

Records Are Set As Track Squad Pounces on OSU

The Cowboys of Oklahoma State University came to Lincoln Saturday with too few horses, and the Pokes ate as much dust as a drover without a horse, while the Husker tracksters outscored their Big Eight rivals, 91 to 31.

The dual meet wasn't much of a duel, as the Huskers won 11 of 14 events, set five meet records and one indoor varsity record, and swept all three places in the 880 and the two-mile.

Victor Brooks, making his first NU appearance of the season, missed the indoor varsity record by four inches with a 24 1/2 effort in the broad jump. The old mark is 24 4/2 set by Don Grey in 1933.

Kent McCloughan showed that he may be ready to challenge Gale Sayers of Kansas in the 60-yard dash, as he did on the football field last fall at Lawrence. McCloughan edged teammate Ray Knaub, withheld from the low hurdles event. However, his injury is not serious.

VICTOR BROOKS

The other Husker first was taken by George O'Boyle, who won the 440-yard dash in :52.7.

Oklahoma State won only the shot put, the pole vault and the 600-yard run.

Cowboy John Anderson beat Husker Roland Johnson by three and a half inches in the shot put, and Poke Charles Strong edged Husker Bill Kenny by not much more in the 600.

RON MOORE

setting a meet record of :06.3. Sayers has run a :06.2 this year.

John Portee set a new meet record of 2:16 in the 1,000-yard run. The old mark was 2:16.9 set by Joe Mullins of Nebraska in 1959.

Wilke Sets Meet Record

Fred Wilke set the other individual meet record, covering the 60-yard low hurdles in seven seconds flat.

The Husker mile relay team broke the other meet record with a 3:29.1 in the cooperative event. The old record was 3:29.8 set by Oklahoma State in 1961.

The two-mile shutout of the Pokes was led by Larry Toothaker, followed by Stuart Tucker and Mauro Altizio.

Mike Fleming edged Gil Gebo in the 880-yard run with a time of 1:57.1. Jim Wendt finished third to complete the blanking of the Cowboys in this event.

Harry Krebs, competing with the Scarlet and Cream for the first time after transferring to NU from Doane, won the high jump with a 6-2 effort.

Two Huskers scored double victories. Mike Fleming won the mile in 4:20.9 to go with his 880 first.

Fred Wilke won the 60-yard high hurdles in :07.6 to go with his meet record-setting performance in the lows.

Moore Strains Muscle

Ron Moore, who had scored the same sweep in the triangular against Wyoming and South Dakota, strained a muscle in the high hurdles and did not finish. He was withheld from the low hurdles event. However, his injury is not serious.

The other Husker first was taken by George O'Boyle, who won the 440-yard dash in :52.7.

Oklahoma State won only the shot put, the pole vault and the 600-yard run.

Cowboy John Anderson beat Husker Roland Johnson by three and a half inches in the shot put, and Poke Charles Strong edged Husker Bill Kenny by not much more in the 600.

Mickey Baller vaulted 14-0, but the pole-sized vaulter missed three attempts at 14-8.

The Cornhusker track squad will face a much stronger opponent, Colorado, next Saturday. The Buffs are rated as title contenders, as are the Huskers, Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri.

Husker Wrestlers Upset

Jim Tinkler, a Fort Hayes heavyweight, decisioned Husker Don McDermott 3 to 1 in the final match to give Fort Hayes an upset wrestling victory over Nebraska Friday night by 14 to 11.

Husker Steve Walenz was held to a 5-5 draw in the opening match with Marvin Schultz. Mike Nissen kept his undefeated dual slate in tact by topping Bill Lowen 7-0.

Huskers Charles Martin and Ken Fox also nailed down decision wins. The loss left Nebraska with a 1-6 dual record this season.

Husker Cage Rally Futile; Tigers Secure 69-61 Win

Missouri's Tigers held off a fired-up Husker basketball team with accurate shooting from the field and the charity line to preserve a 69 to 61 victory Saturday night at the Coliseum.

Husker coach Jerry Bush didn't start Bill Vincent but replaced him with Neil Nannen in hopes of fast-breaking the Tigers. Peppery Jim Huge was another surprise starter as the Cornhuskers sought their first Big Eight win.

Nannen, Huge, and Charlie Jones gave the crowd high hopes as they hustled a 10 shot their way to intermittent first half leads over the Tigers. Jones gave Nebraska one of its last leads, 21 to 20 on a long jumper with 9:33 left in the first stanza.

Missouri fought back however as the Husker guards cooled off to gain their largest margin of the contest 40 to 35 as the gun sounded. Ray Bob Carey sparked the Tiger surge with a series of long set shots and superior rebounding.

Huskers Grow Cold

At the start of the second half, the Missourians threatened to run away with the contest. While the Huskers hit only one basket in the first four minutes, the visitors rattled the hoop and gained their initial ten point lead on guard Ken Doughty's jumper from the key.

Tigers Don Early, Bob Price, and Carey led the assault and pushed their advantage to as much as thirteen points several times. The Scarlet, meanwhile, repeatedly lost the ball on fundamental errors and careless ball handling.

Husker Charlie Jones revived the dying offense and the home forces staged a startling comeback in the middle of the half. Consecutive baskets by Jones, Nannen, and Ivan Grupe cut Missouri's margin to 52 to 46 with 12:36 left to play. Moments later Daryl Petsch sank his specialty — a long set shot from 25 feet out to narrow the lead to four points at 52 to 48.

The two teams traded baskets and free throws until Grupe made a lay-up on a clever pass under the basket from Nannen. This tally brought the Huskers up to a three point deficit at 57 to 54. Seconds later, the 6-4, 230 pound senior fouled out with 6:47 showing on the scoreboard clock.

Doughty Sparks Tigers

After Grupe's departure the Husker attack slowed and Ken Doughty sparked the Tigers to another comfortable advantage. At one point, Doughty dribbled around the entire Nebraska squad and sank an easy jump shot.

A rash of personal fouls also hurt the Huskers late in the game. The Tigers were whistled down thirteen times during the contest while Nebraska saw seven personals called on them in the last five minutes alone. Bob Price paced the Missouri free throw onslaught with eight for ten from the line.

Charlie Jones, playing one of his better games, led the Huskers with 16 points and a fine job of covering the boards against his taller opponents. Grupe and Nannen added 12 markers to round out the Nebraska scoring leaders.

Ray Bob Carey was the big man for Missouri, tallying 19 points and pulling down 14 rebounds. The tall Tiger cashed in on eight of twelve field goal attempts and converted three for three at the charity line.

Nebraska faces the Cyclones of Iowa State in their next encounter tonight at the Coliseum. Game time will be 8:05.

Husker Gymnasts Lose to Iowa, 68-43

Nebraska gymnasts were beaten by the University of Iowa Saturday in a meet at Iowa City. Nebraska won only one event when Gene Hart won the side horse event. Husker Dennis Albers tied for first in the tumbling event.

Glen Gailis of Iowa scored 20 points by capturing first places in the horizontal-bar and still-rings.

The victory boosted Iowa's record to 5-2 for the season while the defeat ended Nebraska's perfect season. The Husker squad now has a season mark of 4-1.

- Meet Results:
- Floor Exercise—Steve Drish, Iowa.
  - Trampoline—George Henry, Iowa.
  - Side Horse—Gene Hart, Nebraska.
  - Horizontal Bar—Glen Gailis, Iowa.
  - Parallel Bars—Bob Schmidt, Iowa.
  - Still Rings—Glen Gailis, Iowa.
  - Tumbling—Dennis Albers, Nebraska.
  - and Keith Spaulding, Iowa (Tie)

Swimmers Lose To Sooners

The Nebraska swimming squad met the Oklahoma Sooners and Kansas State Wildcats Saturday in a double dual meet which saw the record book virtually rewritten. Pool and varsity records were either broken or tied in eight of the ten events.

All-American swimmers John Bernard and Chuck Schuette accounted for or helped establish four of the records. Schuette set records in his favorite distances — the 200-yard freestyle and the 500-yard freestyle — and helped to set a new pool record in the 400-yard freestyle relay.

Schuette swam the 200 in 1:51.2 to break the record set earlier in the year by sophomore Keefe Ludwig in 1:54.0 seconds. Ludwig placed second to Schuette in 1:56.7. In the 500, Schuette also broke a record set by Ludwig by splashing the distance in 5:31.4 to replace the 5:34.0 set earlier by Ludwig.

John Bernard tied the pool record of 22.9 in the 50-yard freestyle and Jeff Amsler in the same race set a new varsity record of 23.2 breaking the one he set in the Denver University meet last January. In the highly touted 100-yard freestyle race John Bernard and Keefe Ludwig battled it out for first place. Ludwig won when Bernard slipped into Ludwig's lane midway through the race and Bernard seemed to have trouble keeping in his lane the rest of the race.

In the other Oklahoma record Larry Jacobs established a new marker in the 200-yard butterfly when he toured the pool in 2:10.3 to break the old mark of 2:12.6.

Although Nebraska lost the meet to Oklahoma, 57-38, they started the meet out in record style by breaking their own pool record set last year. The team composed of Bill Henry, Vern Bauer, Bill Fowles, and Phil Swaim whittled the record to 3:52.9 from the previous mark of 3:52.3 set last year by this same team.

Bill Henry added a personal mark in the 200-yard backstroke event to set a new varsity record of 2:11.3 breaking the record he had established last year of 2:12.5.

The 400-yard freestyle relay team from Oklahoma set a new pool record that had been set by the Husker tankers in their last outing. This team, composed of Tobey Morey, Rich Maris, John Bernard, and Chuck Schuette, swam the course in 3:26.4, breaking the mark of 3:32.7 set by the Husker squad.

Cody Wins Diving

In the diving, Sooner diver Jim Cody outpointed Husker Jon Williams and Chuck Levy by scoring a total of 212.0 points to William's 144.60 and Levy's 137.20.

Kansas State swimmers were out-distanced by both the Huskers and the Sooners. The Husker squad out-scored the Wildcats 77-16 while the Sooners were racing by the Wildcats, 83-19.

Lack of depth hurt the Kansas team as they only placed two swimmers in the top three places the entire meet.

The Husker squad now has a 4-2 dual record. Next weekend the Husker squad will travel to Wyoming and Colorado for a road encounter. On Friday, they will meet the University of Wyoming squad and then travel to Boulder, Colorado for a clash with the Colorado Buffaloes.
