

KUON-TV Summer Programming

Incoming freshman students have the opportunity to improve their English skills to prepare for college English courses by turning on their television sets for a course in basic English on KUON-TV, Channel 12.

Previews in Freshman English is offered nightly June 18 through July 13 at 7 p.m.

President Kennedy joins Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt in a discussion of the problems facing women and the state of women's education in the U.S. on Prospects of Mankind Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. The recently created Commission on the Status of Women is defined as to its purpose, future recommendations and dealing with women's problems.

KUON-TV Friday night viewing features uninterrupted dramatic performances including tragedies, comedies and satires as examples of some of the world's varied theatrical forms.

William Shakespeare's Julius Caesar, the story of Caesar's conspiracy and death, can be seen this Friday night at 8:30 p.m.

A complete listing of Channel 12 programming for this week follows:

- Tuesday, June 18
- 6:00 Evening Prelude
  - 6:30 Art and Artists: "English Lakes." The Lake Country of Great Britain has inspired many famous writers as well as painters. The lesson still teaches today is disclosed and some famous paintings shown.
  - 7:00 English: "The Lake Country of Great Britain." The lesson still teaches today is disclosed and some famous paintings shown.
  - 7:30 Reading Out Loud: "C. H. Percy." "Poor Richard's Almanack," a collection of witty and prudential sayings written by Benjamin Franklin over 200 years ago, still carries much esteem. Charles H. Percy, successful business man and supporter of such programs as the Boys Clubs of Chicago, reads these proverbs in the final program of the series.
  - 8:00 Japan—The Changing Years: "The United States and Japan." Japan met its first defeat in 1905 years with the U.S. occupation of 1945. Tonight's concluding program updates U.S.-Japanese relations and shows the tension on both sides. Whether Japan will be our ally, a neutral, or a communist supporter, is discussed.
- Tuesday, June 19
- 6:00 Evening Prelude
  - 6:30 British Calendar
  - 6:45 Contemporary Crafts
  - 7:00 English: "Face to Face: "William and Caroline Herschel." This sister-brother team made vital contributions to astronomy. They discovered the planet Uranus and its five moons and drew up a table of stars according to proximity to the sun.
  - 7:30 History with Herb Hake: "Bullet Capitol." Dubuque, Iowa, takes the spotlight tonight as Herb Hake gives a brief history of its development and discloses its significance. How men began exploiting their mineral resources there, and how Julien Dubuque came to be its founder are revealed.
  - 8:00 Freedom to Learn: "To Be Continued." There's no reason why a good mother cannot be a good engineer, lawyer, writer, or teacher twenty years from now. This is the idea which is the basis of the Minnesota Plan, a realist attempt to resolve the conflict between the roles of a woman as a career woman.
  - 8:30 Meet the Organ: Porter Heaps is featured in the new series. He plays classical and popular examples of the instrument and demonstrates organ music and organ playing. Tonight's interview, Augustus John, a portrait painter, has done portraits of Emperor Hirohito of Japan, Thomas Hardy, Queen Mother Elizabeth, and Tallulah Bankhead. The interview, conducted in the artist's studio, discloses his personality, individually, and a glimpse of his brilliant career.
- Wednesday, June 20
- 6:00 Evening Prelude
  - 6:30 British Calendar
  - 6:45 Contemporary Crafts
  - 7:00 English: "Face to Face: "William and Caroline Herschel." This sister-brother team made vital contributions to astronomy. They discovered the planet Uranus and its five moons and drew up a table of stars according to proximity to the sun.
  - 7:30 History with Herb Hake: "Bullet Capitol." Dubuque, Iowa, takes the spotlight tonight as Herb Hake gives a brief history of its development and discloses its significance. How men began exploiting their mineral resources there, and how Julien Dubuque came to be its founder are revealed.
  - 8:00 Freedom to Learn: "To Be Continued." There's no reason why a good mother cannot be a good engineer, lawyer, writer, or teacher twenty years from now. This is the idea which is the basis of the Minnesota Plan, a realist attempt to resolve the conflict between the roles of a woman as a career woman.
  - 8:30 Meet the Organ: Porter Heaps is featured in the new series. He plays classical and popular examples of the instrument and demonstrates organ music and organ playing. Tonight's interview, Augustus John, a portrait painter, has done portraits of Emperor Hirohito of Japan, Thomas Hardy, Queen Mother Elizabeth, and Tallulah Bankhead. The interview, conducted in the artist's studio, discloses his personality, individually, and a glimpse of his brilliant career.
- Thursday, June 21
- 6:00 Evening Prelude
  - 6:30 British Calendar
  - 6:45 Contemporary Crafts
  - 7:00 English: "Face to Face: "William and Caroline Herschel." This sister-brother team made vital contributions to astronomy. They discovered the planet Uranus and its five moons and drew up a table of stars according to proximity to the sun.
  - 7:30 History with Herb Hake: "Bullet Capitol." Dubuque, Iowa, takes the spotlight tonight as Herb Hake gives a brief history of its development and discloses its significance. How men began exploiting their mineral resources there, and how Julien Dubuque came to be its founder are revealed.
  - 8:00 Freedom to Learn: "To Be Continued." There's no reason why a good mother cannot be a good engineer, lawyer, writer, or teacher twenty years from now. This is the idea which is the basis of the Minnesota Plan, a realist attempt to resolve the conflict between the roles of a woman as a career woman.
  - 8:30 Meet the Organ: Porter Heaps is featured in the new series. He plays classical and popular examples of the instrument and demonstrates organ music and organ playing. Tonight's interview, Augustus John, a portrait painter, has done portraits of Emperor Hirohito of Japan, Thomas Hardy, Queen Mother Elizabeth, and Tallulah Bankhead. The interview, conducted in the artist's studio, discloses his personality, individually, and a glimpse of his brilliant career.
- Friday, June 22
- 6:00 Evening Prelude
  - 6:30 British Calendar
  - 6:45 Contemporary Crafts
  - 7:00 English: "Face to Face: "William and Caroline Herschel." This sister-brother team made vital contributions to astronomy. They discovered the planet Uranus and its five moons and drew up a table of stars according to proximity to the sun.
  - 7:30 History with Herb Hake: "Bullet Capitol." Dubuque, Iowa, takes the spotlight tonight as Herb Hake gives a brief history of its development and discloses its significance. How men began exploiting their mineral resources there, and how Julien Dubuque came to be its founder are revealed.
  - 8:00 Freedom to Learn: "To Be Continued." There's no reason why a good mother cannot be a good engineer, lawyer, writer, or teacher twenty years from now. This is the idea which is the basis of the Minnesota Plan, a realist attempt to resolve the conflict between the roles of a woman as a career woman.
  - 8:30 Meet the Organ: Porter Heaps is featured in the new series. He plays classical and popular examples of the instrument and demonstrates organ music and organ playing. Tonight's interview, Augustus John, a portrait painter, has done portraits of Emperor Hirohito of Japan, Thomas Hardy, Queen Mother Elizabeth, and Tallulah Bankhead. The interview, conducted in the artist's studio, discloses his personality, individually, and a glimpse of his brilliant career.

cafe providing a lively demonstration.

Monday, June 18

- 8:00 Nebraska: "Loric Poet." Several of his finest lyric poems, "Hymn Before Birth," "Easter," and "Let Me Live Out My Years," are read tonight by the distinguished, vivid personality John G. Neihardt. His showmanship and sincerity abound as he recites his poetry.
- 8:30 Meet the Professor: ABC's cameras present an intimate look at the nation's leading university and college professors.

Wednesday, June 20

- 6:00 Evening Prelude
- 6:30 Alex Schreiner at the Tabernacle Organ: In the concluding program, the skillful organist presents some familiar and favorite selections to entertain viewers.
- 7:00 English: "Prospects of Mankind: "What Status for Women?" (See KUON-TV, Monday, June 18, 9 p.m. for details.)
- 7:30 Freedom to Learn: "To Be Continued." There's no reason why a good mother cannot be a good engineer, lawyer, writer, or teacher twenty years from now. This is the idea which is the basis of the Minnesota Plan, a realist attempt to resolve the conflict between the roles of a woman as a career woman.
- 8:00 Meet the Organ: Porter Heaps is featured in the new series. He plays classical and popular examples of the instrument and demonstrates organ music and organ playing. Tonight's interview, Augustus John, a portrait painter, has done portraits of Emperor Hirohito of Japan, Thomas Hardy, Queen Mother Elizabeth, and Tallulah Bankhead. The interview, conducted in the artist's studio, discloses his personality, individually, and a glimpse of his brilliant career.

Thursday, June 21

- 6:00 Evening Prelude
- 6:30 British Calendar
- 6:45 Contemporary Crafts
- 7:00 English: "Face to Face: "William and Caroline Herschel." This sister-brother team made vital contributions to astronomy. They discovered the planet Uranus and its five moons and drew up a table of stars according to proximity to the sun.
- 7:30 History with Herb Hake: "Bullet Capitol." Dubuque, Iowa, takes the spotlight tonight as Herb Hake gives a brief history of its development and discloses its significance. How men began exploiting their mineral resources there, and how Julien Dubuque came to be its founder are revealed.
- 8:00 Freedom to Learn: "To Be Continued." There's no reason why a good mother cannot be a good engineer, lawyer, writer, or teacher twenty years from now. This is the idea which is the basis of the Minnesota Plan, a realist attempt to resolve the conflict between the roles of a woman as a career woman.
- 8:30 Meet the Organ: Porter Heaps is featured in the new series. He plays classical and popular examples of the instrument and demonstrates organ music and organ playing. Tonight's interview, Augustus John, a portrait painter, has done portraits of Emperor Hirohito of Japan, Thomas Hardy, Queen Mother Elizabeth, and Tallulah Bankhead. The interview, conducted in the artist's studio, discloses his personality, individually, and a glimpse of his brilliant career.

Friday, June 22

- 6:00 Evening Prelude
- 6:30 British Calendar
- 6:45 Contemporary Crafts
- 7:00 English: "Face to Face: "William and Caroline Herschel." This sister-brother team made vital contributions to astronomy. They discovered the planet Uranus and its five moons and drew up a table of stars according to proximity to the sun.
- 7:30 History with Herb Hake: "Bullet Capitol." Dubuque, Iowa, takes the spotlight tonight as Herb Hake gives a brief history of its development and discloses its significance. How men began exploiting their mineral resources there, and how Julien Dubuque came to be its founder are revealed.
- 8:00 Freedom to Learn: "To Be Continued." There's no reason why a good mother cannot be a good engineer, lawyer, writer, or teacher twenty years from now. This is the idea which is the basis of the Minnesota Plan, a realist attempt to resolve the conflict between the roles of a woman as a career woman.
- 8:30 Meet the Organ: Porter Heaps is featured in the new series. He plays classical and popular examples of the instrument and demonstrates organ music and organ playing. Tonight's interview, Augustus John, a portrait painter, has done portraits of Emperor Hirohito of Japan, Thomas Hardy, Queen Mother Elizabeth, and Tallulah Bankhead. The interview, conducted in the artist's studio, discloses his personality, individually, and a glimpse of his brilliant career.

KUON-TV, Tuesday, June 19, 9 p.m.

NET Drama Festival: "Julius Caesar." The story of Caesar's conspiracy and death is told in Shakespeare's famous drama. The plot unfolds, Brutus joins in with the conspirators, Caesar is slain. Afterwards, Mark Anthony delivers his famous speech to the Roman mob, telling them that Julius Caesar was their greatest benefactor.

Monday, June 25

- 5:30 Evening Prelude
- 6:30 Past, Present, Future: "Rudy Pozzatti." Mr. Pozzatti is a former University of Nebraska art professor who visits with Hostess Rita Shaw concerning his recent trip to Russia as a cultural ambassador.
- 7:00 Prospects in Freshman English
- 7:30 Troubled Lives: "The Suspicious Mother." The social case worker serves as a liaison between a suspicious mother and her daughter to help them meet their problems.
- 8:00 Backyard Farmer: Experts in the lawn and garden category are brought to the Channel 12 screen to discuss the garden and planting problems of local backyard farmers.
- 9:00 Invitation to Nebraska Wesleyan: The University Place Symphony from Nebraska Wesleyan University provides an hour long concert prepared especially for the Channel 12 audience.

Phys. Ed. Dept. Offers Swimming for Men

The Department of Physical Education is offering summer recreational swimming for men from 12 noon to 3 p.m. and 4-5 p.m. Monday through Friday, according to Richard L. Klaas, swimming coach.

Union Shows Greek Drama

The documentary film Night Journey will be shown today, tomorrow and Thursday at 3 p.m. in the Nebraska Union Auditorium.

Martha Graham's Night Journey, a work of remarkable unity, power and beauty provides an enormously valuable document of one of the star's most celebrated Greek dance-dramas.

Sophocles' great tragedy Oedipus Rex tells of the day when the Hero-King of Thebes and Jocasta his Queen learned from a blind seer named Tiresias that they were son and mother. When the tragic day ended, Jocasta had hanged herself and Oedipus had put out his eyes and fled the kingdom.

Martha Graham's Night Journey takes place at the moment of Jocasta's death. The blind doomsday seer—the chorus and its leader, who suffer with her, and Oedipus appear as she relives her destiny.

Night Journey is a Special Award Berlin Film Festival.

Kaledioscope Actors Present Comedy

Four actors who call themselves Kaledioscope will present Dylan Thomas' masterpiece of comedy Under Milk Wood tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the Union Ballroom.

By the end of this year, this group of touring players will have appeared in over half of the states in the United States and the group is not yet three years old. Headed by Bill Fegan, the small group is dedicated to presenting unusual theatrical works "on the road." Their appearance here marks the start of the second year they have been offering the Thomas show.

In a lengthy tour last year a reviewer seeing the show at the University of Florida wrote, "Sometimes the four indulge in choral speaking the likes of which you never heard before. It's four parts without music, and just when you're thinking how terribly good it is, it comes to an end and you wish there'd be more."

Aside from Fegan, who has over one hundred roles to his credit in professional theater, the cast includes Yvonne Dell, Joanna Hawkins and David Novak. The four represent varied theatrical backgrounds.

Fegan has managed a directed stock and touring companies throughout the east and southeast. Yvonne Dell has two college degrees, one in speech and dramatics and the other in English, and has taught at a number of universities aside from acting in a lengthy list of plays. Joanna Hawkins is presently teaching classes in oral interpretation at Northwestern

UNDER MILK WOOD — Mr. and Mrs. Butcher Beynon have their "every morning hullabaloo" over the breakfast table in this comic scene from UNDER MILK WOOD by Dylan Thomas. Mr. Beynon has just told Mrs. Beynon that they have eaten cat's liver for their meal. The four actors, comprising Kaledioscope, are Joanna Hawkins, Yvonne Dell, Bill Fegan and David Novak.

Summer Calendar

- Tuesday, June 19
- 1:30-3 p.m., State Hospital Tour.
  - 3 p.m., Fine Art Film: American Ballet, Nebraska Union Auditorium.
  - 4 p.m., Bridge lessons, Union Indian Suite.
  - 7:30 p.m., All-State Student Recital, Love Library Auditorium; All-State Student Reading Hour, Nebraska Union.
- Wednesday, June 20
- 12 noon, Phi Delta Kappa luncheon, Pi Lambda Theta luncheon, Nebraska Union.
  - 3 p.m., Fine Art Film: American Ballet, Union Auditorium.
  - 8 p.m., Union Artist Series: Under Milk Wood, Union Ballroom.
- Thursday, June 21
- 12 noon, Administrators luncheon, Nebraska Union.
  - 3 p.m., World Affairs Preview, Department of State Briefing Team, Union Ballroom; fine art film: American Ballet, Union Auditorium.
  - 7:30 p.m., All-State party, Union Ballroom.
  - 8 p.m., Contemporary Music Symposium, Nebraska Union.
- Friday, June 22
- Girls' and Boys' States end.
  - 7:30 p.m., All-State Student Reading Hour, Nebraska Union; All-State Student Recital, Union Ballroom.
- Saturday, June 23
- All-State Art Exhibit, Union Art Gallery.
  - All-State Journalism Exhibit, Union.
  - 4 p.m., All-State Picnic.
- Sunday, June 24
- 3 p.m., All-State Ensemble Concert, Union Ballroom.
  - 7:30 p.m., All-State Movie, Union Ballroom.
- Monday, June 25
- 12 noon, Elementary Education Grad Club luncheon, Union, Secondary Education luncheon, Union.
  - 4 p.m., Duplicate Bridge, Union Indian Suite.
  - 6 and 8 p.m., Cinema 62, Union Auditorium.
  - 7:30 p.m., All-State Recital, Union Ballroom.

Teachers, Administrators Study Vocational Education

Five guest speakers will present a series of speeches on vocational education before approximately 100 school administrators and teachers this summer at the University of Nebraska.

The administrators and teachers are actively engaged in education in Nebraska and are members of the national professional fraternity for men in education, Phi Delta Kappa.

The national concern and interest in vocational education and the relationship of work and education has prompted the fraternity to present the series entitled "Vocational Education, Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow," said Phi Delta Kappa president Dr. James Horner, associate professor of vocational education at the University.

Guest speakers will include:

- Dr. H. H. London, professor of vocational education, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri;
- Cecil Stanley, assistant state commissioner of vocational education, Lincoln;
- Dr. Floyd Miller, state director of vocational education, Lincoln;
- Philip B. Gilliam, juvenile court judge, Denver, Colo.

Cheaper by the Dozen

Cheaper By The Dozen will be shown June 28, 7 p.m. in Love Library Auditorium. This NU Film Classic features Clifton Webb and Jeanne Crain in a funny, domestic comedy. Clifton Webb is a pater-familias of the Twenties who lives by his wits among his twelve children. As an industrial engineer, an exponent of "motion study," Papa Gilbreth tries to introduce efficient organization into his own teeming household with unpredictable results.

Language Professor To Travel to England

Dr. Roberto Esquenazi-Romano, associate professor of Romance languages at the University of Nebraska, will travel to Oxford, England, to participate in the First International Congress of Hispansists Sept. 6.

He will read a paper, "Revaloracion de Rodó," at Oxford. While in Europe he will visit universities in France and Spain.

Medical Faculty Discusses College Teaching Program

Members of the medical faculty at Omaha met at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education this past week to examine and discuss the teaching program at the University of Nebraska College of Medicine.

Approximately 30 representatives of the curriculum committee at the College of Medicine attended the two-day faculty retreat in Lincoln.

The faculty members heard introductory remarks by Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin and Dean J. P. Tollman, who was in charge of the conference.

Dr. John A. Gius, professor of surgery at the University of Iowa, and Dr. Robert Glasgow, dean of the University of Colorado School of Medicine, spoke at the conference.

The group sought to determine subject areas that should be brought up at the general faculty meeting to be held later this year at the College of Medicine in Omaha.

The following items were discussed at the conference:

- Methods of teaching
- Attitude of instructors and students
- Pre-medical education and background of entering students
- Possible ways to use faculty and student time more efficiently

The conference was instigated by the College of Medicine's curriculum committee.

NU Receives Technical Aid

The University of Nebraska is one of four universities to receive a technical grant-in-aid and one of 12 to receive a technical fellowship from the Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Company.

According to the company's president, H. P. Bucetow, the funds were granted to assist students in universities with outstanding technical programs.

The four universities receiving technical grants-in-aid will share $18,000 to be used in the engineering, physics or chemistry departments for items such as guest lectures and equipment.

The $51,000 to be shared by the 12 schools receiving technical fellowships is to be used to assist graduate students in the fields of chemistry, chemical engineering or physics.

The scholarships will be administered by the University.

Open Invitation To Art and Air

For all students needing fresh air, sunshine, and a chance to use their artistic abilities, a Sketching and Painting session is planned for June 27 at 3 p.m.

The group will meet at the S Street entrance of the Nebraska Union and will then walk to the area between the Mueller Tower and the Coliseum. Anyone unable to be with the group at 3 p.m. may go to this area where all will be sketching and join them anytime between 3 and 5 p.m. Charcoal, paper, and other supplies will be available at no charge. Don't forget to wear casual clothing as you are now out-door-painters. Amateur or expert, everyone is welcome.

University where she is studying for a doctor's degree.

David Novak, actor-playwright, has seen much off-Broadway stage action since his graduation from the University of Wisconsin. His children's musical play The Tiniest Town in Mexico has just concluded a successful engagement.

Under Milk Wood, the hilarious account of one spring day in a small fishing village on the coast of Wales, was written by Dylan Thomas just before his death in 1953.

The play, part of the June Fine Arts Month, is free to the public.

Law Students Attend Project

Thirty to forty prospective members of the Nebraska Bar Association on the project.

Harold Rock, Omaha attorney, and Jerrold Strasheim, Lincoln attorney are co-chairmen of the "Bridge-the-Gap" committee of the State Bar section of the Nebraska Bar Association.

Designed to "bridge-the-gap" between law school and practice, the institute will be held at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education.

Dean David Dow of the Nebraska Law College and Dean James Doyle of Creighton Law School are co-sponsors, working with the State Junior Bar section of the Nebraska Bar Association.

Attorneys from Omaha and Lincoln will discuss 10 different areas of the legal profession: court mechanics, criminal law, ethics and fees, business organizations, divorce, real property, collections, negligence, workmen's compensation, probate administration, and swearing-in ceremonies.