

Huskers Break 4 Game Losing Streak

NU Offense Crushes Iowa State; Meade's Kick Provides Margin

Another field goal victory for the Huskers. That was the actual difference in the score but the difference on the field was awesome as an injury-riddled Nebraska football team downed Iowa State 16-13 Saturday before 12,000 fans at Ames.

The Huskers put together their most consistent offensive attack of the year to whip the favored Cyclones and break a four game losing streak. The game was spiced with some fourth quarter fisticuffs between the two teams and marked the first NU win over Iowa State since the Huskers turned the trick 7-6 in 1958.

Ron Meade's 31-yard field goal with one second left in the first half provided the three-point margin for Nebraska but the Huskers completely stormed the Cyclones, outgaining Iowa State 238-89 on the ground and piling up a total offense mark of 316 yards in their most productive day of the season.

The Huskers also accomplished something which they had lacked all year—a long, scoring drive. In fact Nebraska had two successful TD drives and several others stopped as the white-shirted Scarlets banged away at the Cyclone defense.

Standouts
The Husker standouts really stood out as Nebraska gained its second conference win against three losses.

Bill "Thunder" Thornton outgained the entire Iowa State team as the Toledo bulldozer, running in his old fullback spot to patch up the Husker backfield (weakened by injuries), gained 92 yards in 25 carries.

Then there was Dennis Claridge, the Huskers' sophomore quarterback, who not only had his best day through the air but picked up 33 yards rushing while piloting the Cornhuskers almost all of the game. The 200-pound Husker also maintained his 40.0 punting average on five kicks and grabbed two key interceptions which stopped Cyclone threats.

Callahan Starts
Another Husker back who gained praise was soph Dick Callahan who started at left half since Thornton was switched to full. Callahan gained 64 yards and combined with "Thunder" to give Nebraska a real good 1-2 ground punch.

The Husker line was at its best and limited Iowa State's Dave Hoppmann to only 84 yards, 50 of them on one TD jaunt. Don Purcell, who caught three passes good for 65 yards, Dick McDaniel and Pat Salerno, playing his first game of the year, anchored the NU flanks.

Down the middle Big Bob Brown was superb playing middle guard and linebacker on defense. Monte Kiffin, filling in for injured Bob Jones at tackle, played a rugged game as did Ron Michka, Dallas Dyer, John Kirby and Al Fischer.

Hoppmann Forced to Pass
The Huskers stymied but did not stop the brilliant Hoppmann. Unable to go anywhere on the ground, except for his 50-yard score, the junior back took to the air and completed 11 of 21 passes for 176 yards. Hoppmann's passing led to the second Cyclone score in the last seconds of the game.

Nebraska drew first blood in the opening quarter when the Scarlets marched 56 yards in seven plays to score.

The drive started when Claridge hit Purcell on a 11-yard pass play to the IS 40. The Cyclones were penalized for piling on Purcell and NU got a first and ten at the IS 25.

Callahan and Thornton
From here Callahan picked up eight with the aid of a good block from Jones and

Yards penalized	88	25

Thornton boomed for six more to the Cyclone 11.

After a two-yard loss, Claridge hit Callahan with a strike and the red-haired soph carried to the two yard line. Thornton picked up a first and goal at the one then Claridge scored on a sneaker. Meade's extra point gave the Huskers a 7-0 lead.

The Cyclones battled back in the second quarter when Hoppmann broke through the Husker line and bounced off several Nebraska tacklers in route to a 50-yard paydirt run. Larry Schreiber's successful conversion made it 7-7.

Huskers Move Again
Coach Bill Jennings' gridiron gunners got the lead again after they had held the Cyclones on their own sixteen.

On third down Dave Clayberg got off a sensational quick kick but Husker safety man Dennis Stuewe raced back, scooped up the ball at the NU 28 and moved back upfield to the Husker 47.

Claridge sent halfback Bernie Clay into the line for three yards then decided to gamble for the long one.

Purcell Makes Good Grab
Claridge rolled back and spiraled a long pass to Purcell, who made a great leaping catch at the IS 14 for a 35-yard gain.

With only 39 seconds left in the half, Ron Meade rushed in, and with Claridge holding, booted his three-pointer. The ball was kicked into the wind from an angle at the left and the Huskers, in their hurry, did not even get the tee down for the kick. Nebraska continued to punish the Cyclone line with its hard running backs in the second half as the Huskers marched to the IS 15 before being stopped early in the third quarter.

Hoppmann Fumbles
Iowa State took over, and with Hoppmann running and passing, moved to the Nebraska 22 where a Hoppmann fumble stopped the drive. End Jim Hoge pulled the ball loose from Hoppmann and guard Jed Rood recovered.

The Huskers then marched from their own 22 all the way to score with Thornton banging over from the one with 8:30 left in the game. The 19-play drive ate up 10 minutes.

Callahan and Thornton were the big gainers on the drive with Thunder picking up the all-important two or three yards for first and tens on several occasions.

Claridge Intercepts
The next Cyclone drive was stopped when Claridge intercepted a pass in the NU end zone and ran it out to the Husker 49.

The Huskers marched down to the Cyclone three before finally being stopped with 1:08 left in the game.

During the drive NU's Gary Toogood and Thornton were ejected for fighting after Thornton had picked up three yards to the IS five.

Thornton had his helmet torn off on the play by Hoppmann. Toogood came in to help Thornton and the fight resulted in the ejection of the two.

Iowa State took over on their three and whistled down to score before the gun sounded. The big gainer in the 97-yard drive was a 61-yard pass from Hoppmann to end Randy Kidd.

The TD came when Hoppmann hit end Dick Limerick on a six-yard pass in the end zone. Hoppmann's pass for two extra points was dropped by Limerick.

The ensuing Cyclone kickoff was fumbled by a Husker lineman and recovered by Iowa State but time ran out.

Another outburst occurred after the game when Husker Dal Dyer and Cyclone Chuck Steimle exchanged blows.

Tucker, McCloughan Lead Frosh Past KS

By Bob Besom
Doug Tucker and Kent McCloughan were the instigators of a 18-13 Nebraska frosh win over Kansas State Friday. The win set the NU freshman season mark at 1-1.

The young Huskers raked up a 12-7 lead late in the third period but had a 13-12 deficit to buck with 5:21 left. Quarterback Tucker passed to end Don Goos for 14 yards on third down and then McCloughan scooted around end 35 yards for a TD for the winning Husker margin.

Coach Jack Braley's boys were on the move again when time ran out. Following the kick off, Nebraska picked up a Kansas fumble on the Wildcat 33 and were camped out on the one yard line when the final gun sounded.

Tucker used the air routes to give Nebraska its first offensive threat late in the initial quarter.

The 170-pound Davenport, Ia. native, completing eight of 15 heaves for 104 yards, kept the KS defense loose for frisky McCloughan, who, in turn, racked up a 7.8 rushing average on 17 carries.

The two conspired for the first Nebraska tally—a 59-yard march which the Huskers barely got in before half-time.

The Huskers sent McCloughan 14 yards around to the 33 and a Tucker-McCloughan connection set up the score on the 14. Tucker took to the air again—the last play of the half—and hit halfback Gary Graham in the end zone for six points.

Tucker couldn't completely steal the quarterback spotlight as Kansas State also fielded a talented pilot Doug Dusenbury.

The 190-pound Wildcat quarterback got credit for all 13 of the host's points and led Wildcat carriers with 66 yards in 19 tries.

K-State's early 7-0 edge was set when Nebraska fumbled on their own 18.

Dusenbury tossed a 14-yarder to end Bill Strait and then plunged for the tally.

Nebraska grabbed the lead again midway in the third quarter when Tucker hit McCloughan for 10 and, on fourth down at the K-State eight, zeroed in on end John Lockwood for six points.

Kansas State took over the fourth period. It was Deussenberry again who dived over right guard from the two after Wildcat halfback John Christensen's 40-yard sprint to the Nebraska five.

With 5:21 left, Tucker and McCloughan got behind a rally which put the Husker yearlings ahead for good.

Right tackle Anthony Gullory, a 220 pounder from Beaumont, Texas, bolstered the yearling cause in the front wall as the Cornhuskers racked up their fourth straight win in the series.

Husker Runners Finish 7th

By Janet Sack
A strong Kansas team led by Bill Dotson and Kirk Hayward easily recaptured the 1961 Big Eight Cross Country title from Oklahoma State on their home course at Lawrence, Saturday morning.

Last year the Cowboys packed three runners in the top five to snap the Jayhawk winning streak at 13 consecutive titles.

Nebraska led by Ray (Skip) Stevens finished in seventh place with 150 points. The consistent pace setter placed fourth individually for the Huskers and was clocked in 15:22, six seconds under his last year's time.

Dotson, a pre-favorite, was caught in 14:50 for first. Danny Metcalf of Oklahoma State edged in between Dotson and Hayward to lead Oklahoma State to a second place tie with Colorado. The Buffs fielded an all sophomore team.

Nebraska's other finishers include Stuart Tucker, 30th; Jim Lewis, 33rd; John Portee, 35th; and Clarence Scott, 48th.

The winning Kansas score was 26 points with Colorado and Oklahoma State finishing in a tie for second with 78 points. Missouri placed fourth with 121, Kansas State fifth with 131, Oklahoma sixth with 147, Nebraska seventh with 150 and Iowa State finished last with 176.

"YOUR AFTER-SHAVE LOTION, SIR"

"Jason, you idiot! You know I use only Mennen Skin Bracer after-shave lotion."
"Of course, sir. And this..."

"I've told you that Skin Bracer cools rather than burns. Because it's made with Menthol-Ice."
"Quite, sir. And this..."
"Besides, that crisp, long-lasting Bracer aroma has a fantastic effect on girls."

"Indeed so, sir. And..."
"Tonight I need Skin Bracer. I'm going to the Prom. So take that stuff away and get me some Skin Bracer!"

"But sir, this is Skin Bracer. They've just changed the bottle. Shall I open it now, sir?"

ACTUALLY, YOU DON'T NEED A VALET TO APPRECIATE MENNEN SKIN BRACER. ALL YOU NEED IS A FACE.
