

COMSTOCK—moved to first unit

Rash of Injuries Hits Husker Camp Before KU Game

With the Cornhuskers still in the thick of the Big Eight race, a rash of injuries has hit their camp.

Nebraska goes into the game Saturday against Kansas at Lawrence with Dennis Claridge, John Faiman, Ron Michka and Bill (Thunder) Thornton listed as doubtful participants.

Faiman, a senior who was working with the first team because of Claridge's injury, broke a bone just above his ankle and is apparently out for the year. The mishap occurred last night in a scrimmage with the freshmen team.

Claridge Hurt

Claridge who has led the Husker offense all through the season, has a badly sprained ankle which he suffered with 26 seconds to go in last Saturday's game with Missouri. In Claridge's only punt of the game, he dropped the snapback and was hit by a pursuing Tiger just as Claridge got the punt away.

Warren Powers is listed on the starting unit at fullback with the injury of Thornton.

Thornton Injured

Thornton was the only Husker to show much of a rushing threat, but he re-injured his ankle in the process.

Powers, who started at left half last week, will alternate between fullback and left half.

Michka injured his wrist in last week's loss. Lyle Sittler, from Crete, has moved up to the starting unit.

Claridge, Michka and Thornton suited up for practice yesterday but were held out of contact drills.

Coach Bob Devaney and his staff figure Kansas to be a team similar to Missouri, but with a more effective offense.

Devaney gave some indication yesterday that he may install the single wing offense after the Huskers ran up only 148 yards last Saturday. Going into the MU clash, the Huskers had been averaging nearly 400 yards per game.

Comstock to First Unit
Bill Comstock has also moved to the starting unit at right end.

Kent McCloughan, sophomore from Broken Bow, has moved up to the first unit at right half on the basis of his fine defensive showing last weekend.

The mental attitude of the Huskers after the MU loss is in question, but Coach Bob Devaney has confidence that "the boys will fight back hard."

After viewing the films Devaney praised Bob Brown, 250-pound guard from Cleveland, O., John Kirby of David City, and Dwain Carlson, co-captain from Fullerton.

NU Offense Leads Big 8 Statistics

Despite Nebraska's offensive showing of a mere 148 yards against the tough line of Missouri last Saturday the Huskers still maintain the number one total offensive spot in the Big Eight.

NU had been averaging almost 400 yards per game until meeting the Tigers and have a total yardage of 2,546 closely followed by Nebraska's next opponent, Kansas, with 2,472.

Only One Crucial Game Scheduled In This Week's Big Eight Clashes

By BOB KRALL
Sports Staff Writer

The Nebraska Cornhuskers for the second consecutive week are involved in the Big Eight Conference's most crucial contest, when the Scarlet and Cream play the Kansas Jayhawkers at Lawrence Saturday.

The loser of the Husker-Jayhawk encounter will be eliminated from title contention. As if a possible Orange Bowl bid were not enough, the game will involve some added incentives — Kansas' Homecoming and Nebraska' facing of an ex-coach, and an ex-Nebraska prep star, Bill Jennings and Gale Sayers, respectively.

The two teams still undefeated in Big Eight play, Oklahoma and Missouri, will be playing second division teams.

Oklahoma visits Ames to play the Iowa State Cyclones. The Cyclones have the conference's leading scorer, Dave Hoppmann, but the Sooners have the numbers and have not been too particular as to who they send into the end zone.

The Missouri Tigers will play the Colorado Buffaloes in Columbia. The Tigers could not have scheduled a much better opponent the week before they travel to Oklahoma, as the Buffs lost last week to the Sooners, 62-0.

A Big Eight team will be playing a non-conference foe for the first time in four weeks.

The Oklahoma State Cowboys will ride east to play Army at West Point, N.Y.

The Cadets have a 6-1 record this season under new coach Paul Dietzel. Their record includes a 9-6 win over the Nittany Lions of Penn State.

Dietzel has replaced the lonely end with the Chinese Bandits, and Army has already won as many games as they did last year.

The Kansas State Wildcats will try to break the monotony of its losing streak by playing a night game in Tucson against the Wildcats of the University of Arizona.

Arizona is not enjoying the success that they enjoyed last year when they were 8-1-1. This season they have won only two and lost five.

HORN-RIMMED BOOKSTACKER

CAMPUS TYPE III

The Bookstacker serves the cause of classical literature in various ways. Perhaps the least of these is in keeping the rows of books properly aligned and the jackets free of dust.

Her most important contribution is in improving the environment for study, enhancing the halls of learning with her own classical form. Many a college man has discovered a previously unmet craving for knowledge simply because he received his copy of Homer from the hand of a deep-breathing redhead who sighed, "I think Homer is the most!" Yes, it pays to take a good look at the classics now and then.

Among cigarettes, Pall Mall is a classic — famous length, fine tobacco . . . no flat "filtered-out" flavor, no dry "smoked-out" taste. Try Pall Mall and see!
