

Huskers Warm Up With Crusher

Host Michigan's Debut To Be First Real Test for Nebraska; Devaney's First Game Successful as Whole Squad Sees Action

By RICK AKIN

"Please Mr. Burns, I don't want to go!" sang the South Dakota players to Coach Bob Burns before departing from Vermillion, S.D., to take on a Nebraska crew that trotted them, 53-0, Saturday afternoon in Memorial Stadium.

Twenty-seven thousand fans watched the Huskers warm up for Michigan in a methodical manner to make Coach Bob Devaney's debut in Huskerland a successful one.

Michigan will host the Huskers next weekend in its first game of the season.

Nebraska began to roll the first time it got the ball but was stymied on the South Dakota 37-yard line. After the Coyotes used up a set of downs the Huskers marched right back for the first touchdown of the '62 campaign.

Stuewe Helps Drive

Dennis Stuewe, senior from Hamburg, Minn., carried the ball 15 yards in two carries to put the ball on the Nebraska 37, and Warren Powers, 193-pound fullback, slammed for five.

Devaney then moved in the alternate unit which marched 53 yards for the score. Willie Ross started things off with an 18-yard end run.

Larry Tomlinson, left end from O'Neill, ended the drive by taking a John Fairman pass on the 5-yard line and dashing into the end zone with 3:20 left in the first quarter.

Not Much Done

"We didn't do much the first quarter", commented Devaney after the game. "In fact, we were pretty disgusted with the running game in the first quarter."

In the second quarter Nebraska ground out another touchdown, starting from the South Dakota 48-yard line after a peculiar play.

The Coyotes, deep in their own territory punted on third down. But the punt was blocked by Larry Donovan, senior left end from Scottsbluff and South Dakota recovered. The Coyotes then punted to their own 48.

Claridge Scores

The second drive went 32 yards in seven plays before Dennis Claridge faked a pass and ran 16 yards for the score, making the score 12-0 with 8:35 left in the half.

The extra point attempt was not good.

After two unsuccessful attempts by South Dakota and one by Nebraska to get a drive going, the Huskers once again moved down the field for their third touchdown.

Doug Tucker, soph quarterback, ran around left end before Dave Theisen threw a pass to Kent McCloughan for a 14-yard gain, putting the ball on the South Dakota 19.

McCloughan set up the score with a 17-yard scamper to the two.

McNulty Scores

Joe McNulty, soph fullback, slammed over the right side of the line from the two with 1:20 left in the half.

Jim Baffico's extra point attempt was good, making the score 19-0.

Nebraska completely dominated the first half statistics racking up 16 first downs to South Dakota's none, 244 yards to South Dakota's 32.

NU Passes Successfully

In passing the Huskers gained 85 yards, completing eight of 14 attempts. South Dakota completed two out of three for seven yards.

In rushing Nebraska ran up 159 yards and South Dakota managed only 25. The Coyotes ran only 11 rushing plays the first half.

On the second play of the second half the Cornhuskers scored once again. Theisen intercepted a Dick Walsh pass and ran to paydirt from the South Dakota 27-yard line with 13:35 left in the third quarter. Baffico's kick was no good leaving the Huskers way out in front, 25-0.

Theisen Improved

"Theisen has turned into a real good defensive back and we hope he can stay healthy," said Devaney after the game.

McCloughan scored the next time the Huskers got their hands on the ball after Theisen returned a South Dakota punt 16 yards to the Coyote 27.

From the 20-yard line McCloughan took a pitchout from Claridge and sprinted down the east sideline into the end zone. Baffico's kick was good, raising the tally to 32-0.

Huskers Take Ball

South Dakota once again

had trouble getting the ball on the Nebraska side of the field, and Nebraska took over on the South Dakota 43.

And once again the Huskers marched to a score. In eight plays the Cornhuskers marched down to the South Dakota 14-yard line before Fairman with a tackler hanging on to his arm, rifled a pass to John Vujevich, sophomore left half from Clairton, Penn., who was standing all alone in the end zone.

Baffico toed another conversion and Nebraska led, 39-0, with about two minutes left in the third quarter.

Nebraska finished out the scoring the next two times it was in possession.

Paschall Leads Drive

On the first of the two drives the Huskers started on their own 47-yard line. McNulty and Willie Paschall from San Antonio, Tex., led the drive.

McNulty slammed his way through the line three times for 21 yards and Paschall whizzed around left end for 23 yards, putting the ball eight yards from paydirt.

Tucker finished the drive with a one-yard plunge, and Fairman completed the conversion with 12:50 left in the game. The Huskers led, 46-0.

"Paschall Did Well"

"Paschall did real well at times and can be a good football player, although he has a little to learn," said Devaney on Willie's game performance.

Tucker engineered the final drive with some fine passing.

He passed to Curtis Bryan, sophomore right end, for 29 yards, and to Noel Martin, seeing his first action in two years, for 14 yards.

Martin capped the drive with a one-yard plunge. Fairman made good once again on his extra point attempt, closing the scoring at 53-0.

Scott Only Threat

Dick Scott, junior left halfback who tips the scales at 151 pounds provided about the only offensive threat for the Coyotes. He piled up 73 yards in 16 carries.

Jim Hoge was carried off on a stretcher with about six minutes left in the third quarter with a slight concussion. Trainer George Sullivan said that he thought that Hoge would be ready for the Michigan game, and reports from the Student Health Center indicated his condition as being satisfactory yesterday.
