

Where Lies The Center?

It is very difficult, in fact, it is well nigh impossible, to inculcate in the average human being a sense of responsibility to the common good.

History has many lessons to teach us in this regard, but some of us do not wish to learn. We persist in refusing to understand that one individual make up a nation.

constantly building on the students to look from themselves and give of themselves to others. The result has been a gradual increase of interest among students in just these areas.

Mauldin © 1962 St. Louis Post-Dispatch

notes in protest Why does the Union charge the same price for a grilled cheese sandwich as a hamburger? Why is a peanut butter sandwich the same price as both of them?

Attention Wives! All wives of married students are invited to attend the first "Games" meeting tonight at 7:30 p.m.

WOMEN . . .

Are They Weaker?

The weaker sex? Let's see — they die at 68 — we die at 63 — they have twice as many minor illnesses — but hardly any ulcers — about the same number are insane — but we beat 'em 200 per cent on suicides.

more — has greater word turnover — she's a better reader — she has more education — but she lets us believe we're smarter.

Kugel

Beginning with Inside Intramurals, continuing with Backpack Bucks — now this! It's the same old stuff but a new column.

foes South Dakota and Michigan (quite a contrast here). This early season experience could prove extremely beneficial in the latter stages of the season.

Optimism is always high before the season starts but this corner is of the opinion that this year will be something for Scarlet fans to remember.

Pointing and Viewing

By Roger L. Wait First a bow to tradition: a statement of purpose. As this column's title implies, the writer's purpose during the semester's course will be to discuss public issues and express opinion on them.

Enough said? On the national scene, President Kennedy, so far has not acted in his customary fine turn of a phrase, urged Americans inaugural address:

Outside of the hoped-for Cornhusker victory over South Dakota, this Saturday marks the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation by President Abraham Lincoln.

Great words, but they stirred up a mighty fuss in the war-saddled North as to whether Lincoln had acted within the scope of his constitutional powers as commander-in-chief.

About Letters The Daily Nebraskan invites readers to use it for expressions of opinion on current topics regardless of viewpoint.

On Campus with Max Sholman (Author of "I Was a Teen-age Dwarf", "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis", etc.)

ANOTHER YEAR, ANOTHER DOLLAR With today's entry I begin my ninth year of writing columns in your school newspaper for the makers of Marlboro Cigarettes.

It's the same with me and Marlboro Cigarettes. I think Marlboro's flavor represents the pinnacle of the tobaccoist's art. I think Marlboro's filter represents the pinnacle of the filter-maker's art.