

Independents Sponsor Annual Spring Dance

The independent organizations on campus, IWA, RAM, and Delta Sigma Pi are sponsoring the first annual Spring Ball dance.

In past years the dance was held in the fall and called the "Hello Dance." The "Hello Dance" was sponsored by IWA and RAM last year. Because there were many social events in the fall, the dance was changed to a spring date.

Last year a Hello Girl and Hello Girl Escort were selected. This year an outstanding independent woman and an outstanding independent man will be crowned "Independent Spring Queen" and "Independent Spring King" during intermission.

Five women and five men will be selected finalists by an interviewing board consisting of representatives from IWA, RAM, Mortar Board, Innocents, Daily Nebraskan staff and Delta Sigma Pi. The finalists will be judged on the basis of scholarship, activities, service to the University, personality, appearance and poise.

Voting for the queen and king will take place at the dance. Any University student attending the dance may vote for royalty (ID's will be requested). The voting will end shortly after 9:30 p.m. and royalty will be announced during intermission. The "Independent Spring Queen" will be presented with a crown, a bouquet of roses and a traveling cup. She will be crowned by last year's Hello Girl, Gladys Rolfsmeier. The "Independent Spring King" will be presented a crown and traveling cup. He will be crowned by last year's Hello Girl Escort, Maurice Wiese.

This is an all-campus affair and all University students are invited to attend. The dance will be held March 23, from 8:30 to 12 p.m. It will be held at East Hills Ballroom with the Mark IV combo to provide music for dancing. Admission is $1.00 per person. Dress is semi-formal and this year's theme is "Spring Fever."

Tickets will be on sale in the Student Union March 16-21 from 11 to 1 p.m. They can also be purchased from social chairmen of the independent houses or at the door.

Phi Psis Choose Top Cheerleader

Pam Jones, of Hastings was selected as the head cheerleader of the 1962 Phi Kappa Psi All Tournament Cheerleading Squad.

The Squad is selected annually from the cheerleaders from the various towns that compete in the state basketball tournament.

Miss Jones, a member of the honor squad last year, succeeds Sandra Meistrell of Fremont in the top position.

The other cheerleaders picked for the Squad are: Diane Lehr, of Lincoln Northeast; Doranna Roth, Gering; Barb Bowman, Fullerton, Ann Ellerby, Hastings and Beverly Ekdaul, Polk. They will be invited to the Phi Psi spring date dinner.

The girls were judged on enthusiasm, appearance, cheerleading ability and overall spirit.

Campus Forum

Article appears to be something copied from the National Review and makes me wonder if the views of the Republican Party are not becoming dominated by ultra-rightist viewpoints such as those expressed in the National Review. It is apparent that Mr. Stastny's mind is dominated by the National Review.
