

Devaney Anxious to Take Over NU Duties

Devaney Meets Players, Press; Fischer Will Remain as Assistant

By Dave Wohlfarth

Bob Devaney, who is expected to take over the Nebraska football coaching post, met the Husker gridgers for the first time yesterday, then had an hour's session of questions fired at him by the Nebraska press, radio and TV corps.

Devaney, who will take over as NU head grid mentor as soon as the Wyoming Board of Trustees release him from his contract, expressed his desire to work on his new job.

He called the Nebraska job a "step up" for him and said, "I think the people of Nebraska are interested in football and with this attitude, will provide us with the help to make a successful program."

He described the Husker gridgers as "enthusiastic and interested." "This squad is bigger than ours (at Wyoming) for we stressed speed and quickness."

"Around 200 pounds is plenty big for a football player but we're not against a 250-pounder if he likes to hit people and can move."

May Cancel Alum Battle
The 46-year old coach said that he and his staff will have to evaluate the squad thoroughly this spring. He plans a spring session of four practices a week but may not end it with the traditional spring game with the Alums this year.

"We may not have it (Alumni-Varsity game) this year. If the alums are organized and put in at least a week's practice, it's worth while, otherwise it's not."

Devaney, who describes himself somewhere in between hard-nosed and easy-going on the field, has his work cut out for him between now and spring training practice.

'Things To Do'
He listed as things to accomplish—

"Recruiting is the number one item, but we've a lot to do on campus also."

We will study the films, evaluating the players now in school and figuring where they will fit in.

We've got to see that the players are eligible and to acquaint ourselves with them the best we can."

'What's Shown'
In connection with spring drills, Devaney, who was head coach at Wyoming the past five years, said, "We won't wait for any boy to get into condition. We're interested in what happens—not potential, but what's shown."

"Everybody has a chance to make the team, although we will take last fall into consideration."

The new Husker assistants will depend upon which men come from Wyoming, according to Devaney. Jim Ross, who coached the ends and defensive backs, accompanied Devaney on the trip to Lincoln and will become one of the new coaches.

Cletus Fischer, who has been assigned to contact high school coaches and visit in the area for recruiting purposes, will remain as an assistant and Devaney said there was "a possibility of one other of the Nebraska assistants" retaining his job.

Wyoming Assistants
Devaney had from six to seven assistants at Wyoming and expects several of them to make the switch to NU. Some of these men may figure in the scramble for the

Devaney Liked

Husker football players expressed favorable opinions of Nebraska's choice for football coach, Bob Devaney, following a twenty minute talk by Devaney yesterday.

The players interviewed said they liked Devaney's straight forwardness and the way he laid it out on the line regarding his future plans. Some comments:

Gary Toogood—I think he will be a good coach. He told us what he expected a hard-nosed football team and both Spring and Fall camps would be real tough. I like the idea and I think most of the players also like it.

Larry Donovan—I like his straight forwardness. He told us what he planned to do and just what he expected from us. Winning is the important thing. When you talk about football being fun you mean winning football.

Bob Jones—He talks like he knows what he wants and how he wants things done.

Jed Rood—I like him. He seemed real straight forward and presented a new and fresh point of view.

Monte Kiffin—He didn't beat around the bush and that's what I liked about him. He said he wants the players and coaches to be close. I think he's a good man.

Ron Gilbreath—He told us what he wanted and I like the way he comes to the point. He seems to have a good personality.

Chick Garner—I think he is going to be all right. He has a way of expressing himself well.

NU Coach Denies Vincent Transfer

NU basketball coach Jerry Bush has denied rumors that sophomore Husker center Bill Vincent will transfer to Creighton at the end of this semester.

Bush said yesterday, "Bill has thought about it, we've talked with him and I think he'll stick with us."

STAR OF WEEK—Cager Ivan Grupe is the recipient of this week's Daily Nebraskan Star of the Week award. Grupe, demonstrating a new found shooting ability, has been the big gun in the NU attack in the last two weeks.

Recent Point Splurge Earns Grupe Award

By Jerry Hansen

Ivan Grupe is this week's Daily Nebraskan "Star of the Week". Grupe was awarded this for his brilliant play in the Kansas-Nebraska game. He was high point man in that game with 17 points and also hauled in 15 rebounds. His good overall play was capped by his last second lay-up which gave Nebraska a 69-67 victory.

"Big Ivo," who comes from Byron, Nebraska, has come into his own this year as a junior. Since the Christmas break, he has averaged 12.4 points a game, including Nebraska's West Coast tour and the pre-season Big 8 tournament.

Ivan is a junior in eligibility although this is his fourth year in school. He is in Arts and Sciences working for a major in physiology.

When asked what he thought of tonight's game with Oklahoma, Grupe said,

"They are not as fast as some of the teams we have played and we could beat them. They have won two games so far and will be tough to beat."

He also commented that the Big Eight Conference would be a wide-open race this year and that anyone of the schools could win it.

Huskers Host Triangular

Jake Geier's unbeaten Nebraska gymnastic team will host Fort Hayes and Colorado State in a triangular meet this Saturday. It will start at 3 p.m. in the P. E. Building.

Geier named Dennis Albers, Charles Williams, Louis Burkel, Dick McCoy, Larry TeSelle, Robert Kuhn, Steve Swihart, Tom Sitzman, and Gerry Harvey as the Huskers to participate.

The Huskers, undefeated in dual meets last year, beat Kansas State 64-46 in their opening match of the season.

Huskers To Play Sooners Tonight

Coach Jerry Bush will open with the same five cagers that started against Kansas when Nebraska plays Oklahoma tonight at 8:05 p.m. in the Coliseum.

Both the Huskers and Sooners are undefeated in conference play. Nebraska tripped KU 69-67 last weekend and Oklahoma won its first two starts, knocking off Iowa State and Missouri.

Oklahoma was fourth in the pre-season Big Eight tourney and is 4-8 overall, but is one of the hottest teams in the league right now. NU has won five and lost seven.

Bush indicated he will start 6-7 Tom Russell, 6-5 Ivan Grupe, 6-5 Daryl Petsch, 6-4 Chuck Sladovnik and 6-1 Rex Swett against OU but will again rely heavily on his bench strength, composed mainly of vet Bill Bowers and sophs Charley Jones, Bill Vincent, Dennis Puelz and Neil Nannen.

Oklahoma will counter with a tall lineup, including 6-7 Warren Fouts and 6-4 Jack Lee at the forwards, 6-7 Stan Morrison at center, and 6-3 Tom McCurdy and 5-9 Eddie Evans at guards.

Evans, the Sooner spark-plug, was an all-tourney selection in the Kansas City tourney.

Bush said Oklahoma had "good overall size" and that he was expecting "a battle of the boards."

OPPORTUNITIES

FOR EE, ME, PHYSICS AND MATH MAJORS

AS FIELD SERVICE ENGINEERS IN THE MISSILE SYSTEMS FIELD

AC, the Electronics Division of General Motors, presently has positions available for Electrical Engineers, Mechanical Engineers, Physics and Math majors to work as Field Service Engineers on missile systems. You will work on AC's all-inertial guidance system utilizing digital computers for the TITAN II missile.

When you join us you will be given a three-month training course that includes these interesting subjects:

- WEAPONS SYSTEMS • THEORY OF GYROS • THEORY OF OPERATION OF GYROS IN A STABILIZED PLATFORM • STABILIZATION AND MEASUREMENT LOOPS OF A PLATFORM • THEORY OF OPERATION OF ERECTION LOOPS • THEORY OF AIRBORNE DIGITAL COMPUTERS • OVERALL SYSTEM CONCEPTS

Following this training period you will be assigned to installation and check-out of the guidance system for the TITAN II. Assignments will include positions at military installations or in Milwaukee.

Contact your College Placement Office regarding a General Motors-AC campus interview or send the form below to Mr. G. F. Raasch, Director of Scientific and Professional Employment, Dept. 5753, 7929 South Howell, Milwaukee 1, Wisconsin.
