

NAVY TOPS FINAL IM RATINGS

THREE HEAD FOR NATIONALS—Nebraska's four musketeers of wrestling were reduced to three when Dave Cook, lower left, suffered a knee injury in a match with Omaha U., and was forced to surgery. In the back row is Harold Thompson and Jim Raschke, still unbeaten as they enter the NCAA championships at Stillwater this weekend. Mike Nissen, kneeling at the right, has a 13-2-0 mark for the season.

3 Husker Wrestlers Leave for Nationals

Two Cornhusker wrestling greats left at noon Tuesday for their final collegiate mat action — the NCAA championships at Stillwater, Okla., this weekend.

Nationally recognized seniors Harold Thompson and Jim Raschke will carry unbeaten records as well as Nebraska and Big Eight prestige into the biggest meet on college slates, billed for a Thursday start and Saturday finish.

Mike Nissen will team up with the two seniors to represent Nebraska in the tourney. The three are seeking the Big Red's first individual nationals crown since the meet was initiated in 1928.

Thompson, ranked number one in the nation in the 157-pound class is the best bet for Nebraska's first nationals champ. The native of Osage, Ia., trimmed down to 147 for the Big Eight meet and is entered in this division for the nationals, also.

Raschke has had plenty of Big Eight and nationals experience in the unlimited division. The Omaha North heavy was second in the loop tourney as a sophomore and fourth as a junior. He was fourth in the nationals in '61 and won the conference crown this year.

Nissen, a junior 123 pounder, carries an undefeated dual record into the Championships.

The three Huskers will be representing the toughest conference in the nation, Oklahoma State, Oklahoma and Iowa State have monopolized the tourney in 28 of the 32 annual sessions.

The Cowboys, reigning champs, have missed out on only nine of the team crowns and of these, Oklahoma has won five.

Xis Win Paddle Ball
Theta Xi had six flight winners and a total of 79 points to take the All-University team championship in intramural paddle ball. The Theta Xis were outscored by the Independents, 88-79, but the Independents are not an organized team.

Myron Papadakis, Delta Upsilon, was the All-University singles champion and Steve North and Mike Barton, Phi Kappa Psi, were All-University doubles champions.

Sig Eps 2nd; Sig Nu-B, DU-C Head Divisions

By DAVE WOHLFARTH
Sports Editor

All-University champion Navy ROTC stands at the top of the final Daily Nebraskan intramural basketball ratings among 'A' teams.

Navy was ranked number one in a clear-cut choice ahead of Sigma Phi Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, Canfield, and Dental College.

The last five rated squads are a bit more befuddled as positions six through nine were a tight tussle between four Fraternity-A teams with the Bachelors, an Independent quintet, holding down the number ten spot.

Six of the top ten teams are Fraternity squads and three teams played in the Independent leagues. There is only one Burr-Selleck choice (Canfield), not due to the absence of dorm talent but because of the tightness of the Fraternity and Independent races.

Navy Undefeated
The Navy crew sailed through an unbeaten season of twelve wins and no defeats, winning the Independent and All-University titles in the process. NROTC was the only undefeated intramural team in the three divisions.

Biggest of the Navy wins and the clincher for the top spot was the finale before the state high school finals when the midshipman from M&N edged Sigma Phi Epsilon for the IM title.

Other important Navy victories included three wins over fifth-ranked Dental College and one over the Bachelors (No. 10) in Independent play.

Sig Eps Second
Next in line in the top ten is Sigma Phi Epsilon, the scrappy Fraternity-A champs and runner-ups in the All-University chase.

The Sig Eps compiled a 12-2 mark with key wins (twice) over Kappa Sigma, two over Delta Tau Delta (seventh) and one over Canfield, dorm champ and rated fourth.

The only losses SPE suffered were at the hands of the Kappa Sigs and Navy.

The well-balanced Sig Ep team won its league then went on to upset the Kappa

Sigs, defending Fraternity and All-University champs, in two of three meetings.

Kappa Sigs Slip to 3rd
Kappa Sigma is ranked third with its 11-2 mark. The Bob Prokop-led K-Sig corps turned in their third straight good season although they did not repeat as champs.

The Kappa Sigs weathered rough league competition to win League 1-A before dropping the two close decisions to the Sig Eps in the Fraternity-A playoffs.

Sigma Chi (No. 6) fell victim to offensive attack three times. Kappa Sigma downed Phi Delta Theta (No. 8) twice, Sigma Alpha Epsilon (No. 9) once and the Sig Eps once.

Canfield Spotted at Four
Fourth on the charts are the Canfield cagers. The dorm titlists enjoyed a successful season, winning the Burr-Selleck-A crown by nipping Seaton II (not ranked) twice.

Canfield (9-1), a team composed mainly of Husker football players led by All-University center Monte Kiffin, was undefeated in dorm play and bowed to the Sig Eps in the All-University tourney.

Another powerful Independent team is rated fifth. Dental College (10-3) absorbed its only three setbacks of the campaign in losing three close ones to to-ranked Navy. The Dents, runner-up in the Independent tourney, made mince meat of most of the Independent teams and added an important win with a narrow win over the Bachelors in the semi-finals of the Independent tourney.

Anybody's Guess
Positions six through ten are anybody's guess as three of the teams fought it out first in League 1-A then later in the Fraternity-A tournament.

Sigma Chi earns the number six spot despite a poor 6-7 record. The Sig Chis had a unimpressive 2-4 league mark, finishing fourth in their league and barely qualifying for the tourney.

Once in the tournament, however, the Sigs revenged regular season losses to the Phi Deltas (No. 8) and the Sig Alphas (No. 9), but couldn't overcome Kappa Sigma, losing three times to the K-Sigs.

The Sig Chis were one of the best teams in the tourney and owe their number six ranking and third highest Fraternity spot to their hot finish and a key victory over seventh-rated Delta Tau Delta in tournament play.

The loss to the Sig Chis cost the Deltas a chance for a higher finish as the DTD men still finished with a fine 8-3 record, third best mark among Fraternities.

The Deltas' other two losses were handed them by champs Sigma Phi Epsilon and, despite a good second place finish in tough League 2-A, the Deltas had no wins over ranked teams.

Phi Delta Theta, with one of the best potential teams in IM play, is rated eighth. The Phi Deltas reeled off five wins against four losses, playing a tough schedule.

The Phi Deltas beat the Sig Chis (No. 6) in the regular season and knocked off a powerful Sig Alpha (No. 9) quintet in the tourney for their only two big wins of the year.

Two Losses to K-Sigs
The Phi Deltas fell twice to Kappa Sigma, once to Sigma Chi and once to Sigma Alpha Epsilon in the round-about Fraternity competition.

The Sig Alphas (5-3) are awarded ninth place on a strong regular season showing. Hurt by losses at mid-semester, SAE was upended in its two tourney outings after chalking up a 5-1 loop count, good enough for second place.

SAE beat the Phi Deltas and Sig Chis during the regular campaigns but loss to these two teams in the all-important tournament. The other Sig Alpha loss was to Kappa Sigma (No. 2).

Bachelors Tough at Ten
The Bachelors, at number ten, compiled an impressive 8-2 record, won their league and lost only to Navy and the Dents in tourney action.

Led by standouts Larry Champoux and Jim Houser, this team might be underrated but was hampered by playing the weak Independent League slate.

There were several other 'A' teams which almost cracked the big ten and deserve recognition. Tops among these are Seaton II (8-3), Losers (7-3), Gus II (7-5) and Brown Palace (7-3).

Other top quintets in IM action included: Pioneer (6-3), Burnett (6-3), Kiessbach (7-4), Bessey (6-4), Avery (5-3) and Phi Epsilon Kappa (6-4).

Sigma Nu Top 'B' Team
Topping the 'B' rankings is Sigma Nu. The Sig Nu's posted a 12-1 record, copped the Fraternity-B title and then added the All-University 'B' crown by smashing Canfield-B (No. 7).

Included in the Sig Nu conquests were Phi Delta Theta (No. 2) three times, eight-ranked Alpha Gamma Rho, fourth-rated Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Kappa Psi (No. 5) and Canfield.

The Sig Nu's lost their only game of the year to the Phi Deltas then beat practically every to-ranked team on their comeback trail to win the Frat-B championship.

Phi Deltas Second
Phi Delta Theta (8-3) is a solid choice for the second spot with wins over AGR, Sig Nu, and Phi Psi, and losses only to Sigma Nu. The Phi Deltas won eight and lost three.

Alpha Tau Omega (7-2), Sigma Alpha Epsilon (7-3), and Phi Kappa Psi (5-5) round out the top five. Each of this trio owns a win over the other two so these three teams could easily be switched. All turned in good tourney performances to merit their high spots on the 'B' ladder.

Delta Tau Delta (6-2) is number six with wins over AGR (No. 8) and (two) over unranked Farm House. Losses to SAE and ATO in the tourney hurt the Deltas' position.

Canfield (7-0) in dorm play and 7-1 for the year) is rated a low seventh despite its Burr-Selleck 'B' championship. Canfield took a weak four team dorm division before being crushed by top-ranked Sigma Nu in the All-University 'B' finals.

Alpha Gamma Rho, Beta Theta Pi and dorm runner-up Andrews round out the 'B' top ten.

DUs First in 'C'
A powerful Delta Upsilon team (8-1) is entrenched in the top spot in the 'C' listings.

The DUs, led by freshman standout Ken Knoche, marched through the season, suffering only one loss — an early season overtime heart-breaker to Theta Xi — and gave 'B' champ Sigma Nu all it wanted in a special exhibition game in the Coliseum.

Runner-up Sigma Phi Epsilon (8-3) is second. The Sig Eps were downed three times by the DUS for their only defeats.

Sigma Chi (7-3) takes third with its favorite victim, Phi Delta Theta (7-3) close behind at fourth. Fifth place is a tie between Beta Theta Pi, with a fine 5-4 record, and Theta Xi, with its early season upset of Delta Upsilon.
