

NU Baseballers Meet Jayhawks In 3 Game Tilt

The Husker baseball team will travel to Lawrence, Kan. this weekend for a three game series with the Kansas Jayhawks before setting up a home stand siege next week.

The Nebraska '9' will be out to avenge last year's three game losses when the Jayhawks invaded Lincoln last year. The two teams will play a double header Friday and a single game Saturday.

Kansas swept the series last spring, knocking the Huskers out of title contention early in the season. Kansas finished the year in third place in the Big Eight standings with a 13-8 loop record.

KU has most of its 1962 squad back this year but are off to a slow start. Kansas has won three and lost five overall and stand 0-3 in conference play after losing a three game series to Oklahoma last weekend.

Husker Coach Tony Sharpe has made several changes in the NU batting order. The revised Husker lineup includes: Don Schindel, cf; Dale Anderson, 3b; Larry Borschlegl, c; Dave May, 1b; Ron Douglas, 2b; Ron Michka, lf; John Faiman, rf; and Tom Ernst, ss.

Ron Havekost has drawn the opening assignment and will do the pitching duties in the first match. He is 1-0 thus far in the season.

Jan Wall (1-0) is slated to hurl the second game Friday. Coach Sharpe is undecided

Ron Havekost Husker Pitcher Star of Week

By MICK ROOD Staff Sports Writer
Lefthander Ron Havekost sparked Nebraska's successful Big Eight baseball debut to earn "Star of the Week"

RON HAVEKOST—Senior lefthander, Ron Havekost, is star of the week for his performance in the K-State series last weekend.

honors during the young season.

Havekost, a 6-2, 200 pound senior, mastered Kansas State 6 to 2 in first game of a doubleheader to give Nebraskans their initial conference victory.

Last week, in the Tulsa series, he gave the Huskers a 3 to 1 lead only to watch his mates drop the contest after he was replaced with a pinch hitter in the sixth inning.

In these two appearances, the Husker southpaw has compiled a 2.08 earned run average for thirteen innings. He has given up 11 hits, but struck out ten and walked only three.

Last year, Havekost led the Scarlet mound crew with a 2.21 ERA together with a 4-3 win-loss record.

Havekost credits his success with control that many leftys never acquire. He recalls long hours of practice with brother Dick, who plays first base for Nebraska's "nine".

Havekost was contacted by Yankee scout Joe McDermott after high school graduation

—Spring Football Across The Big Eight— Oklahoma Worries About Overall Strength

By TERRY ANDERSON Sports Editor
EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the first of a series of six articles dealing with spring football practice across the Big Eight conference. This week the article is on the Big Eight champs, Oklahoma.

Returning 18 of their top 25 players and regaining Tommy Pannell, promising sophomore quarterback, Oklahoma's Big Eight conference football champions began spring practice March 11.

Pannell, 166-pound back from Norman, broke his ankle in scrimmage just before the Syracuse opener and could not play in 1962. He was the top quarterback when hurt and would have been the first sophomore ever to start in that position for Bud Wilkinson.

Coach Wilkinson is concerned with overall strength this year saying, "Our defense carried us last year but our seniors were the core of the defense. We will not know until after spring practice what sort of overall strength we will have this year."

The Sooners lost their key defensive strength by graduation. Safety Les, defensive right half Mel Sandersfeld, tackle Dennis Ward and Duane Cook, and linebackers Leon Cross and Wayne Lee were all lost. Oklahoma allowed only 4.4 points per game, ranking third in the nation in defense against scoring. They allowed only two touchdowns in the last six regular season games and Notre Dame was the only opponent who scored two touchdowns against them.

Oklahoma lost five starters from the squad last year, three of them All-Americans. Left tackle Dennis Ward was third team All-American and center Wayne Lee and right guard Leon Cross were All-Americans. The other tackle, Duane Cook and quarterback Monte Deere was also lost to the team.

In all the Sooners have 28 returning lettermen. The first game for Wilkinson's 1963 team will be against the Alumni on April 20. The grads, winners in 11 of 14 previous spring games, will seek revenge for the 47-24 lacing they took last spring.

Freshmen from Oklahoma's 1962 yearling squad that split two games last fall, defeating Tulsa's Gales, 13-0, and losing 6-9, to Oklahoma State's Colts, will be infiltrated into the varsity this spring.

The Sooners gained 2659 yards on the ground and 1034 yards in the air to garner the number one position in the conference for yards gained with 3693 yards.

The Sooners will open their fall season next year against Clemson, the meet Southern California's national and Rose Bowl champions and Texas's Southwest conference champions in that order.

The Clemson Tigers swept their last four games to finish 6-4 in the season. The Sooners meet the Clemson team at Norman, then travel to Los Angeles, and Dallas for their other two non-conference games.

The Oklahoma team will meet four bowl teams next fall, including Southern California, Rose Bowl champs; Missouri, Bluebonnet Bowl champs; Nebraska, Gotham Bowl champs; and Texas, Cotton Bowl challengers.

Guard Larry Vermillion of Chickasha and center John Garret of Stilwell will captain the 1963 team.

Vermillion and Garrett played behind Leon Cross and Wayne Lee, Sooner co-captains last year.

Thus far in spring practice, freshmen have dominated the quarterback post as the top three teams are quarterbacked by freshmen.

Mike Rigner led the starting eleven, moving it to four touchdowns against the third, fifth and seventh teams.

Bill Thomas, 212-pounder, worked at the controls of the alternate unit and John Hammond, headed the third team. Thomas's running and Hammond's passing were the outstanding developments of the fracas.

Lettermen Bobby Page and Norman Smith and squadman Ron Fletcher, all of whom played last fall, operated with the fifth, sixth, and eighth aggregations as the coaches moved the three freshmen up so they could observe them under fire.

The 1963 Schedule:

Sept. 21, Clemson at Norman
Sept. 28, Southern California at Los Angeles
Oct. 12, Texas at Dallas
Oct. 19, Kansas at Norman
Oct. 26, Kansas State at Manhattan
Nov. 2, Colorado at Norman
Nov. 9, Iowa State at Norman
Nov. 16, Missouri at Columbia
Nov. 23, NEBRASKA AT LINCOLN
Nov. 30, Oklahoma State at Norman

Does a man really take unfair advantage of women when he uses Mennen Skin Bracer?

All depends on why he uses it. Most men simply think Menthol-Iced Skin Bracer is the best after-shave lotion around. Because it cools rather than burns. Because it helps heal shaving nicks and scrapes. Because it helps prevent blemishes.

So who can blame them if Bracer's crisp, long-lasting aroma just happens to affect women so remarkably? Of course, some men may use Mennen Skin Bracer because of this effect. How intelligent!
