

Ag Dance Features Sadie, Abner

By Cloyd Clark

Miss Sadie Hawkins, the average all-American, red-blooded boy's dream girl, will be chosen from five finalists for the award of the Sadie Hawkins Day festivities at the Ag Union this Friday night.

For the first time in the three year history of the Ag Union's Sadie Hawkins Day parties Li'l Abner will be crowned along with Sadie.

Sadie and Li'l Abner, chosen by popular vote at the dance, will be announced at Intermission by Sen. Phogbound.

Prizes for the two most original Dogpatch costumes will be presented along with the $30 worth of Sadie Hawkins and Li'l Abner trophies.

Tickets for the dance can be purchased at both the Ag and City Unions for the pre-dance price of $7.50, a $2.50 saving over the door price.

Finalists for the Sadie Hawkins and Li'l Abner awards were chosen on the basis of costume, ability to display Sadie Hawkins spirit, personality and poise, talent and sincerity.

Finalists for Sadie Hawkins are Cheryl Abrahamson, Burr East; Nancy Gibson, Love Hall; Jan L'Heurek, Alpha Phi; Sandy Brown, Chi Omega; Kay Mann, Sigma Kappa; Nadine Newton, Fedde Hall; Susie Linn, Alpha Omicron Pi.

Finalists for Li'l Abner are: Norman Choat, Ag Men; Harold Dinklage, Alpha Gamma Sigma; Gerald Walker, Alpha Gamma Rho; Dave McClatchey, Farmhouse.

ROC Offers 'Unique' Officer Training Course

"A unique opportunity for a student wanting to enter the military service as an officer without sacrificing time in University on the ROTC program."

This is how Keith L. Broman, professor of business administration and local representative of the Command of the Navy, described the Reserve Officer Candidates (ROC) program.

During the summer months, students attend two eight-week summer courses at the Navy's Reserve Officer Candidate School at Newport, R.I. for study in seamanship, gunnery, navigation, communications, naval history and customs.

The Ensign serves three years on active duty, followed by three years in the ready or standby reserves.

Opening now exist for men in the sea, surface and security divisions at the 10th Street Armory, Boman said.

A college student also has the option of associating with one of the above divisions, with active duty as an enlisted man, Broman said, and then apply for the ROC program three months before graduation.

The Women's Athletic Association (WAA) Board will meet at 6:30 p.m. today in the Coliseum. Intramural swimming with contests in speed, form and diving will begin at 7 p.m.

The third A.S.M.E. meeting of the semester will be held Wednesday at 7 p.m. in 206 Richards Hall. Featured speaker will be Armin Scharie, packaging manager of Procter and Gamble Manufacturing Company. His topic will be "Engineering Education - A Stepping Stone to Management."

The Faculty Women's Club will meet at 1 p.m. Wednesday at the Nebraska Center.

John Kelley, special assistant to Governor Frank Morrison will highlight the Young Democrats meeting Thursday evening at 7:15 in the Student Union.

Discussion and legislative action will be held for the selection of the YD delegates to the national convention next month in Miami Beach, Fla.

Kosmet Klub workers will meet tonight at 7 p.m. in 349 Student Union.

The Phi Eta Sigma smoker for all members, freshmen Regent's scholars, and those sophomores earning a 7.5 overall average in their freshmen year will be held Wednesday at 8 p.m. in 232 Union.

Representatives of Alpha Lambda Delta will attend the meeting and an orientation on the purposes and new program of Phi Eta Sigma will be the highlights of the evening.

The Spanish Club will meet at 7 p.m. Wednesday in 240 Student Union. Color slides will be shown of Argentina.

New Rodeo Club members will be initiated Wednesday. The group will meet at 7:00 p.m. in the Horse Barns on Ag. Campus.

Open to any student not participating in the ROTC program, ROC allows a student to be commissioned an Ensign in the Naval Reserve upon graduation and completion of the Navy program.

"After a student is selected for the ROC program," Broman said, "he enlists in the Naval Reserves and attends weekly meetings at the 10th Street Armory."

Another debate squad including Linda Hillyer, Kathie Madsen, Ellen Nore, Lynette Loescher, Norman Lange-mach and John Wehr participated in a debate at Omaha University. Miss Hillyer and Miss Madsen were undefeated in four rounds of debate and Miss Nore and Miss Loescher won one round and lost one. Wehr and Lange-mach lost two.

It will be interesting to follow the events of this case. All members of the band have pleaded guilty to the charge, except Les Elgart, who has perhaps the most to lose from a conviction on this charge of possession of narcotics.

Elgart's preliminary hearing is set for Nov. 22 and this question concerning the technical need for a search warrant by the investigating officers Saturday night could be of prime importance.

It does take the entire court setting to get a warrant issued, it seems to me that this would afford law enforcement agencies an excellent out for unwarranted search and seizure of private property.

Debate Team Visits Texas, Oklahoma

University debaters took a trip last week attending two debates in Oklahoma and one in Texas and Omaha.

Suzanne Moffitt and Judy Brumm participated in an audience debate at Central State College at Edmond Oklahoma. After the two teams participating completed their four constructive speeches, the audience was allowed to ask questions and argue with the debaters.

A debator from each team then gave a summation of the arguments presented during the debate. The audience made the final decision and decided in favor of the Nebraska team.

Miss Moffitt and Miss Brumm then traveled to Texas Christian University with a second University team, Gary Pokorney and Richard Weill. The two teams rated a total of five wins and seven losses with Miss Moffitt and Miss Brumm scoring three wins, two losses and Pokorney and Weill scoring two wins and four losses.

Another debate squad including Linda Hillyer, Kathie Madsen, Ellen Nore, Lynette Loescher, Norman Lange-mach and John Wehr participated in a debate at Omaha University. AUF Queen Competition Narrowed to Five Coeds

The All University Fund (AUF) Activities Queen contest has been narrowed to five sophomore coeds.

These five finalists were chosen from 21 girls who were interviewed and judged on the basis of poise, scholarship, contributions to the community, and campus attitude toward activities and scholarship.

Union Plans 'New' Music Symposium

Recent compositions for brass quartet will be the topic of a contemporary music symposium Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Union music room.

Vernon Forbes, a new faculty member of the music department will act as moderator of the program, the first of a series of five being sponsored by the Union.

Quartet Number 2, a recent composition by Dale Thompson will be performed for the first time. Thompson is presently teaching at Hickman and doing graduate work at the University.

Another quartet for brass by Homer Keller, commissioned for the Faculty Brass Quartet of the National Music Camp in 1964 will be included in the program. A composition by Edmund Haines called "Toccata" will also be presented.

The University Faculty Brass Quartet, composed of Dennis Schneider, music instructor, trombone; Jack Snider, Nebraska University marching band director, French horn; Joyce Johnson of Raiston, graduate assistant, trumpet; and Forbes is the performing group.

Following the program, a discussion period will be held. The public is invited.

Letterip . . .

Continued from p. 2 cars to take it. This back-up parking is called the "eight-o'clock scuttle," and parking on the left hand side is called the "I hope, I hope, loop."

All the good safety-rule books tell us that one should not drive when in a bad mood. But what about parking in a bad mood? The two-hour parking limit causes the bad mood in the first place. After the driver has conquered all the battles and found a place, in a two-hour zone, he must anticipate a move. The two hours pass quickly and the student must race across the campus to move the car. Three cars are slowly moving in search of his spot. The rule states, so I am told, that one's car must be moved out of that block before it is parked again.

The three cars approach, and as the student pulls out, they try to get in. Only one gets the spot, and there are still three drivers looking — two of the original ones and the displaced student. Now there are three drivers in a bad mood. This is a kind of "musical chairs" played to the tune of whispered curses. For example, the other day, I watched that situation. Two women drivers and a man were playing the game. Far down the block I saw a car pull out. The three "mad-mood" drivers accelerated their weapons to the line of scrimmage. The first driver, the man, drew up parallel to the car in front of the parking space. The second driver, in a compact car, swept into the place. She began to powder her nose in the rear-view mirror, unaware of the fuming, purple-faced man in the car ahead. The third driver is still looking, as far as I know. There are no real awards for the victors, but all is fair in love and parking. If the contestant is killed, hang his student parking number on the cross at his head. If he lives, honor him as a hero with another parking permit. Long live the sport of campus parking.

Girl Watcher's Guide

Presented by Pall Mall Famous Cigarettes

The nudge is permitted when a beautiful girl is sighted in an unusual place or at an unusual time.

LESSON 3 - Concerning self-control

Although we believe that girl watching has it all over bird watching, we feel that these two hobbies do share one important characteristic. They are both genteel. They both respect the rights of the watched. A girl watcher who asks a beautiful stranger for her name and phone number is like a bird watcher who steals eggs. (If the stranger happens to have a pack of Pall Mall Famous Cigarettes, and you're dying for a good, natural smoke, you may break this rule.) Normally, the girl watcher's pleasure is warm, quiet and internal. However, there are cases when a discovery is so dazzling it must be shared. Such a case is illustrated above.
