Cagers Seek Second Win Over Tigers

By DAVE WOHLFARTH Sports Editor

Nebraska will try for its second win over Missouri when the Huskers host the Tiger cagers at 8:05 p.m. Saturday night in the Coliseum.

NU downed Missouri, 65-63, last weekend at Columbia. Since that time Missouri won its second conference game, 69-64, over Oklahoma State, and Nebraska dropped a last-minute thriller to Kansas, 73-70, in the Coliseum.

The Tigers are paced by guard Ken Doughty, who scored 31 points against the Huskers at Columbia.

The Husker mentor speculated that guard Daryl Petsch was still on the doubtful list for tomorrow's game. "We're in hopes he'll be able to play Saturday," Bush said of Petsch, who suffered a bad ankle sprain in practice this week.

WILL HIS TRADE PROGRAM HURT U.S. BUSINESS? An Oregon lumber company recently shut down one of its mills. It just couldn't compete with cheap imports. Yet Kennedy wants even lower tariffs. In this week's Saturday Evening Post, you'll read how Kennedy defends his trade program. How he plans to deal with the resulting job losses. And what he'll do if he can't push his program through Congress.

We may be jumping the gun but talk of spring football practice is already in the air. Husker grid hopefuls have already started working out on their own, getting in shape for the all important spring drills.

More than twenty lettermen from last year's team should be present when new NU coach Bob Devaney calls the role for the opening drill April 2. This will be Devaney's first look at the players, so every man must show the rookie Husker head boss just what he can do.

The drills will be run from April 2 to either May 5 or 12, depending upon whether or not the gridgers take a break for spring vacation. Devaney has decided to leave this up to the players. If they want to break and go home for vacation (April 21-28), then the final spring intrasquad game will be May 12. If the players vote to drill straight through, the finale will be May 5.

There will be four practices a week (Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday), according to Coach Devaney. The gates will be open for all sessions and regular game scrimmages are planned for the final two Saturdays as well as earlier "controlled" scrimmages, when there will be no punting and kickoffs.

Devaney and his staff are anxious to see the Huskers. The new Husker coach and his assistants are busy making final recruiting trips, analyzing the players they've scouted, before getting down to final preparations for spring practice. Husker fans, likewise, are eager to see Devaney in action — for a new brand of football is expected to hit Huskerland.

Devaney has invited any man, whether he is on a scholarship or not, who will be in condition and won't get hurt, to participate in spring drills. He and his staff will spend many hours toiling over the abilities of the various gridgers. Movies of the last two scrimmages will be taken to aide the Husker coaches in their analysis of the team.

Apparently, all of last year's players who saw game action have cleared the scholastic hurdles with the exception of halfback Bernie Clay, who dropped out of school. Two transfers from Marquette, Dave Theisen and Mike Kohler, both backs, will bolster the Huskers' backfield corps this spring.

Jim Huges and Larry Tomlinson will be the only returning starters at the ends and Ron Michka the only center vet. There are plenty of tackles including Bob Jones, Gary Toogood, Monte Kiffin, Dwain Carlson, Bob Brown and Lloyd Voss; and guards Ed Mitchell, Dennis Kirby, Tyrone Robertson and Jed Rood will also be back.

In the backfield, quarterback Dennis Claridge, halfbacks Bill Thorton, Warren Powers, Dennis Stuewe and Willie Ross, fullbacks Rudy Johnson, Bill Comstock and Noel Martin supply plenty of experience.

In addition, Nebraska will have several utility men, such as Larry Donovan (end and guard) and Dick Callahan (end and halfback).

The main problem Devaney and his staff will be faced with are lack of depth in two positions, ends and center. There should be enough candidates from the freshman ranks and an overabundance of depth at other positions to fill these spots up, however.

The personnel seems to be here — both in players and in coaches for the first time in several seasons. The question on every Husker rooster's mind is: "How will Nebraska do this year? Will this be the year?" These may partly be answered in the spring drills, which although six weeks away, are eagerly anticipated.

Husker Cindermen Seek Revenge Against Buffs

By JAN SACK

Two of the major contenders for a piece of the Big Eight indoor track crown — Nebraska and Colorado — clash tomorrow in a return dual meet in the Indoor Stadium at 2 p.m.

Last week in Boulder, Colorado edged the Huskers 64-58 by winning the last event of the meet, the mile relay. The Buff team, anchored by Olympian Teddy Woods, ran away with the relay record with a time of 3:22.1.

Top events in the meet will include the pole vault and the broad jump with such top flight performers as Don Meyers, NCAA broad jump champion, Juris Jesifer and Rudy Johnson.

CU's Meyers cleared 15-0 in the pole vault and Jesifer, a Husker sophomore, cleared 14-0 for a personal best. Meyers also won the broad jump with a 24-4 effort. This week Johnson will carry Nebraska's share of the load because Victor Brooks is out for the remainder of the indoor season, Sevigne said.

Fred Wilke will be the NU mainstay in the high jump with a 6-4 best this year.

Husker sophomore John Portee will have another crack at the 1,000-yard run event record this week. He ran an unscheduled 990 yards in 2:14.9 last week after a mixup at the start.

Mike Fleming of Nebraska came home with a record last week when he toured the two mile event in 9:44.9. Fleming will probably double in the mile along with Husker junior Ray Stevens who won the event last week.

NU sprinter Ray Knaub will be out to upset Woods in the 60-yard dash this week. At Boulder Woods barely edged the former Scottsbluff star. Both were clocked in :06.2. Don Degnan will also be ready to go for Nebraska tomorrow. As a freshman Degnan, along with Knaub, tied the Big Eight postal record with a :06.2.

Jim Heath, Colorado's 600-yard ace, will probably not be running up to par because of a sprained ankle. Last week he sped through the event in 1:11.1 for a record, ready to meet Heath's challenge. Nebraska's Gil Gebro will be in line.

THE LION'S SHARE

The lion that can roar the loudest and bite the hardest usually gets what he wants.

That's the way it is in the animal kingdom, and sometimes the system creeps into man's world too!

Most of us have too much RELIGIOUS AWARENESS to believe that such a system is the best one. We would rather live in a world in which kindness and peace and unselfishness were the rule.

Our Churches can help us build such a world. They can turn our religious awareness into SPIRITUAL GROWTH.

On Sunday morning, the man in the arm-chair knows just as well as the man in the pew what is wrong with the world. But the man in the pew will be busy doing something about it!
