

Rally Propels NU Past Miami

Grupe Leads Barrage

By RICK AKIN

Jim Hoge must be tired of Miami.

The Husker gridders arrived back from the Gotham Bowl where the Huskers played Miami (Fla.) in time to suit up with Jerry Bush's cagers to play Miami (O.) last Monday at the Coliseum.

Hoge didn't see action but his mates played their finest game of the season at home to nip the Redskins, 72-69.

It was a see-saw battle all through the first half as the teams hit the dressing room tied, 33-33, and nobody took a definite advantage until the last ten minutes of the contest.

Second Half Splurge

But with 7:48 left in the game and the scoreboard reading, 51-50, and the Huskers in the lead, Bill Vincent, NU's sharpshooting center, hit a hook shot and the Huskers were on their way to a ten-point splurge which sewed up the game for Nebraska's fourth win in six starts.

Ivan Grupe, a second half deadeye, dropped in two long jump shots and a fast break layup to lead the ten-point rally as Daryl Petsch added a set shot.

Miami had some tricks up its sleeves, however, as the Huskers had to fight through a full court press as the victory was not insured until the final gun.

Miami Rally

Led by little Skip Snow, Miami had a too late rally even though Snow scored five points in the last minute of play.

The score was tied 11 times during the first half after the Redskins jumped out to a six-point lead in the opening moments.

In the late stages of the first half the Huskers opened up a four-point lead as the NU rebounders began to dominate the boards.

Chief Leads First Half

Once again Vincent led the first half scoring with 16 points on six fielders and four free throws.

And once again the Huskers had four men in double figures. Grupe led all scorers with 24 followed by Vincent's 18, Petsch's 11 and Larry Bornschlegl's 11.

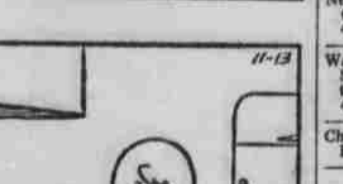

The Redskins had three men in double figures led by Charlie Dinkin's 19 ahead of Snow's 18 and Charley Coles' 11.

Southern California is the Huskers next opposition as the Trojans invade next Friday and Saturday.

During the holidays the Big Eight Tournament will be the cagers' prime concern.

Expense Paid Journey For Union Tournaments Scheduled for Teams

Expense paid trips to the University of Kansas await the University's best in bowling, billiards, table tennis, and chess.

Each year the Association of College Unions sponsors intercollegiate competition between student unions throughout the country. Teams are selected to represent each union in a regional tournament, with the regional winners then competing in an international tournament, with all expenses paid.

The Nebraska Union will compete with teams from Iowa, Kansas, and Missouri.

The Nebraska Union games area will conduct campus tournaments Jan. 7-18, to select Nebraska's representatives to the regional tournaments at the Kansas Union February 1-16, 1963.

Five member men's and women's bowling teams will be selected by a roll-off at the Nebraska Union Lanes. The top five men in the regional will then travel to Buffalo, N.Y. to compete in a special college division of the American Bowling Congress Tournament, April 7-8, 1963.

The two top women in each region will go to Memphis, Tenn., to compete as a special part of the Women's International Bowling Congress tournament April 21 and 22, 1963.

One participant in each of three divisions will comprise the Husker billiard delegation.

Propriety

Back in 1863, a Boston etiquette pamphlet warned book collectors:

"The perfect hostess will see to it that the works of male and female authors are properly separated on her bookshelves. Their proximity unless they happen to be married should not be tolerated."
