1904 or 1905—it has been four years since the Huskers have been able to beat the Jayhawks. Nebraska has won 46, lost 17 and tied three against Kansas.

The game will match two of the Big Eight's finest runners — Nebraska's Thunder

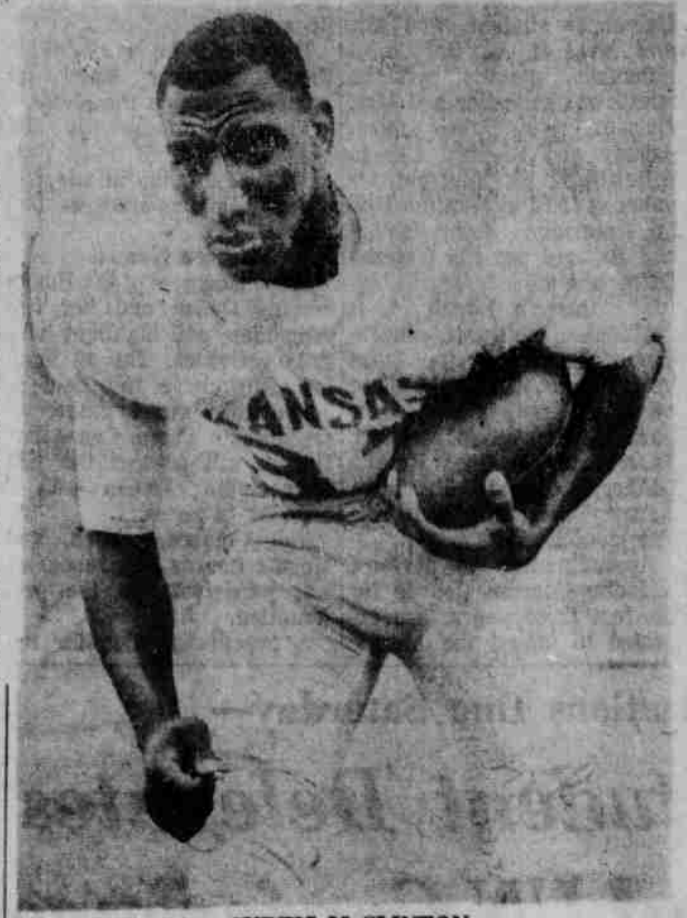

Thornton and Kansas' Curtis McClinton.

Thornton has been the only bright spot in the Husker offense this year, pounding out 453 yards in 81 carries for a 5.4 average per carry. The junior left halfback ranks second in the Big Eight in rushing.

McClinton, who also operates from the left halfback spot, is fourth in league rushing with 314 yards gained in 69 carries for a 4.5 average. The conference 60-yard high hurdle champ, McClinton relies on bursts of speed, but is also a power runner like Thornton.

A football rivalry between Kansas and Nebraska which extends back to 1892 will be renewed tomorrow at Memorial Stadium at 2 p.m. More than 35,000 people are expected to witness the Big Eight game, which is Homecoming for the Huskers.

Kansas will take a 3-2-1 record into the contest. Nebraska has won two, lost three and tied one. The Jayhawks however, are still in contention for a share of the Big Eight title, while the Huskers' 10-0 loss to Missouri last week dropped the Huskers out of contention.

Although Nebraska holds a big edge in this series which has seen only one interruption—the two not meeting in

Huskers Will Compete In Omaha AAU Meet
Ray (Skip) Stevens, undefeated in cross country this fall, will lead the Nebraska contingent in the Midwest AAU meet in Omaha at 4 this afternoon.
Stevens currently holds the four-mile course record with Dean White of Doane. The boys tied the record last year with a 21:06 when they ran stride for stride the entire race.
This will be the fifth meeting between Stevens and the Doane runner. In three previous meets the total elapsed time difference is only one-tenth of a second.
Other cross country runners who will help Nebraska's chances of a repeat victory are Stuart Tucker, Jim Lewis, Paul Neilsen, John Portee and Clarence Scott.
Mike Fleming will compete unattached. He returned to NU this fall after serving three years in the Marine Corps. This fall in practice Fleming was clocked in 15:07 and 15:07.2 for a three-mile course.
Competing for the unattached Scarlet frosh will be Maurice Altizio, Dave Blankenbaker, Larry Toothacker,

NU Navy ROTC Defeats Missouri
The University's Navy ROTC basketball team became the pre-season favorite to win the regional NROTC basketball tournament. The Nebraska midshipmen defeated last year's champion, Missouri, 68-33, last Saturday in Columbia.
Mike Stacy, Dean Prazak and Dick Ratzliff combined to score 45 points to lead the Nebraska scoring.
The Nebraska team scored only six points in the first seven minutes, but then proceeded to open the game up with a fast break strategy directed by Prazak.
