

Athletes Become Mayors

By Dick Stuckey

Lexington, Nebraska's expanding industrial interest will temporarily close shop this Saturday.

Almost 20% of 5,550 "Minutemen" will migrate to Lincoln for "Lexington Day" honoring eight University athletes, including three members of the varsity football team, from Lexington.

During the halftime ceremony, the following eight Cornhusker - Minutemen will be made honorary mayors of Lexington.

Tinglehoff, Kiffin and Dyer each expressed their appreciation to Lexington on the occasion. Tinglehoff stated, "Lexington has always been behind its athletes both during high school and during their collegiate careers. It's this kind of strong town spirit that makes Lexington athletes hard competitors and hard workers."

"It's support like this that makes you proud of your home town," added Dyer.

"Knowing that people at home are behind not only us, but the whole team, really helps spirit," he said Kiffin. "It instills in one a great feeling to have your town generate this sort of ardent morale and enthusiastic community promotion."

Jim Murphy, former Husker Big-Eight lineman and member of the committee sponsoring the migration, said, "I hope other towns in Nebraska will sit up and take notice this Saturday and show their support for the University through similar events held in the future."

According to University officials, "Lexington Day" is the first event of its kind in Nebraska history.

NU Cagers To Scrimmage

By Bob Besom

The Nebraska varsity basketball squad will be on exhibition before the Husker-Colorado football fray Saturday.

Early arrivals to the grid contest will have an opportunity to watch an intrasquad scrimmage at 10 a.m. in the Coliseum, announced Coach Jerry Bush.

Tom Russell, an Independence, Kansas senior, and Rex Swett of Huron S.D. were lauded by Coach Bush after early practice sessions. Russell was the top Husker scorer and rebounder last season. Bush also gave note to sophomores, Neil Nannan, Syracuse; Daryl Petsch of Marysville, Kan., and Chuck Sladovnik of Omaha. He said he was pleased with the enthusiasm of the entire squad.

Nebraska opens its season Dec. 4 at Wichita. The first home contest is billed for Dec. 7—Southern Methodist. The varsity will play the frosh on Nov. 29.

Deadline Today

The registration deadline for the Union Recreation Committee's Scotch Doubles Tournament is 5 p.m., today. Trophies will go to the top two teams in the Sunday Tourney.
