

JUST A WHISKER BEHIND—Colorado's Bob Griffith Portee in the 1000-yard run. The Colorado runner was breaks the tape just a whisker ahead of Nebraska's John clocked in 2:16.6.

Thinclads Romp Past CU Buffs As Huskers Continue Win Record

The Husker thinclads thundered by the Colorado Buffs Saturday 76-46 in a dual meet for their third win of the season against no losses.

Two meet records were broken and one tied during the afternoon. Husker co-captain Mike Fleming set a new record in the mile with a 4:18.0, breaking his own mark of 4:22.6 set in 1962. Ray Stevens of Nebraska ran second in the mile.

Leander Durley, sophomore high jump whiz from Colorado, cleared the bar at 6-5 1/2 to topple the old mark of 6-4 set by Dale Knotek of Nebraska in 1957. The CU high jumper cleared the bar with ease and had no misses during the competition.

Tom Galbos of Colorado tied the shot put mark of 54-7 1/2 set by Buff Bob Crum-packer in 1962.

Huskers Grab Doubles
The Huskers garnered most of their points on the track where they are the strongest.

Huskers Fleming and Ray Knaub were the meet's only double winners.

Fleming won the mile and then came back to take the 880-yard run with a 1:58.2. Wendt placed second for the Huskers in the 880.

Knaub won the 60-yard dash with a :06.3 clocking and then came back in the 60-yard low hurdles with a :06.9. Kent McCloughan placed second for the Huskers in the dash while co-captain Fred Wilke earned second in the lows.

Wilke had the task of filling the place vacated by Ron Moore in the high hurdles. Wilke met the challenge with a win in the 60 highs with a :07.5 clocking. He was the only Husker entry in this event.

Toothaker Wins 2-Mile
Nebraska's Larry Toothaker easily handled Mike McCoy of Colorado in the two-mile run. On the final lap the Scarlet sophomore shot ahead for an easy victory in 9:41.6. Gil Gebo spun the 600-yard run in 1:12.2 for a Nebraska victory in this event. Team-mate Bill Kenny finished second.

Colorado victories on the track were just two. Chuck Buchheit won the 440-yard dash over NU's Dick Strand with a :51.1. The Buff mile relay team of Dick Burns, Bill Gairdner, Buchheit and Jim Miller won by a few yards over the Husker quartet of Jim Murphy, Strand, Kenny and Gebo.

The Huskers held their own

Velkinburgh To Buffalo

The Union games squad ventured to Lawrence, Kansas, Friday and Saturday for the regional tournament of the Association of Collegiate Unions. The men's bowling team sent one of the members, Keith Van Velkinburgh, to Buffalo, N.Y. to the ABC bowling tournament—collegiate division.

Van Velkinburgh won the singles bowling match with a total pin number of 1841 with teammate Bob Gant placing third, bowling a total of 1788 points. The top five scores in the singles matches qualified for the Buffalo tourney but only one representative from each school can go so Gant does not go to the nationals even though he qualified.

In the team bowling event the team placed second overall with a total of 2852 points. In this event, Dennis Stuewe had the high individual score with a total of 627 points.

OSU Hands NU Cagers Defeat

Oklahoma State, using Hank Iba's traditional control basketball, kept Nebraska out of the victory column by defeating the Huskers 51 to 41 at Stillwater Saturday night.

The victory boosted the Cowboys into a tie with Colorado for the Big Eight conference lead. Oklahoma State plays Colorado this coming Saturday at Boulder in what could be a showdown for the Big Eight Crown.

Nebraska saw the Cowboys hit the first basket of the contest and never trail from then on. Larry Hawk led the Cowboys to as much as a 14 point lead at one point and a 23 to 13 margin at the half.

Hawk, who finished with 18 points and game honors, helped his mates finish a Nebraska surge in the second half and preserve the important Cowboy's lead to five points three times late in the contest only to have Iba's stalling tactics prevail in the final 7 minutes.

Huskers Foul
The Scarlet experienced their reoccurring problem of personal fouls as three Huskers compiled four fouls and senior Ivan Grupe fouled out. Oklahoma State took advantage of the Husker 22 team fouls, converting 21 of 28 from the charity line. Nebraska outshot the Cowboys from the field, making 16 baskets to the hosts' 15.

Oklahoma U will entertain the Huskers at Norman tonight in Nebraska's next road test. Then the Huskers will return home for a game with unpredictable Kansas Saturday night.

NU Swimmers Split Duals On Road Trip

The Nebraska swimming team, on a road trip to the West this past weekend, split duals with the University of Wyoming, the University of Colorado and Texas Tech.

The Huskers at Wyoming, managed to win only four events in the meet. They won both relay events and the 100-yard freestyle and the 200-yard backstroke. Phil Swaim won the 100-yard free while Bill Henry won the 200-yard backstroke event. The swimmers lost by a score of 49-45.

Krebs Takes Second
In the high jump Harry Krebs took second behind Durley with a leap of 6-3 1/2. Sophomore Tom Cramer of Nebraska was third with a 6-2 effort.

Roger Olander, top pole vaulter for the Buffs, won this event easily with a 14-6 performance. Juris Jesifers of Nebraska was second with 13-0.

Next week the Huskers meet South Dakota State and Iowa State in a triangular here.

bers, who won the 200-yard individual medley; and Chuck Levy, who won the diving event. The swimmers now have a 6-8 dual record.

Other winners:
200-yard freestyle—Ron Grimm, Texas Tech, T. 1:59.7
50-yard freestyle—Phil Simpkins, Texas Tech, T. 2:11
200-yard Butterfly—Ron Grimm, Texas Tech, T. 2:20.8
100-yard freestyle—Phil Simpkins, Texas Tech, T. 50.5

Nissen Wins In NU Loss

Mike Nissen, Husker wrestling ace, ended a three-year undefeated dual record on his home court. To date the wrestler is undefeated in dual competition and there are four more dual meets to go this year.

Nissen pinned South Dakota State wrestler Marv Sherrill in 8:52 of the 130-pound bout. The Huskers lost the meet however to South Dakota by a score of 17-12.

Nebraska wrestlers had won the first three bouts but lost the last five to their opponents.

Results:
123-pounds—Steve Walenz (NU)
137-pounds—Chuck Martin (NU)
147-pounds—Jim Kain (S.D. State)
157-pounds—Gary Zeller (S.D. State)
167-pounds—Lyle Voss (S.D. State)
177-pounds—Bill Tassarit (S.D. State)

NISSEN WINS AGAIN — Mike Nissen, NU wrestler, ended a home court stand Thursday night as he extended three years of undefeated wrestling in dual competition.
