

Things Just Didn't Go the Huskers' Way

By RICK AKIN
Sports Editor

According to the "plan" Nebraska's football team was supposed to take the field, win the toss of the coin, hold Missouri down in the first half, have a gala halftime ceremony and then the Huskers were supposed to come back and crush the Tigers.

But none of these things happened. There wasn't even a card section Saturday for the 38,000 fans who turned out for Homecoming in chilly weather to see Missouri dominate a defensive game and win, 16-7.

Next week the Huskers travel to Lawrence for a game with Kansas which will be a test to see if the Cornhuskers can bounce back after Saturday's defeat.

Nebraska turned the tables on everybody by playing its best defensive game of the season, but couldn't get a sizeable margin going to push over more than seven points.

Husker Downfall
The downfall of the Cornhuskers was what they did with the ball when they had it.

The NU passing game which had been so strong in the early part of the season, gained only seven yards for the Huskers, who needed a strong aerial attack to balance against the tough Tiger defense.

But three interceptions of Dennis Claridge passes, three fumbles, which set up all the passes abruptly stopped Husker drives.

MU Shows Poise
The Missouri team showed all the poise of a championship team in the victory which was even bigger for the Bengals in the statistics column.

Missouri's defense took the spotlight with the massive Tiger forward continually stopping Husker runners with little or no gain.

The Missouri secondary was brilliant in covering NU receivers. Many times the Huskers had their hands on the ball of Husker passes, but the jarring pursuit of Bengal defenders forced the ball out of the hands of the Huskers.

Even the lone Husker touchdown didn't come from an offensive play.

Martin Intercepts
Johnny Roland, Missouri's star halfback who gained 95 yards in 14 carries for the Tigers, threw his only pass of the afternoon into the arms of Husker defender Noel Martin.

Martin grabbed the ball on the 12-yard line and tightened his way down the East sideline behind five blockers to score Nebraska's only touchdown of the afternoon.

John Faiman's extra point which tied the game, 7-7, closed out all the NU scoring after Martin's 88-yard run with five minutes left in the second quarter.

Theisen Fumbles
One of the fumbles (Dave Theisen's fumble of a punt on the Husker's own 26-yard line) set up a Missouri score when the Huskers were in striking distance with the Tigers in the lead, 10-7, with about three minutes left in the third quarter.

Missouri ground out the yardage in just six plays with Jim Johnson, MU starting quarterback, plunging the final yard with 14:26 left in the final quarter.

Warren Powers blocked the attempted extra point, but Tigers had a commanding lead, 16-7.

NU Drive Fails
Nebraska look like it was going to march right down the field and score after it gained 20 yards in two plays, including a 13-yard slam by Bill (Thunder) Thornton, who saw his first action in three weeks.

But on the third play Conrad Hatcher, Missouri's All-Big Eight end, swiped a Claridge pass to end the threat.

Minutes later, the Huskers held the ball for eight plays but once again a Claridge pass went into the arms of Andy Russell, Tiger senior fullback, to stop the final serious drive.

Tiger FG
A Missouri field goal broke the tie in the second half.

After a Tiger punt fell into the end zone, Claridge fumbled on the first play from scrimmage to set up the Bengal field goal.

Nebraska's defense dug in and pushed the Tigers back to the NU 28-yard line where Bill Leistritz split the uprights for three points with 8:12 left in the third quarter.

Attempt Fails
Leistritz also tried a field goal in the first quarter, the first time the Tigers had the ball, but his attempt was no good.

Missouri opened the scoring late in the first quarter when Claridge fumbled on the Tiger 46.

After an incomplete pass, Roland raced around right end but was tripped up from behind by speedy Kent McCloughan.

The ball fell out of Roland's arms when McCloughan hit him, but the ball rolled into the end zone and out of bounds to give the Bengals the initial score.

Delts Capture All-University Championship

By AL SPORE

Delta Tau Delta became the new All-University champions last Friday night by downing Dental College, All-Independent winners, 33-13.

The Delts had gone into the finals as All-Fraternity champions and had defeated Betsy the All-Burr-Selleck tillists, 26-18, before meeting the Delts.

Delts had won previous tourney games over Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Kappa Psi and Delta Sigma Pi, to take the All-Fraternity crown.

The Delts had won their position in the play-offs by edging Air Force ROTC.

The Delts took an early lead in the ball game after forcing the Delts to kick. A Joe McWilliams-to-Clint Watkins-to-Gary Fleishman and back to Watkins pass clicked for the initial score.

The PAT attempt failed and the Delts led 6-0.

The Delts quickly retaliated with a Jerry McCool to Dick Seeburg to Jim Killinger pass play to tie the contest 6-6. The Dent extra-point attempt also failed.

The second quarter saw the Delts taking command of the contest, scoring after a long run by All-University quarterback McWilliams set up the Dent scoring spurge.

McWilliams Standout
McWilliams passed to Gary Tunison who flipped to Fleishman for the score and the Delts were in the lead to stay. McWilliams tossed to standout Dent center Watkins for the extra point, to give the Delts a 13-6 first half edge.

The Delts found paydirt early in the third quarter when a fourth down pass from McWilliams-to-Mark LaNoue-to-Tom Nystrom was good for the third Dent score.

The extra point was good to give the Delts a 20-6 lead when a McWilliams-to-Tunison to LaNoue to Bob Moore pass was good for the count.

Nystrom Intercepts
Nystrom, outstanding defensive back in the Delts surge for the crown, intercepted a Dent pass to put the Delts in scoring position again early in the fourth quarter.

Another fourth down attempt proved good for the Delts fourth score. A McWilliams to LaNoue to Lynn Hasselbach pass connected for the Dent score.

The extra point effort of a McWilliams-to-Watkins pass was good to give the Delts the widest point spread of the contest 27-6.

The Delts sole bright spot in the second half came in the last frame when a long run by Killinger set up the second Dent score. Seburg then crossed the goal from the two. Dick Dobin ran the Dent PAT in to end the Dent scoring at 13.

The Delts closed out the scoring late in the fourth quarter when a long run by Roxie Robinson before passing to Hasselbach was good for the fifth and final Dent score.

The extra point attempt failed and the contest ended 33-13.

Coach Says

Husker coach, Bob Devaney, made one point clear after Saturday's defeat, "We're not giving up on these kids—they've done a good job for us and we know they'll come back and play good football."

The Husker coach continued, "I believe this is the kind of team that feels bad about losing, but I'd be very disappointed if they didn't bounce back. We'll find out this week, but I have confidence they'll bounce back okay," Devaney concluded.

Devine Relieved

Coach Dan Devine of Missouri's victorious football team expressed a relieved air more than that of happiness in post game interviews Saturday.

Devine cited his squad as the most surprising team he'd had.

"Nebraska did an excellent job of defending us," he commented. "If their receivers could have caught some of those passes that hit them in the hands, it would have kept their drives going," he continued.

The Tiger mentor described NU as "very well coached, hard hitting and good sports, who play good hard football."

The Tiger coach had praise for Husker halfback Willie Ross and lineman Bob Brown. "I'd put Oklahoma in the driver's seat," commented Devine when asked about the Big Eight. "The Sooners catch Nebraska and Missouri at Norman and they've already beaten Kansas. We're not noted for winning at Norman," the Tiger coach concluded.

Outstanding sophomore halfback Johnny Roland of MU had praise for Nebraska's Lloyd Voss.

With Saturday's Big Eight Tilt Sooner Fans Should Clammer

By BOB KRALLE
Sports Staff Writer

After Saturday's Big Eight Conference football action, Oklahoma football fans should be starting a rush on the Sooner ticket office for ducats to the Nov. 17, game between the Sooners and Missouri.

The automotive industry would not think of copying old models, but the Sooners evidently have, as they ran like the pre-1959 Sooner models in running over the Colorado Buffaloes, 62-0.

Oklahoma scored its first touchdown even more quickly than Listen knocked out Patterson, needing only a minute and seven seconds to go 63 yards in four plays.

Deere Throws

Sooner quarterback Monte Deere threw touchdown passes of 32, 41 and 43 yards, and Joe Don Looney ran 84 yards for another touchdown to highlight the Okies' attack.

Missouri also remained unbeaten in conference play, defeating the Nebraska Cornhuskers, 36-7. The Tiger's win over the Huskers, plus the Sooner's win over Kansas two weeks ago, increases the importance of the Norman clash between the Tigers and the Sooners.

Gale Sayers made the headlines in the Kansas sports pages again this week, scoring three touchdowns and gaining 156 yards rushing, as the Kansas Jayhawks beat the Iowa State Wildcats, 38-0.

1-State Wins

Iowa State won the battle to lead the second division, defeating the Oklahoma State Cowboys, 34-17.

The Cyclone's Dave Hoppmann set a Big Eight Conference career rushing record of 2,370 yards, as he rushed for 144 yards against the Cowpokes.

Clendon Thomas of Oklahoma set the previous record in 1957 with a career total of 2,282 yards.

Hoppmann wasn't a bit selfish, however, as Tom Vaughn also went over century mark, gaining 141 yards.
