Nebraska . . .

HUSKER CAGERS finished their last season under coach Jerry Bush as they lost to Colorado Monday night, 80-51 and to Missouri Wednesday night, 84-72. The squad finished last in the conference with a 1-13 record and 6-19 overall.

ALL-UNIVERSITY basketball tournament headed towards the finish line this week as three teams advanced to the league finals. Sigma Alpha Epsilon reached the finals in the fraternity-A tourney while Phi Kappa Psi reached the Fraternity-B finals. In the Independent league, the Misfits reached their finals.

Big Eight . . .

ALL BIG EIGHT basketball selections were announced yesterday by UPI with Ken Charlton of Colorado heading the list. Teammate Jim Davis was also named to the mythical team. Other members were Willie Murrell of Kansas State, Nolen Ellison, Kansas University, and Larry Hawk of Oklahoma State. Husker Daryl Petsch received honorable mention.

THE BIG EIGHT basketball title goes down the wire Saturday night as defending champ Colorado (10-3) takes on Kansas State (11-2) at Manhattan Kansas. The game will be the final basketball game in the conference for the season.

NORMAN, OKLAHOMA is the site of this year's Big Eight wrestling championship with Oklahoma State and Iowa State vying for the championship. Oklahoma State is the defending champion.

SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIPS are held at the Lincoln High pool and the diving events at the coliseum pool. Finals will begin tonight at 8 p.m. and tomorrow afternoon at 2.

Nation . . .

SHOTPUTTER PARRY O'Brien withdrew from the United States Track and Field Federation meet yesterday as a result of the feud between the AAU and the USTFF. The AAU threatened disbarment from the union and from future olympic meets if he competes in the meet to be held in Milwaukee this weekend.

WORLD RECORD holder Bobby Hayes from Florida A & M equalled the world record in the 220-yard dash the hard way last weekend. He fought an eight mile-an-hour wind and coasted the last thirty yards due to a misunderstanding to equal the world record.

"That he bought life insurance on her? No! Everyone knows that a wife is worth much more than money — but think of the money it would take to hire a cook, laundress, maid, seamstress, purchasing agent, nursemaid, chauffeur, decorator, butler — Why, I think I'll send my husband to that nice CML man for insurance on me!"

Track has been talked up enough for the last week after the Huskers grabbed off the title, but I think one more meet would be in order — with the Big Ten champ Iowa.

The talk has usually been that the Big Eight is inferior to the Big Ten, but an NU-Iowa meet might bring different results.

I ran across a few of the times which the Hawkeyes whipped off and thought a few comparisons might be in order.

—In the mile relay, a Huskers strong point, Nebraska toured the course in 3:21.3, while Iowa won with a 3:14.7. Both are winning times in the respective conferences.

—In the mile Nebraska's Mike Fleming won the event in 4:11.7 and Iowa's Gary Fischer won the event in 4:13.7.

—Charles Strong of Oklahoma State won the 440 in 49.5 while the Big Ten champ whipped off a 48.5.

—Roger Kerr of Iowa won the 600 in 1:10 while Greg Pelster of Missouri won the Big Eight crown with 1:13.2 and was being pushed by Nebraska's Bill Kenny and Gil Gebb.

—Michigan's Charles Aquino won the Big Ten 1,000-yard run with a 2:09.9 clocking. Kirk Hagen of Kansas won the Big Eight event in 2:12.4.

—In the half mile Pelster was a repeat winner with 1:55.1 and Iowa's Bill Frazier ran a 1:51.8 to win in the Big Ten.

These are just a few of the winning times and the Big Ten has a definite advantage, but against the Big Eight things prove differently under competition.

Hurdle events cannot be compared since the Big Ten runs 70-yard highs and lows while the Big Eight runs 60-yard highs and lows.

Swimming is the big thing this weekend, and predicting the winner of the Big Eight swimming meet is not an easy task since I am not that familiar with the overall picture.

But the thing really looks jumbled up. Oklahoma (supposedly the favorite) beat Nebraska by 17 points in a dual. Iowa State beat Oklahoma in a dual by five points, and Nebraska would have beaten Iowa State in a dual but were disqualified in the last event when a couple of joyous NU merman jumped in the pool before the event was over.

In any case it should be quite a show. The meet is being held at the Public Schools Activities Building (Lincoln High) and is worth seeing.

Speaking of high school, the State Basketball Tournament is right around the corner and promises to be another good show.

Last year's will probably go down into history as the most controversial in history, and let's hope the same type thing doesn't happen again this year.

But judging from the Lincoln Northeast-Lincoln Southeast district game Wednesday night, the officiating hasn't improved much.

High school officiating sometimes leaves a lot to be desired, but the LSE-LNE contest was the worst of officiating I have ever seen. I hope it improves by next Thursday.

Next week I will attempt to pick the winners, but don't take offense if I don't pick your hometown.

WAA Has Tourneys

The Women Athletic Association has completed six tournaments this past semester, with Kappa Delta taking the honors in the upperclass soccer tournament by defeating Zeta Tau Alpha.

In the freshman soccer tournament the Delta Gamma freshmen rated first with the Kappa Delta's taking second place.

Kappa Delta was also the top team of the twelve teams which entered the Nebraska Ball tournament. Gamma Phi Beta finished second. The bowling tournament was an individual event.

Leslie Glade, Tri-Delt, won the individual title and Charla Tortora, Chi Omega, came in second. Mary Jo Mays of the Alpha Chi's placed third.

In archery, Carol Kaufman, Gamma Phi Beta, placed first. The archery was also an individual event. Kathy Robertson of Pippin Hall was second and Kathy Keir, Tri-Delt, third.

A recreational swim meet was held for the first time on Nov. 12. It featured individual and group games instead of the more serious swimming events. Zeta Tau Alpha was first and Alpha Phi was second.

The tennis tournament has been held up in its final rounds because of the weather. It will be continued in the spring when the weather clears.

In other future events, WAA will hold tournaments in table tennis and basketball. That event will begin next week. An intramural swim meet will be held on March 26th. All women students are welcome to join in on the fun. Trophies will be awarded to the winning teams.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANIES SALUTE: JOHN CLIGROW

On his first assignment with Ohio Bell, John Cligrow (B.A., 1960) conducted an extensive customer attitude survey with the help of two other recent college graduates. Their comprehensive recommendations for improving telephone service in Ohio were well received by top company management and many of their ideas were adopted.

Later, John was a Communications Consultant for businesses around Columbus. His outstanding record on that job earned him an assignment as instructor on the Commercial Department Training Staff, his latest step up.

John Cligrow and other young men like him in Bell Telephone Companies throughout the country help bring the finest communications service in the world to the homes and businesses of a growing America.
