

Fighting Irish Are Tonight's Invaders

By Dave Wohlfarth

Nebraska goes after its second win tonight against the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame at 8 p.m. in the NU Coliseum. The Irish have won two and lost one, losing a last-minute verdict to Creighton last weekend.

Starters for Notre Dame will be 6-6 Karl Roesler at center, 6-3 John Andreoli and 6-6 Armand Rio at the forwards and a pair of six-foot guards, Ed Schnurr and John Matthews.

Husker Coach Jerry Bush described the Irish as having "extremely good board power" and had special praise for Rio.

Bush sent his cagers through a brief workout last night. Rex Swett, who has missed the last two NU games due to an injured back, was at the practice and Coach Bush said, "We're in hopes he'll be able to play tonight."

Bush was undecided about his starters for tonight's battle. The Huskers opened with four sophomores and a senior (Tommy Russell) against Air Force Saturday.

When questioned about the Husker loss to the Falcons Bush said, "When you hit five for 13 foul shots and turn the ball over 25 times, it's tough to win."

Notre Dame lost to Creighton University 73-71 Saturday night on a shot by Creighton's Chuck Officer with five seconds left in the game.

Andreoli was the high scorer for the Irish with 27 points and Roesler added 20.

Nebraska lost its second road game of the year, falling before the Air Force Academy 58-49 at Colorado Springs Saturday night.

Nebraska blew a 21-16 lead in the first half to fall behind the shorter Falcons 28-25 at the half. The Huskers tied the score three times in the second half but dropped back after a 42-42 tie with 7:45 left.

Senior center Bill Bowers was the leading Husker scorer with 12 points, Tom Russell had 11 and Daryl Petsch 11.

John Judd, Parke Hinman and Bob Schaumberg paced the Falcons in their first half surge and Hinman and Roger Head led the second stanza onslaught. Hinman captured high scoring honors with 14 points while Bill Knipp of the Air Force tallied 11.

NU Mermen Down Frosh

By Roy Scheele

Four varsity records were broken Saturday as the Husker varsity swimmers splashed to a 64-30 victory over the freshmen.

The Varsity-Frosh meet was held in conjunction with the University's annual high school clinic and relays; Records smashed in these events:

400 yard medley relay—with Bill Henry, Vern Bauers, Bill Fowles and Phil Swaim doing the distance in 4:01.7, shaving some four seconds from the old varsity standard of 4:05.9 set last year by Swaim, Larry McClean, Joe Stocker and Larry Ferrell. The new mark also eclipses the 4:03.1 pool record set in 1959 by Oklahoma.

200 yard individual medley—with Swaim being timed in 2:19.0, erasing a 1961 mark of 2:20.8 set by Joe Stocker.

200 yard butterfly—with Fowles timed in 2:26.8, bettering a 1959 record of 2:28.8 set by Larry McClean.

200 yard backstroke—won by Bill Henry in 2:19.2, bettering the 2:21.8 record set by Frank Tomson in 1959.

Winning performances by freshmen were recorded by Keefe Lodwig in the 200 and 400 yard freestyle events, and by diver Jon Williams.

Meet results:

400 medley relay—1. Varsity (Bill Henry, Vern Bauers, Bill Fowles, Phil Swaim) 4:01.7. (Record: better of varsity record of 4:05.9 set in 1961, and old pool record of 4:03.1 set by Oklahoma in 1959.)

Two Huskers Win Mat Titles

By Bob Besom

Mike Nissen slipped in his bid for a second Iowa Teachers Invitational mat title but Husker co-captains Jim Raschke and Harold Thompson copped two crowns at the Cedar Falls meet Saturday.

Raschke, Cornhusker senior heavyweight who finished runner-up in the tourney last year, pinned two foes, won a second-round decision and edged Iowa State's Steve Caldwell, 3-2 in the finals.

Thompson won the 157-pound crown with five decisions. He took the title with a 7-3 win over Wisconsin's Jim Innis.

Six New IM Swimming Records Set

By Bob Ray

Six new records were set in the Intramural Swimming Meet held last week.

Keefe Lodwig set two, one in 200-yd. Freestyle, and one in 100-yd. Individual Medley. Bill Fowles, and Bill Henry set new marks in the 100 yd. Butterfly, and 100 yd. Backstroke, respectively.

Relay records were set by Sigma Chi in the preliminaries of the 200-yd. Medley, and Alpha Tau Omega in the 200 yd. Freestyle.

Alpha Tau Omega won the meet with 70½ points, Phi Kappa Psi grabbed the second berth with 54½, Beta Theta Pi was third with 34, and Theta Xi fourth with 28.

Fifth spot went to Phi Delta Theta in a tie with Sigma Chi with 11 points. Kappa Sigma was seventh with 10½ and Phi Gamma Delta with six finished eighth.

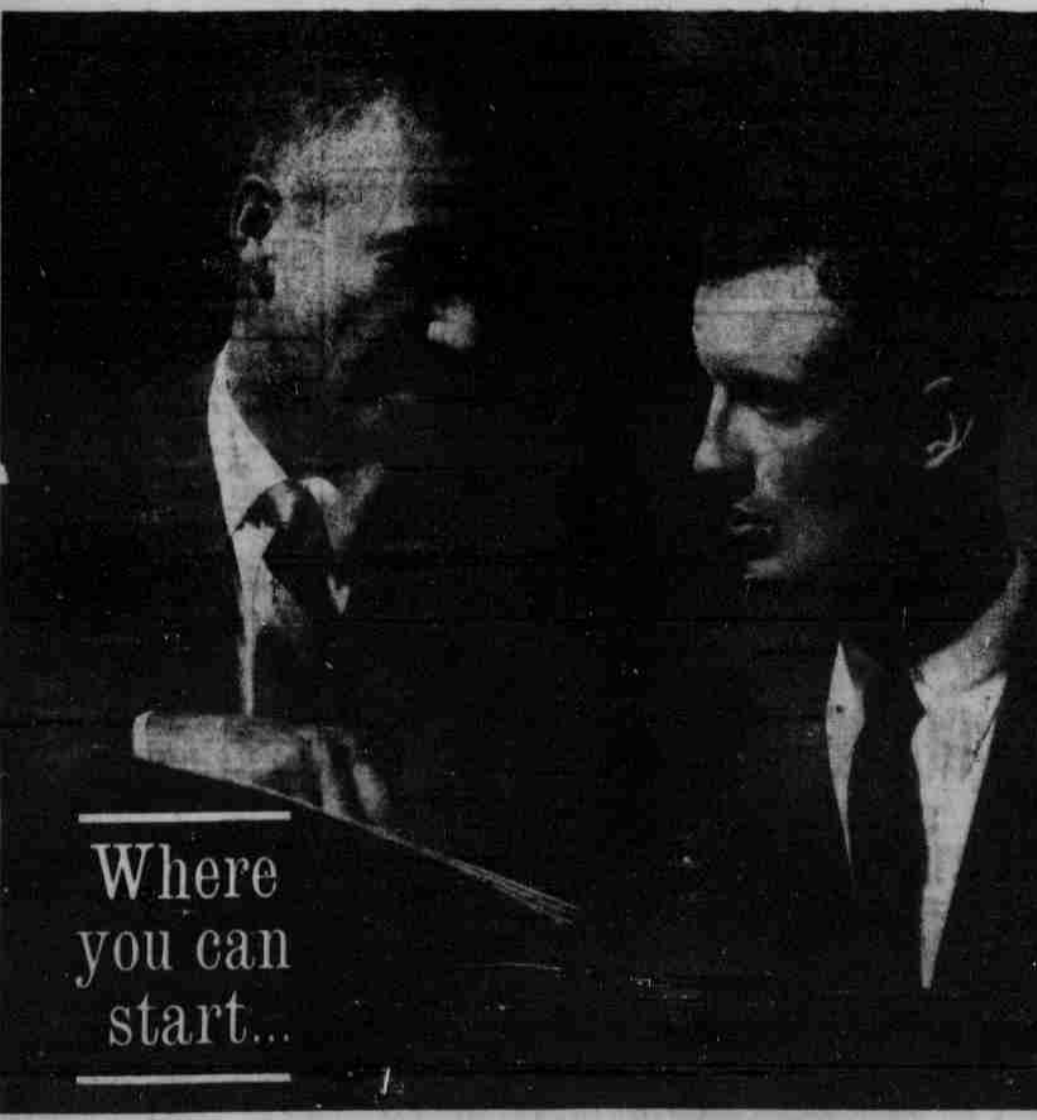

Tom Chambers, a Beta, won individual honors with 20 points. The ATO's Keefe Lodwig was the second highest individual with 17½, and Bill Henry, Phi Psi, a close third with 17. Fourth was another ATO, Pete Crancer, with 16,
