

Cagers Seek Wins Over Okie Rivals

Nebraska's basketball team will attempt to break their current seven game losing streak against two Oklahoma conference foes this weekend.

Saturday night, the Huskers meet Hank Iba's Oklahoma State team who currently hold second place in the Big Eight over Iowa State and Kansas State.

The Cowboys upset league-leading Colorado last Monday and recently dumped Iowa State 54 to 50 to take sole possession of second place. Iba's ball control strategy has netted a 14-4 season for the Cowboys.

Three starters show double-figure scoring averages for the season in the State team's subbed offense. Larry Hawks leads the Cowpokes with a 13.1 scoring pace. Jim King with 12.1 points per contest and James Cooper with 11.2 round out the host's top scorers.

Huskers To Norman
After meeting Oklahoma State, the Huskers will travel to Norman to battle the Oklahoma Sooners. The Sooners have been having trouble with keeping a regular starting five. They lost forwards Farrell Johnson because of grades and Jerry Haddock with a broken wrist before the Kansas game. Although they won the contest, 81 to 75, bench strength will have to continue aiding Coach Bob Stevens club for the remainder of the season.

The Sooners will offer Eddie Evans, one of the better guards in the Big Eight, and improving James Gatewood to stop the faltering Husker on Monday.

Two sore spots to fill for the Sooner's is the loss of their starting forwards Farrell Johnson (grades) and Jerry Haddock (broken wrist). Oklahoma is currently fifth in the conference with a 4-5 mark and 8-12 overall.

Sevigne Juggles NU Trackmen As CU Invades

By JAN SACK
Sports Staff Writer

A shuffling of the track men by Coach Frank Sevigne should give Nebraska a better position tomorrow when they take on the Colorado Buffs in a dual meet in the Indoor Stadium. Field events begin at 2 p.m. with the running events starting at 2:30.

Sevigne is expecting a good meet with Nebraska taking the edge. He said Bob Hohn will compete in the low hurdles. This is the first time the ex-Beatrice flash has completed this year.

Others reassigned include co-captain Mike Fleming to the two-mile, Gil Gebro to double in the 600 and 880-yard runs and Dick Strand to the 440.

Colorado invades the state with several top men. Sophomore Leander Durley has gone 6-10 in the high jump. Top men for the Huskers in this event are Harry Krebs with a 6-4 mark and sophomore Tom Cramer with a 6-2 effort.

CU Hurdle Ace

Jim Miller, sophomore hurdle ace for the Buffs, bring with him a :06.8 mark in the 60-lows. The Huskers will meet him with co-captain Fred Wilke who is the defending Big Eight champ in this event. Ray Knaub, a sprinter turned hurdler,

If Coach Frank Potts of Colorado selects Bob Griffith for duty in the two-mile event, this could be one of the best races. Griffith is the outdoor two-mile champ and Fleming is the indoor two-mile champ. The Colorado vet is suffering from a shoulder injury, however.

Olander Clears 14-6

Colorado will have the edge in the pole vault with Roger Olander who has cleared 14-6, and in the shot put with Tom Galbos who placed fourth in the indoor meet last year. Galbos has pushed the shot over 54 feet.

Nebraska will parade Victor Brooks in the broad jump. The little Jamaican has GEBRO TO DOUBLE — Husker Gil Gebro will do double duty this weekend as Coach Sevigne reshifts the lineup for the Colorado indoor track meet. Gebro will run the 600-yard and the 880-yard run.

looked good since his return from the British Empire Games. Last week against Oklahoma State he jumped 24-1/2. Rudy Johnson will lend support in this event.

Sevigne said, "The Huskers will be put to a real test this week. I'm pleased with their past performance, and they're steadily improving."

NU Games Squad To KU Regional

The University's best in bowling, billiards, table tennis, and chess will travel to the University of Kansas this weekend to compete in the regional tournament of the Association of Collegiate Unions.

The Huskers will face teams from 22 schools in Kansas, Iowa, Missouri, and Nebraska.

Here are the Husker teams and their members:

Mens bowling: Keith Van Velkinburgh, Bob Gant, Ralph Delong, Dennis Stuewe, and Bill Biesendorfer.

Womens bowling: Jo Rowden, Leslie Glade, Mary Jo Mays, Arnette Kratochvil, and Sandy Smidt.

Billiards: Bob Riley, 14-1 pocket and three-cushion: Sherry Wilson, coed pocket. Table tennis: Ali Sharifi and Jim Fowler, doubles and singles. Chess: Andris Staklis, Bad-er Basrai, Iraj Saberi, and Dale Anderson.

Four different ways to make going more fun than getting there

You can see why one of America's favorite outdoor sports is driving Chevrolets, with four entirely different kinds of cars to choose from. There's the Jet-smooth Chevrolet, about as luxurious as you can go without going overboard in price; the low-cost Chevy II, a good-looking car that would send any family packing; another family favorite, the sporty Corvair, whose rear-engine traction will make you think that ice and snow are kid stuff; and for pure adventure, America's only sports car, Corvette—now in two all-new versions with looks that can stop traffic like a rush-hour blizzard. Picked your favorite already? The next thing is to take the wheel at your Chevrolet dealer's. If that doesn't have you thinking of places to go, maybe you'd rather just have a ball around town!

MIKE FLEMING SHIFTS to the two mile—Co-captain Mike Fleming will shift to the two mile race this Saturday as the Huskers prepare to take on Big Eight rival Colorado.

should also provide some stiff competition.

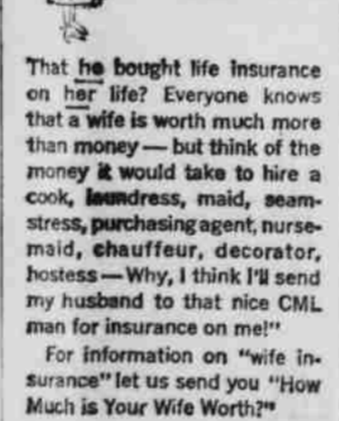

Knaub, Kent McCloughan and Steve Pfister will handle the sprint chores for the Huskers. Dick Burns will be the Colorado entry with a :06.3 clocking. Both Knaub and McCloughan have equalled this mark.

Burns may also compete in the 440-yard dash where he owns a :49.9 mark. Chuck Buchheit of Colorado has toured the 600 in 1:12.6. Senior Bill Kenny will be the Husker entry along with Gebro.

Nebraska's entries in the 1000-yard run include John Portee who spun this event in 2:16.0 last week against Oklahoma State.

Husker senior Ray Stevens will see action in the mile where he will probably face Tom Starr, Bill Sproat and Dave Reagan.

That he bought life insurance on her life? Everyone knows that a wife is worth much more than money—but think of the money it would take to hire a cook, laundress, maid, seamstress, purchasing agent, nursemaid, chauffeur, decorator, hostess—Why, I think I'll send my husband to that nice CML man for insurance on me!"
