

2 Teams in Spotlight

Bushmen To Battle Bobcats

By Dave Wohlforth

Basketball and wrestling will grab the sports spotlight this weekend as the two teams will perform at the NU Coliseum Saturday night.

Nebraska's basketball team will try to go over the .500 mark for the first time this season when it meets Ohio University at 8:05 p.m. tomorrow at the NU Coliseum.

The Huskers will be seeking their third win against two losses. Nebraska dropped Notre Dame 65-61 in its last outing, Monday night on the NU floor.

Husker Coach Jerry Bush is considering moving sophomore Daryl Petsch from guard to forward for the battle with the Bobcats. Petsch, 6-5 Marsville, Kan., native, is the Cornhuskers' number three scorer with an 8.5 per game average.

If Petsch is shifted to the forward slot, then Denny Puelz probably would get the starting nod at guard along with senior Rex Swett. Puelz, 5-8 soph, has been the Husker crowd pleaser with his ball-hawking tactics.

Completing the NU starting quintet will be forward Tom Russell and center Bill Bowers. Russell is the leading scorer and rebounder for the Huskers. The 6-5 senior has a 14.5 scoring average and has grabbed 39 rebounds in four games. His .553 field goal percentage also is tops.

Ohio U. will start Jerry Jackson (6-3) and Paul Dorey (6-5) at the forward positions, 6-8 Stacy Bunton at the pivot and two short backcourt men, 5-8 Bill Whaley and 6-0 Dave Katz at guards.

The Bobcats were defeated going into last night's game at Wichita. Ohio has won the Mid-America Conference championship the past two years and Coach Jim Snyder was named Coach of the Year in Ohio last season.

Nebraska came from a 38-30 deficit at halftime against Notre Dame to win their second home court victory of the year against two defeats on the road. Swett, who returned to the lineup after missing two games, due to a back injury, was the key to the NU win over the Irish. Bowers and Russell pumped in 15 and 13 points respectively to lead the Huskers scoring, while Swett directed the attack.

Saturday's game, which will be preceded by a freshman intrasquad game at 6:20 p.m. will be the last chance for Husker fans to watch the eagles at home till after Christmas vacation.

Nebraska hits the road next week for contests at Wyoming, California and Stanford before the Big Eight Tourney at Kansas City during the holidays.

MAY BE MOVED—Daryl Petsch, sophomore eager who is NU's number three scorer, may be shifted from guard to forward for tomorrow night's game against Ohio U.

Deadline Today For Girl Bowlers

Today is the deadline for women bowlers to sign up if they wish to play in the Associated College Union's Women's Intercollegiate Bowling Tournament to be held in the Games Area of the Nebraska Union.

Bowlers entering the tournament must have a 120-150 average. A one dollar fee is charged for each of the five matches which will be played between Dec. 15 and Feb. 3, 1962. The six winners' scores will go to the Regional Tournament. They will also receive awards.

The top two bowlers in the region will go to the National tournament in Phoenix, Arizona.

NU Gymnasts Open Season

The Husker gymnastic team will open its season Saturday at 2 p.m. against Kansas and Kansas State in a triangular meet at Manhattan, Kans.

Nebraska Gymnastic Coach Jake Geier named a nine-man traveling squad that included three members of last year's team that was undefeated in dual and triangular meets. Returning members are Louis Burkell, Richard McCoy, and Charles Williams.

Others making the trip will be Dennis Albers, Gerald Harvey, Bob Kuhn, Thomas Sitzman, Steven Swihart, and Larry TeSelle.

Matmen Will Meet Mankato

By Bob Besom

The Nebraska matmen will be looking for win number two Saturday night when they entertain Mankato State College following the Husker-Ohio basketball fray.

Coach Bob Mancuso's grapplers opened the season two weeks ago with a 23-17 win over K-State.

Mancuso has juggled Dick Van Sickle and Mike Nissen (both winners against Kansas State) in the probable Cornhusker lineup. Van Sickle is billed for the 123 pound division and Nissen is listed at 130.

At DeLeon, at 137, is Mankato's big gun. He finished fourth in the NCAA Championships and won an NAIA title last season.

Husker Jim Faimon is pegged for the spot opposite DeLeon. Faimon, one of Nebraska's top grapplers last season, came to the Husker stomping grounds from the Nebraska School for the Blind.

Nebraska lineup:

- 123-lb. Dick Van Sickle
- 130-lb. Mike Nissen
- 137-lb. Jim Faimon
- 145-lb. Dave Ough
- 152-lb. Harold Thompson
- 167-lb. Ken Fox or Jack Richard
- 177-lb. Gordon Chipman
- Heavyweight—Jim Kaschke

* CHEER UP, HUSKER FANS!!!

With the appointment of Tippy Dye as the Athletic Director at the University, Nebraska may be on the threshold of a "new era" in its sports history.

The Husker faithful, long accustomed to being good losers through twenty years of experience, may have a new experience shortly—becoming proud winners. Under the strong guidance of Tippy, the little guy, Nebraska could again return to the top of the heap, not only in football, but in every sport the new Husker AD fields.

Dye certainly expressed his optimism in his visit with the state's press, radio and TV media Wednesday and the way this man operates—winning could be a thing of the future.

Dye told the Husker football players, "We don't want to be second best—we want to be number one, and I think we can do it." He made no bones about the fact that his ex-Wichita associate, Hank Foldberg, is the number one candidate for the head Husker football coaching job but also has five or six other men in mind.

Tippy explained the type of football he liked—a wide open game—and thought it was the kind of game the fans like to watch. He hopes to build Nebraska into a winning football team once again, as it was in the powerhouse days of the twenties and thirties.

His background and his accomplishments as a coach and while athletic director at Wichita indicate that he is the long-sought answer to building winning teams at NU. In addition to this, he seems to be a dedicated man who will put 100 percent effort into his new job.

He hopes to boost football to the point where a new stadium will be needed. Fine. As football improves, so will the other Husker sports as the gate from the grid sport provide the athletic department with funds to promote other causes. The minor and major sports will improve. As Tippy puts it: Good morale among members of the athletic department is as much or more important as good morale on a squad and we want everyone pulling together." In the future we may witness the year when each of the sports at NU has a winning season, for winning is a disease—it's contagious.

Perhaps the fans who have repeatedly filled Memorial Stadium despite losing seasons—the "super-loyal nuts"—will finally be rewarded.

I can't help it if I'm over-optimistic for this corner was certainly impressed in the initial meeting with Dye. At last, here is the man who will provide the necessary leadership in what has been a befuddled athletic department. Look for an improvement in the Cornhusker gridiron teams of years to come and in every other NU sport.

TINGELHOFF

Tingelhoff Signs Pro Contract

Mick Tingelhoff, a 1961 Husker tri-captain, has signed a pro grid contract with the Minnesota Vikings of the National Football League.

Tingelhoff, a 225-pound lineman from Lexington, had bids from both the Vikings and the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Minnesota club plans to give the Cornhusker grid man a shot at the offensive center spot. Tingelhoff has played tackle, center, and fullback in his three seasons with the varsity.

Tingelhoff is also billed for an appearance with the North squad in the Dec. 30 Blue-Gray Game at Montgomery, Ala.

Mick spent the early part of the '61 season trying to shake an elbow infection.

He is married and has a five-month-old daughter. After his pro football career, he plans to teach and coach.

What's it all about?

This little dog is confused. Many of us are in the same dilemma. What is Christmas, anyway? What does it mean? Do the tinsel and decorations obscure the true meaning?

Christmas decorations, Christmas trees, Christmas gifts have their part in this greatest day of all the year, but back of them is the manger and the Christ Child, God's gift to mankind.

In the Church you will find the true spirit of Christmas in all its joy, beauty and sacredness. The Wise Men will become so real you will follow the star with them. With the shepherds on the Judean hillside you will hear the song of angels. You will go to Bethlehem where you will kneel before the King. Kneeling, you will find the true meaning of Christmas.

Will you come?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four good reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Church regularly and read your Bible daily.
