

Trackmen Win Meet

By JAN SACK
Nebraska's tracksters handled their first assignment with ease by walloping Wyoming and South Dakota in a triangular last Saturday. The Huskers racked up 95 points to 35 for Wyoming and 21 for South Dakota.

Nebraska won every event except the 440-yard dash in which they failed to place a man.

None of the Huskers were pushed hard in the contest. The best performance of the day was turned in by Mike Fleming in the 1000-yard run. The Baltimore senior spun the race in 2:16.0 just three-tenths of a second off the Stadium record.

Another stunning performance came in the 60-yard low hurdles with Nebraska taking the first three places. Ron Moore won in :06.3 with Ray Knaub and Fred Wilke nabbing second and third respectively. Moore was Nebraska's only double winner. He also won the 60-yard highs in :07.5.

One of the most exciting races of the day was the mile relay in which the Huskers did some fancy running. On the third lap it was up to sophomore Dick Strand to catch his man. Strand nearly caught up with the South Dakota runner thus giving teammate Bill Kenny the break he needed.

Kenny caught the South Dakota runner and sped ahead to ensure the Huskers a victory in this event. The clocking was 3:29.5. Steve Pfister led off for Nebraska and George O'Boyle ran the second leg.

Other winners:
Shot put — Roland Johnson, Nebraska, 48.5.
Broad jump — Rudy Johnson, Nebraska, 22-10 1/2.
High jump — Jack Crasor, Nebraska, 4-7 1/2.
Pole vault — Juris Jevtera, Nebraska, 12-6.
Mile run — Ray Stevens, Nebraska, 4:28.5.
60-yard dash — Ray Knuth, Nebraska, :06.3.
100-yard run — Bill Knorr, Nebraska, 1:13.5.
440-yard dash — Gene DeHaan, South Dakota, :51.8.
Two-mile run — Larry Toothaker, Nebraska, 9:45.4.
880-yard run — Gil Geba, Nebraska, 1:59.5.

Stevens . . . Miller

Huskers Lose Two

By MICK ROOD
Staff Sports Writer

Big Eight rivals Kansas State and Iowa State kept Nebraska's cagers in the conference cellar by defeating the Huskers, 72 to 60 and 83 to 69.

In the most recent contest, the Cyclones used a balanced attack to jump to an early 12 to 2 lead and were never headed. Four players hit double figures, led by improving center Rich Froistad who garnered 21 points. Vinnie Brewer and Marv Straw shared the load with 19 points each and Gary Kleven added 12 markers.

In the second half, Charlie Jones and Bill Vincent brought the Huskers within nine points, but the hosts retaliated with five straight buckets to put victory out of the winless invaders reach.

Transfer Jerry Spears from Ohio State contributed four points to the Husker cause before suffering a shoulder dislocation in the second half. Spears, who was expected to pep up Nebraska's mediocre offense, will probably be out the rest of the campaign with his injury.

Charlie Jones and Daryl Petsch mustered 18 and 17 points respectively as the Huskers were successful on only 35 per cent of their field goal attempts.

In the other previous game, Nebraska dropped a 72 to 60 verdict to Kansas State Saturday night in Manhattan.

The Nebraskians dominated the boards but not the scoreboard as flashy Willie Murrell quarterbacked the Kansans past the Huskers in the last stanza. Murrell finished with 17 points with support from ex-Hebron ace Al Piethman who managed 14.

Bill Vincent, Charlie Jones, and Dennie Puelz kept the

Sports Writers

Anyone who is interested in writing sports for the Daily Nebraskan please stop in sometime this week and see the Sports Editor. I would like to have some one who is interested in covering intramural sports and tennis. Please see me in the Daily Nebraskan office or leave a note on the Sports Editor's desk.

contest close in the first half, but Murrell and his mates outran the Scarlet and Cream in the second half.

Vincent paced the invaders with 17 points and Ivan Grube grabbed 12 rebounds to lead good play off the boards for Nebraska.

The twin loss left Nebraska at the bottom of the Big Eight standings with no wins and five defeats. Iowa State took sole possession of second place with a 6-2 record and Kansas State added Missouri to their win column and now sport a third place standing with no wins and five defeats. Iowa State took sole possession of second place with a 6-2 record and Kansas State added Missouri to their win column and now sport a third place standing with 4 wins and 2 defeats.

The Nebraska freshman team also tasted defeat, suffering a 77 to 66 setback at the hands of the Iowa State yearlings at Ames on Saturday. State's Dave Fleming led the hosts with 21 points to lead the other starters who all hit double figures. Husker frosh Coley Webb took individual honors, however, meshing 27 points that included 12 baskets.

WHAT'S NEW IN THE FEBRUARY ATLANTIC?

"How Not to Teach Teachers": The training of American teachers is "unwisely, slow-witted, bureaucratic . . . a failure," says James D. Koerner in this incisive, critical analysis.

ALSO

J. B. Priestly: Reminiscences about the author's service in World War I

"Lampedusa in Sicily": An Atlantic Extra by Archibald Colquhoun

Archibald MacLish: On hatred exhibited in racial conflicts

W. D. Snodgrass: A new poem

"The Indiana Dunes and Pressure Politics": William Peoples

The pursuit of excellence is the everyday job of the Atlantic's editors be it in fiction or fact, poetry or prose. In ever-increasing numbers, those in pursuit of academic excellence find in the Atlantic a challenging, entertaining and enlightening companion. Get your copy today.

Kansas State Swims Against Old Opponents

Kansas State swimmers appear to be much stronger this season than last. Last year the Wildcat tankers had to drop their schedule because of scholastic failings and lack of interest.

They were represented at the Big Eight meet in Ames by two men — a freestyler and a diver, of which neither placed.

This year enough interest has been shown to permit a schedule. To date they have entered the water against cross-state rivals Kansas University and Pittsburgh State College. They have also had a dual with Big Eight rival Colorado.

A brand-new PEANUTS book!

Happy, wistful, delirious, foster father to birds, imitator of dinosaurs — America's favorite pup is back as the conquering hero of SNOOPY, COME HOME by Charles M. Schulz (The warming gift for your Valentine!)

Only $1 at your college bookstore. Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc.

STOP

AT

UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE

for

YOUR NEW SEMESTER'S SUPPLIES

Two Convenient Locations

City Campus: Basement of Nebraska Union

Ag Campus: Basement of Food and Nutrition Building

UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE

"THE STUDENT'S BOOK STORE"

VISIT US DAILY 9:30 to 5:30
THURSDAY 10 A.M. to 9 P.M.

Miller & Paine

... Miller's Bridal Fashion Shows

In case you missed the Bridal Tea on February 6 at 4:30 p.m. in the Tea room, be sure to come to the Bridal Show on February 7 at 6:00 p.m. in the Tea Room.

MILLER'S TEA ROOM
FIFTH FLOOR