across the finish line. Ray "Skip" Stevens won in 1:56.7. Winning is nothing new to this North Platte junior who seems to make a habit of it about every time he steps onto the track.

For his victory over Big Eight Indoor 880 champ Billy Stone, Stevens merits the Daily Nebraskan Star of the Week award.

According to his doctor, Skip would never have ran in the meet against Kansas State and Oklahoma State last Saturday. For two weeks previous Stevens had been plagued by a virus which left him tired. Perhaps the semester break where, as Ray said, "all I did was eat and sleep" turned the tide for him.

On the Monday before the meet the doctor phoned George Sullivan, physiotherapist, and athletic trainer, and told him that Stevens shouldn't run because he'd be too weak. If Stevens does decide to run "be ready to pick him up in a basket," the doctor told Sullivan.

These instructions were given for the mile event which he won from John Haraughty in 4:25.8.

"What the doctor didn't know was that I'd be running the 880, too," Stevens said.

Recounting the race Skip said he started in the seventh lane, not considered the best place to begin. Bill Kenny, Stone and Stevens took the lead at the first turn where the other runners simply fell out of contention.

After a lap or so Stevens and Stone left Kenny and it was a race between two determined young men. "On the last turn I knew he was mine," Stevens said. The slender blond produced his famous kick and took Stone on the inside to finish several yards ahead in 1:56.7.

Rocketed to fame for his 4:11.3 outdoor mile against Barrie Almond of Houston last year, Stevens is looking toward the Big Eight Indoor Championship at Kansas City on March 2-3. There he will match strides with Kansas' Bill Dotson and other top milers in the Conference.

Immediately he will be entered in the mile and 880 against Iowa State on Saturday. Then the team travels to Boulder for a dual. At this time there is a chance he may meet 600-yard champ Jim Heath in the 880, but that remains to be seen.

All attention is focused on Iowa State, Saturday. After all Skip runs one meet at a time.

Gymnasts Will Seek Numbers 16, 17 on Trip

By DAVE WOHLFARTH
Sports Editor

Nebraska's undefeated gymnastics team heads into Colorado this weekend for meets with Denver University Friday and Colorado State of Greeley Saturday.

NU Coach Jake Geier believes Denver U. has one of the top teams in this area. DU is an early favorite to win the All College championships to be held at Boulder, March 16-17.

The Huskers will be seeking their 16th and 17th straight wins in dual and triangular competition on the trip, a skein stretching over four years.

Nebraska has won two gym meets this year, clipping Kansas State 64-46 in its opener and copping a triangular from Colorado State and Fort Hays State of Kansas in its last outing.

Making the trip for the Huskers will be: Dennis Albers, Hastings sophomore who is leading the NU point production; Louis Burkel; Gene Hart; Bob Kuhn; Richard McCoy; Tom Nystrom; Tom Sitzman; Steve Swihart; and Chuck Williams.

NU to Face Denver, Air Force on Jaunt

Nebraska's swimmers will spend this weekend in Colorado in a Friday dual with Denver University and a Saturday triangular with DU and the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs.

Coach Dick Klaas says the three teams appear about even with Denver's Jim Kello, a national individual medley champion, contributing a slight edge for DU.

The Huskers won last Saturday whipping Colorado 51-42. The win over the Buffs gives Nebraska a 3-4 record for the season.

Nebraska swimmers making the trip are Kuni Mihara, Bill Henry, Bill Fowles, Larry Ferrell, Phil Swaim, Bob Mitchell, Dave Roberts, Chuck Levy, Bill Wright, LaVerne Bauers, Jim Smith, Jeff Amsler, and Terry Anderson.
