

"GOOD NIGHT, SLEEPYHEADS... SAY YOUR PRAYERS!"

THINK SAFE...

See You In '63

A STUDENT sitting in class Thursday looking at the Nebraskan's full page picture on traffic safety asked: "What good does a safety campaign do when students are forced by the University to rush and speed in order to get home in time for Christmas?"

This is a valid question and can be answered, in one respect, that our safety campaign is worthwhile because it just might save a life — your life. However, the student was right in his criticism of the University calendar committee for approving such a late beginning for Christmas vacation. Most of the other schools dismiss classes on Wednesday, thus insuring plenty of travel time for students and staff.

EVEN IF travel time is short students and staff must remember all that they have heard, read and seen this week concerning traffic safety. It may mean that some of us won't be home by Christmas — but at least we will get home.

Drive and walk safely this vacation, have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, and we will see you in '63.

Problem Of The Week

By Pi Mu Epsilon

QUESTION: What remainders result when the 100th power of an integer is divided by 125?

(Send your solution to 210 Burnett Hall. The answer will appear next week along with another problem.)

SOLUTION: The question last week asked, "What is the least number of links from a chain with 2,000 links that must be disengaged from the parts of the chain thus formed?" The solution is that only seven links need be disengaged from the chain. This leaves seven individual links and 8-sub-lengths with more than one link. The eight sub-lengths are of the following linkal magnitudes:

- 8
- 16
- 32
- 64
- 128
- 256
- 512
- 977

Holiday Letter

To the Student Body and Staff
This season of the year is traditionally a happy one. The expectation of sharing the holidays with our families and of vacation from classes adds a spirit of joy and good will to the University campus every year. I should like to add my best wishes for a happy holiday to all of the students and staff. I should also like to urge that holiday trips be safe trips. Drive carefully and have a happy vacation.

Sincerely,
Clifford M. Hardin
Chancellor

Holy Night

The choir sings with near-celestial sweetness, the candles burn with a bright, pure light, and the meaning of the birth of Christ comes into glorious reality.

For, in church, the story of the Night of Nights is told with a beauty that seems to deepen with the years. To miss hearing it again would be to miss one of the Yuletide season's greatest moments.

Yes — it is natural to think about going to church at Christmas. But what about a rainy October Sunday or a hot July one?

In Church, the inspiration is there all year round. The message is as vital in August as it is in December. Promise yourself now — this Christmas — to start going to church regularly.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a structure of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
