

STAR OF THE WEEK

"HOOT" HONORED—Dick "Hoot" Gibson, Husker tennis ace, is this week's Daily Nebraskan Star of the Week.

Gibson's Wins Spark Nebraska Net Team

By DAVE WOHLFARTH Sports Editor
This week's Daily Nebraskan Star of the Week is a lean sophomore who wields a powerful tennis racket. Dick Gibson, number one man on the Husker tennis team, made an auspicious debut in the collegiate net ranks last week by leading Nebraska to two wins. The 6-0, 165-pound hard-hitting court king won an easy match from Creighton's Jay Wu then outlasted one of the conference's top strokers in Pat Finney of Kansas State. Gibson's 7-9, 6-2, 6-1 verdict over Finney broke a 2-2 tie in the match at K-State and paved the way for a 4-3 Husker victory. For the week's work, he turned in two singles wins and teamed for two doubles triumphs. "Hoot" Gibson, who is tabbed "Hoot" by his teammates, combined a strong serve with a sharp net game to pull out the last two sets against Finney. In the weeks ahead the going may get tough for Gibson as the Huskers seek to improve on their last year's cellar spot showing against rugged conference competition. He foresees a possible sixth place finish for Nebraska in the loop meet, "if we can beat Kansas State and Iowa State." "Hoot" is no newcomer to tennis. The 20-year-old racket ripper began playing when he was 13 and picked up his first tennis title at the age of 15 when he was Lincoln Boys Champion. Lincoln High Grad Gibson lettered three years under Coach Roy Colson at Lincoln High, playing on one state championship team and reaching the finals of the Class A singles division his senior year. Tourney titles which Gibson has captured include: Lincoln Junior Boys Champ in 1960; runner-up in the State Junior Boys Singles in '59 and '60; City Jaycee champ and State runner-up in '60; State Doubles Champ in '59 and '60 and the Lincoln Tennis Club Champ in 1960. In Gibson's final summer in junior competition (18 and under), 1960, he was ranked fourth in doubles in the Missouri Valley, which covers a five-state area. Gibson, a member of Delta Tau Delta, is majoring in business administration and picks hunting, fishing and all sports as his chief interests.

Husker Squads Busy During Spring Break

The next nine days hold the key to success for Nebraska's four spring sports squads. While most of the University's students are home enjoying Spring Vacation, the Husker baseball, golf, track and tennis teams will be busy engaging in important duals, meets and games. All but the golf team, which will make its usual southern jaunt, will be camped in Lincoln at least part of the week as the late NU Spring Vacation resulted in schedule conflicts with southern schools, thereby preventing all the Husker teams from heading south.

Baseball
The baseball team is the busiest of the four squads as it heads into a grueling series of nine games in eight days starting with a doubleheader at Iowa State tomorrow. The Huskers will also play a single game on Saturday with Iowa State before returning home. Upon returning the NU diamond men will entertain Concordia of Minnesota in a three game series starting Monday. Single games will be played Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday against the Minnesotans.

Missouri comes to Lincoln Fri., April 27 for an all-important three game series. Nebraska is currently 3-3 in conference play and the series against Mizzou will be very important to the Huskers if they are to make a strong bid for the title. Track
The Husker track team, considered a serious threat for the outdoor Big Eight title, will attempt to repeat its strong showings of the last two weekends as two relay meets and one dual are on tap for the NU thinclads during the break. Coach Frank Seignie will enter five relay teams and five Huskers in individual events in the annual Kansas Relays this weekend at Lawrence.

The Scarlet tracksters will return for one of their few home performances of the year when they host Houston next Tuesday. This will mark the Huskers' first dual meet of the outdoor season. Last weekend the Huskers edged Colorado and Air Force Academy in a triangular meet at Colorado Springs. Next week end Nebraska will journey to Des Moines for the Drake Relays.

Golf
The Husker golf team, boosting a 3-1 dual meet mark, has a home dual against Iowa State tomorrow then heads south to compete in three duals in six days against the league's best golf squads. Coach Harry Good's linksters will meet Oklahoma at Norman Tuesday, Oklahoma State at Stillwater Thursday and Missouri at Columbia Saturday. The southern swing could tell whether the Huskers are to improve on their last place conference showing of last spring. NU's only loss this year came at the hands of a conference foe, Kansas State, while wins have been notched over Creighton, Drake and Omaha.

Tennis
The undefeated Husker tennis team, with wins over Creighton and Kansas State, will have its work cut out for it when the Huskers meet a four-man delegation from Wichita tomorrow on the NU courts. Neil Rousch, one of the Midwest's top netters, will head the Shockers troops in Nebraska's first outing against a top-notch tennis power. Coach Ed Hibbinbotham's sophomore-studded squad has two meets next week. The Nebraska tennisists play at Omaha U. Thursday and meet a salty Kansas crew Saturday in Lincoln.

Gridders Have Rough Practice

Coach Bob Daveny put the finishing touches on the Cornhusker offense for the spring and then put the Huskers through drills, drills and more drills. The line worked on blocking drills while in the process of learning the new trap plays. There were also line backing drills and reaction drills to sharpen up the lineman. The backs spent their time learning the new plays too, which included a new pass for them. They had hand passing drills and a few exercises to sharpen up their pass defending abilities. The majority of the ninth practice session was spent in dummy scrimmages, incorporating the new plays and putting polish on the old ones. R. Brown, a junior tackle is still out with the flu, while Senior End Jim Hoge left the practice early but is expected to be back in action Friday. J. B. Hardy, another junior tackle, sprained his ankle during Wednesday's action. The gridders will have another practice session on Friday and a scrimmage on Saturday morning before adjourning for Spring vacation.

CASE HISTORIES FROM A MENTAL HOSPITAL

Girl Watcher's Guide Presented by Pall Mall Famous Cigarettes

LESSON 7- Keep moving
One of the most important rules of girl watching is this: keep moving. In fact, it is always a good idea not only to move, but to appear to be going somewhere. (This is especially important on group field trips.) Beautiful girls, although they enjoy being watched, are instinctively suspicious of strollers and downright fearful of loiterers. The man who is walking briskly, who looks like he's "going places," makes a better girl watcher. For one thing, he sees more total girls and in the end he enjoys his hobby more. (If you are planning an extended field trip—to Paris and Rome, for example—be sure to pack a couple of cartons of Pall Mall.)
