Husker Team Places Third

Out of 19 schools competing in the 1962 college swine judging contest just concluded at the national barrow show in Austin, Minn., the University of Nebraska finished third behind Michigan State and the University of Missouri.

Individual ranking of Nebraska contestants:

- Robert Weber of Dorchester, fourth; Don Meiergerd of West Point, tenth; Bruce Jameson of Weeping Water, 14th; Roger Wilshusen of Schuyler, 17th; Henry Wickes of Wauneta, 30th.

Koehl Addresses YMCA Directors

Young Men's Christian Association's secretary and director of five states met this week at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education for the West-Central Conference.

Activities have included sectional meetings on adult programs, youth and general secretaries and physical directors.

Dr. Robert Koehl, University history professor, addressed the assembly on "Education in National and International Affairs."

Tea Honors New Housemothers

Fifteen new campus housemothers will be honored at a tea Sunday sponsored by Interfraternity Council (IFC) and Panhellenic from 2-4 p.m.

The housemothers being honored are Mrs. Mildred Kleinemeier, Farmhouse;

Mrs. Ruth Davison, Kappa Sigma; Mrs. Berl Gammel, Phi Gamma Delta; Mrs. Dorothy Norman, Alpha Chi Omega; Mrs. Florence Jansen, Delta Delta Delta; Mrs. Phillip Yoe, Gamma Phi Beta; Mrs. Evelyn Cameron, Kappa Alpha Theta.

Guests at the tea will include fraternity and sorority presidents, social chairmen, and housemothers; representatives from the Chancellor's office and the Division of Student Affairs; IFC Board of Control, Panhellenic Advisory Board, officers of independent organizations, and the advisory boards of the houses with new housemothers.

Medical Courses Begin in Omaha

The University's College of Medicine in Omaha has announced that they will sponsor ten courses in continuing medical education.
