Huskers Take Tennis Opener

Nebraska's tennis team successfully opened its season Friday by trouncing Creighton University 8-1 on the University courts.

Although No. 1 man Dick Gibson sat out singles competition due to a pulled stomach muscle, the Huskers won all three doubles matches and all but one singles match.

Former Daily Nebraskan sports editor Dave ("Bullet") Wohlfarth, normally the No. 2 man, played a powerful defensive game in defeating Creighton's Sam Brown 6-2, 6-2 in straight sets.
