German to Discuss Berlin, Democracy

By Jan Sack

A native of Germany, Dr. Carl-Christoph Schwetzer, will speak at 11 a.m. Thursday in the Great Room in the Student Union about "Berlin—Outpost of Democracy."

Born in Germany in 1909, Schwetzer migrated to this country with his parents in 1939. He graduated from high school in England and received his bachelor of arts degree from Oxford University in 1931.

After graduating from Oxford, Schwetzer entered the London School of Economics, where he received his Ph.D. in 1934. In 1935 he began teaching at the University of Arizona, where he has been since 1939.

This agency has also taken the returns of 22,222 votes in the state of Arizona, and the returns in the state of California are not yet in.

Schwetzer is also a member of the American Social Science Association, the International Peace Corps, and the American Council of Learned Societies.

The conference on Berlin will be held in the Great Room in the Student Union from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Thursday.
