

Pass Defense Stressed As Huskers Work Outside

Nebraska's Gotham bound gridders had an opportunity to work on pass defense and offense yesterday as the Huskers split up practice time between indoors and outside.

The team fought the cold to work on pass defense in preparation to meet Miami and George Mira, All-American quarterback noted for his fine passing. The Huskers also worked on their own pass offense.

Indoors, the gridders concentrated on their running game and running defense, although the indoors prohibits the team from running full speed.

The NU coaches made one change in the Husker defensive secondary by indicating that Dennis Claridge, All Big Eight signal caller, may be used on defense as well as directing the Scarlet's offensive attack.

Coach Bob Devaney hopes to get outside again today to work on punt returns in their final Lincoln practice.

The team and coaches will board a DC-7 Friday morning at 8:00 a.m. and arrive at Idlewild airport in New York at approximately 12:30 Eastern Standard Time. The Huskers will then take a bus to Yankee Stadium where they will hold a final short work-out.

The game is set for 11:00 a.m. EST, unless changed, so the team will be up at 6:30 a.m. for breakfast Saturday and leave from the Manhattan hotel to arrive at Yankee Stadium by 10:00 a.m.

The team will remain in New York Saturday and Sunday and return to Lincoln Monday. They will leave New York at about 12:15 EST and are due in Lincoln 2:45 Central Standard Time.

Behlens Will Meet AAU Club Tonight

Columbus — Willy Fitzpatrick and Al Maxey, former basketball stars for the University of Nebraska, will be leading the charge in an attempted upset of the Phillips 66's team here tonight at the high school gym beginning at 8:00 p.m.

Fitzpatrick and Maxey will be joined by other ex-college stalwarts as their Stars of Behlen challenge last season's AAU tournament champions. Probable other starters will be Lyle Nannen and Jim Yates, who both played for Nebraska, and Gene Veloff of Doane.

The Phillips team last year sported a 45-8 record and won the national championship the 10th time in 32 attempts. Their history record is 1,303 wins against only 225 defeats. Under current coach Bud Browning the 66's have a 408-90 record. Stars of Behlen last year earned a 17-3 season record. This will be the curtain raiser for both teams this season.

Completing the roster for the Stars of Behlen will be Fran Wraga of Chadron State, Bob Buettgenbach and Mike Roach of Peru, Bob Swanhorn of Augustana, Indiana, Preston Love formerly of Northwestern University, and Larry Fuerst of Midland.

McDermott Busy With Two Sports

Don McDermott, who will be making the trip with the Husker football team to New York for the Gotham Bowl has been a busy athlete the last week.

McDermott who wrestles in the 191 pound class has been practicing both football and wrestling. Don, sometimes called "Plug", is out for football from 3-4 p.m. each day then goes into wrestling togs from 4-6 p.m.

Wrestling Coach Bob Mancuso is quite high on McDermott and hopes he will be available for the Iowa State meet Dec. 19. McDermott, a heavyweight, won his first match against Kansas State last weekend. The versatile athlete hails from Harlan, Ia.

Gymnasts To Kansas Meet

The University of Nebraska gymnastics team opens its 1962-63 season by traveling to Hays, Kan., to compete in a triangular against Kansas University and Fort Hays College Saturday.

NU Gymnast Coach Jake Geier has 4 lettermen back from last year's team which won 8 and lost two and won the All-College Championships. Hopes for equaling that mark appear dim, however, this year, Geier indicated.

Making the trip to Kansas will be: Junior letterman Dennis Albert—all-around performer; sophomore Francis Albert—all-around; sophomore Jim Howard—all-around; sophomore Lawrence Clark—free exercise and tumbling; senior letterman Gene Hart—sidehorse; junior letterman Tom Siltanen—still rings; junior Jerry Harvey—free exercise and tumbling; and senior Capt. (two-year letterman) Dick McCoy—sidehorse, free exercise and tumbling.

IVAN GRUPE—Star of the week.

Ivan Grupe Selected 'Star' for SCI Game

By Al Spore Sports Staff Writer
Ivan Grupe, 6-4 Husker cager who poured in 17 points in the final period against

State Teachers of Iowa (STT) to give NU a 3-1 season mark last Monday night, is The Nebraskan's 'Star of the Week.' 'Grupe really came out that second half and started fighting,' remarked coach Jerry Bush after the game.

'I told him at halftime that he was one of the best rebounders in the Big Eight and that I wanted him to show that he was,' Bush continued, 'and by golly he did just that.'

Grupe, whether inspired by coach Bush or with other motivations, led the Husker rally in the second half along with Darrel Petsch, Charlie Jones and surprising sophomore Larry Borschlegl to give the Scarlet a convincing 78-59 win.

'We seemed to click in the second half,' commented the 'Star,' 'STI had good shooters and they weren't afraid to shoot.' Grupe continued. The Husker center had praise for Borschlegl who 'did a good job.'

Winter Sportsmen In Action Saturday

By Bob Krall Sports Staff Writer

A mid-winter doubleheader will feature the frigid weather sports scene this weekend on the Nebraska campus.

The basketball team will play Denver University at 8:05 Saturday night in the opener of the twin bill. The Husker wrestlers will seek their first dual meet win in the nightcap when they host the Colorado School of Mines in the NU Coliseum immediately following the basketball game.

In other action involving winter sports teams, the Husker varsity swim team will meet the freshmen at 4:00 day night against Denver, a team with an 0-4 record for the season.

Coach Jerry Bush was pleased with the play of sophomore Larry Borschlegl, junior Bill Vincent and senior Ivan Grupe in the 78-59 victory over State College of Iowa Monday.

Borschlegl, a 5-10 guard from Geneva, saw his first varsity action Monday and played so well in the second half that Bush has rewarded him with a starting assignment against Denver.

Both Vincent and Grupe were mentioned by Bush for their rebounding efforts against the Iowans. Vincent led the rebounders with 19.

Huskies Petsch and Jones are tied for the team scoring lead with 62 points apiece after four games. Grupe is third with 52 and Vincent has 49.

In the Saturday night late show, Coach Bob Mancuso's Husker wrestlers will try for a repeat of last year's win over the Colorado School of Mines. Mancuso feels that the Colorado team is similar to the one that the Huskers defeated last year, 16-14.

Two NU grapplers are undefeated this season. Steve Walenz, who competes in the 123-pound class, is unbeaten this year, and senior Mike Nissen, a 130-pounder, has not been defeated in his three years of varsity dual competition.

Mancuso has nominated the following lineup for this Saturday's meet: 123 — Walenz, 130 — Nissen, 137 — Chuck Martin or Dick Vansickle, 147 — Charley Clatterback, 157 — Jim Wiest or Bruce O'Callaghan, 167 — Mike Tillotson, 177 — Kenny Fox, and Heavyweight — Bob Zartner.

There will be no 191-pound match, as Don McDermott, who normally wrestles in this class, will be with the football squad in New York City for the Gotham Bowl game.

The Huskers lost their opener last week to Kansas State, 21-15. Walenz, Nissen, Tillotson and McDermott won matches for Nebraska.
