership retreat for all the new and old members will be held October 27 at the end of the drive.

Pollmann Wins KNUS Contest

Dewayne Pollmann of Selbeck Quadrangle, won a lighter in the KNUS football contest on Saturday's Nebraska-Syracuse game.

Pollmann's guess of the composite score was 33 compared to the actual score of 34.

KNUS is sponsoring the contest for every home football game. Entries are to be addressed to KNUS, Temple building. The earliest post-marked card with the closest guess to the actual composite score is declared the winner.

Party Features Halloween Idea

An "Ole Fashion Halloween Party" is the theme for the International Student Party set for Oct. 22 7-10 p.m. in the Pan American room of the Union.

Entertainment in the Halloween fashion, as well as dancing and refreshments have been planned for the party by the Union Hospitality committee. Coeds from both Alpha Lambda Delta and Red Cross will also be on hand to act as hostesses.

The public is invited to attend this party.

Be perspicacious!

Not this: a student who dozes over books no matter how much sleep he gets.

This: perspicacious... sharp! NoDoz keeps you awake and alert—safely!

If you sometimes find studying soporific (and who doesn't?), the word to remember is NoDoz. NoDoz perks you up in minutes, with the same safe awaker found in coffee or tea. Yet NoDoz is faster, handier, more reliable. Absolutely non-habit-forming, NoDoz is sold everywhere without prescription. So, to keep perspicacious during study and exams—and while driving, too—always keep NoDoz in proximity.

The safe stay awake tablet—available everywhere. Another fine product of Grove Laboratories.

Morrison Plans to Study German School System

Gov. Frank Morrison will spend some time studying the German education system when he makes a trip to Germany Nov. 11-24 as a guest of the West German government.

Morrison said his itinerary will be mapped out by the German government, but that he plans to visit Heidelberg University and to view such problems as finance, curriculum and teacher requirements in the German primary and secondary schools.

The invitation, he said, resulted from an article in Reader's Digest magazine which complimented Nebraska on its leadership in cultural-economic exchanges with West Germany.

A group of young German people visited Nebraska for three weeks last summer as part of the program.

The German Consul General at Chicago invited Morrison to visit his country to "further promote understanding between the American and German people," Morrison said.

"In view of the fact that the international situation is what it is, and our own economic structure is entwined with the whole world, I decided to take advantage of the offer," Morrison said.

Classes in slide rule conducted by Sigma Tau, national engineering honorary society, have begun.

Application forms are available in any of the engineering buildings. Classes are not limited to engineering students. Eight sections in both beginning and advanced slide rule are conducted at 5 and 7 p.m., Monday through Thursday.

The classes will meet once a week for three weeks. Fundamentals of slide rule operation will be covered in that length of time.

Last year's classes had the largest enrollment with 140 students.

Blue Print Covers Win Frist Place

The Nebraska Blue Print won first place for best covers for the 1960-61 school year and second place for the April cover at the convention for Engineering College Magazines Associated held at the University of Michigan.

Delegates from the University were Mike Hewlett, managing editor of the Blue Print, Lynn Corcoran, article editor, and Professor Thomas Smith faculty advisor.

Hewlett said that Toshiro Isa, art director, "received many, many compliments from other schools there on the beautiful job he's done on drawing covers." Toshiro Isa uses one of the articles in the magazine for the idea and makes a symbolic cover.

The ideas presented at the convention were based on the fact that engineering publications are designed to give engineering students an opportunity to write on technical subjects. Industries stressed the importance of engineers not only knowing the technical material, but also being able to express their thought on it.

The convention consisted of the annual business meeting, committee meetings, and clinics on article writing, layout practices, cover design and others giving advice to magazines in different aspects of the field. The keynote address was given at the Awards Banquet by Dr. Ralph Snyder, Dean of School of Graduate Studies and Vice-president for Research at the University of Michigan.

Michigan Technic, the Michigan University engineering magazine, sponsored the convention. They planned trips to the Dearborn plant and Phoenix Project, a pool nuclear reactor.

The Nebraskan Blue Print will go on sale later this month. Members of Engineering Society will sell them.

Engineering students interested in working on the Blue Print can contact Hewlett or Dick Meyers, editor, at the Theta Xi fraternity house.

Post Card Incident Brings Corps Criticism

Students in the small African country of Nigeria have demanded the ouster of the entire Peace Corps team in that country.

The demands have come after an announcement by the director of the Peace Corps, Sargent Shriver, that a new Peace Corps project has been proposed for the Federation of Malaya.

A post card written and mailed by Peace Corpswomen Margery Michelmore, 23, of Foxboro, Mass., went astray and was found by students near the Ibadan University campus. The Ibadan Students' Union called Miss Michelmore's remarks "damaging to our country" and demanded her and other members of the Peace Corps in Nigeria taken out of the country.

The postcard was copied and circulated among some 1,500 Negro students at the University. The postcard read as follows:

"Dear Bobbo:
Don't be furious at getting a postcard. I promise a letter next time. I want you to see the incredible and fascinating city we were in. With all the training we had we were really not prepared for the squalor and absolutely primitive living conditions rampant both in the cities and the bush.
"We had no idea about what 'underdeveloped' means. It really is a revelation and once we got over the initial shock, it is a very rewarding experience. Everyone except us lives in the streets, cooks in the streets and even goes to the bathrooms in the streets . . ."

After this incident Miss Michelmore wrote a letter of apology to the University of Ibadan in which she said she had offered her resignation from the Peace Corps.

Sent Apology
She also sent a letter of apology to the president of the university hall where she was staying. In effect she said she was sorry for having written the thoughtless postcard and would like to stay in Nigeria.

The Students' Union President Dapo Falase said the Peace Corps intention was first to spread what he called American imperialist propaganda in Africa and second "to spy on what you are doing."

A little before this incident broke out in Nigeria, the director of the Peace Corps made his announcement concerning the new program for the Federation of Malaya.

There is no report as to whether the Nigerian ouster will alter any or all of the Corps program.

Health, Education
The new project provides for volunteers to begin working in Malaya early next year in the fields of health, education and rural development.

Some forty candidates for the assignment began an eight-week training program Monday at Northern Illinois University. The University is especially competent in Malayan studies.

Shriver emphasized that it was developed in response to a request for a Peace Corps program from the Federation of Malaya. The request was submitted to Shriver last May during a visit to the Malayan capital.

"In the four months since that time," Shriver said, "representatives of the Peace Corps and the Malayan government have energetically worked out the program and reached the point where training can begin."

Nurses, Technicians
About 25 of the Volunteers will be nurses and laboratory technicians who will work in understaffed district hospitals under the general supervision of the Malayan Ministry of Health and Social Welfare.

Remaining members will serve as teachers of physics, chemistry, biology, and mathematics, as apprenticeship instructors in a variety of technical trades and as rural development workers, helping to survey and build roads and to analyze soils.

LUCKY STRIKE presents: LUCKY PUFFERS "THE FOOTBALL TEAM"

"There seems to be some dissension on the squad."

"OOOPH!"

"Do you think the coach would get mad if we punted on first down?"

"So that's why they call him Crazy Legs!"

WHY ONLY 11 MEN ON A FOOTBALL TEAM? Because all the other students are just too busy. Yes, busy doing research, studying, smoking Luckies, playing bongos, smoking Luckies, dating, partying, praising professors and smoking Luckies—much too busy for football. Why so many "smoking Luckies"? Simply this: We try to give an honest representation of college life; and college students smoke more Luckies than any other regular cigarette—so smoke Luckies.

CHANGE TO LUCKIES and get some taste for a change!
