

Burden of Injuries Lessens Somewhat

The burden of injuries which hit the Huskers is lessening somewhat before the important encounter with Kansas Saturday.

Dennis Claridge, NU's star quarterback, who sprained an ankle last weekend, is a long way down the road of recovery as he was walking spryly before practice yesterday.

Claridge is wearing rubber soled shoes instead of football cleats to lessen the chance of reinjury.

Without Claridge the Huskers are in serious quarterback problems with John Faiman out for the season. Doug Tucker has moved up to the alternate unit but has little experience on offense.

Thornton a Question

Bill (Thunder) Thornton's condition is still somewhat up in the air, but Coach Bob Devaney indicated, "If Bill is ready to go, we will use him in spots."

Ron Michka, 200-pound starting center, will apparently be ready to go Saturday after a bout with his wrist.

The loss of Faiman constituted another problem — the NU kicking game. Devaney indicated that Rudy Johnson or Bob Brown will probably handle the kickoffs with Johnson and Dave Theisen getting the nod on extra point attempts.

From the Stick

By RICK AKIN
Sports Editor

Finally! Someone has come up with an idea to replace everyone's topic of conversation—Huskie Husker.

The Stick staunchly stands behind the idea of "The Jolly Red Giant" initiated by Larry Myers in yesterday's Daily Nebraskan.

Myers is the first one I have heard of that has done anything about the hated gorilla of the NU plains.

A few more ideas put forth in a contest wouldn't be such a bad idea. If the students really wanted to get rid of Huskie, baby, a little action should be shown instead of a lot of words.

Frustrating weekend for Cornhuskerland last weekend in losing to Missouri. Frustrating weekend for predictions also.

Tough year for Ohio State—after losing three already after being picked to lead the nation this year.

How about something like that happening to Missouri or Oklahoma!

I certainly do wish I didn't have to pick this week's crucial encounter as the Huskers travel to Kansas.

Whoever loses this one might as well forget a trip to the Orange Bowl.

The Jayhawks were pretty inconsistent at the beginning of the season, but Gale Sayers is beginning to find his way to end zone with regularity.

Missouri ruined the Huskers last weekend, but the defense made a game out of it.

The Huskers did a good job against Johnny Roland, but won't be as fortunate against Sayers. Kansas 32, NEBRASKA 26.

Oklahoma meets Iowa State in Ames after the Sooners crushed Colorado last weekend. Another big day for the Sooners. OKLAHOMA.

Missouri takes a vacation this week before facing Oklahoma the following weekend. Colorado will offer the competition for the tough Tigers. Missouri will breeze, but not 62-0. MISSOURI.

Oklahoma State travels to West Point to clash with Army, which is a coming national power. ARMY with little sweat.

In the Big Ten

MICHIGAN STATE will nip Purdue in one of the top games in the country. OHIO STATE will rip Indiana (tough year for the Buckeyes). NORTHWESTERN will beat Wisconsin in a classic. MINNESOTA over Iowa with a tussle. MICHIGAN will top Illinois.

Other Games

PENN STATE over West Virginia, NAVY over Syracuse, ALABAMA over Miami, AUBURN over Mississippi St., MARYLAND over Duke, LSU over TCU, MISSISSIPPI over Chattanooga, ARKANSAS over Rice, TEXAS over Baylor, OREGON over Washington St.

NOEL MARTIN—'Star'

Noel Martin Is New Star For Week

By AL SPORE
Staff Sports Writer

Noel Martin, 5-11, 205-pound NU fullback, has been selected as the Nebraskan's 'Star of the Week' for his fine defensive action against Missouri last weekend.

The Husker senior supplied the one bright spot for the Nebraska fans when he snared a Missouri pass and returned it 88 yards for the sole Husker score.

In addition to this heads-up interception, Martin turned in one of the finest defensive performances of his career.

Some fans feel that a Husker defeat would mean the end of the road for the Scarlet but Martin holds a more optimistic view. "Sometimes it takes a defeat to help a good team to be better," he prophesized.

Eyeing the Big Eight battle Martin commented, "If we can win these last three—we could be the champs. I don't think there is a team in the Big Eight that won't be beat," he continued.

Martin stated looking back on the Missouri tilt, "They're (Missouri) a type of team that doesn't make mistakes, and they were on."

Commenting on the recent NU injuries Martin felt, "the loss of John Faiman could hurt, but that's the breaks of the game. We'll overlook that and play that much harder."

Martin came to Nebraska as a halfback after playing high school ball at Clay Center, Kansas. He was switched to fullback his sophomore year and laid out last year to give a knee operation a chance for full recovery.

Noel is married to ex-Husker coach Bill Jennings' daughter, Vicki. Jennings is now an assistant coach at Kansas. "This would be a feather in my hat to beat Kansas," stated Martin.

Martin described the new coaching staff as, "a real fine bunch of coaches. They helped me come back after this injury."

IN LIFE THIS WEEK

WHO SHOULD BE SAVED? LIFE

reports on a machine in a Seattle hospital that could save 2,000 doomed victims of kidney failure. But, because it is in an experimental stage, it can accommodate only ten patients in a two-year trial period. Who is to die and who is to be saved? LIFE reveals how the dreadful decision is made. MAN'S DESTINY. While others talk, the destiny of all of us waits upon Kennedy and Khrushchev. They're the men who are pulling the strings, LIFE says, and then goes on to outline the significance of events in Berlin, the India-China border, in the Congo, in Laos and Vietnam and other worldwide newsfronts. Also, LIFE comments on the historic letter that exposed Khrushchev's hand. TEEN-QUEEN. She's Miss Darla Banks of Dallas and she's now Miss Teenage America, winner over 79 contestants at the national finals. One look and you'll see why. U.S. NOVEL. It's the year of resurgence for the novel, LIFE says, as it profiles six famous novelists (including Nobel winner John Steinbeck.) LIFE GUIDE. What Broadway shows are taking to the road? What repertory groups are performing across the country? LIFE brings you an up-to-the-minute report. MOVIE MAKING. A special report on Italian film-flam; and in LIFE's regular movie section, a deadly deck of movie queens. ON THE COVER. U Thant and British Ambassador Dean, peacemakers in a difficult diplomatic spot. These days, it's especially important to keep up with LIFE.
