

Gebo's Anchor Leads Husker Relay Success

GEBO GETS HUSKER WIN—Husker Gil Gebo finishes his half mile anchor for the winning Scarlet sprint medley team at the Kansas relays.

Nebraska and Houston tangled in a dual track meet this afternoon at 3:30 in Memorial Stadium. This is a warm-up meet for both teams in preparation for the Drake Relays in Des Moines, Ia., Friday and Saturday.

Houston invades with such top names as Al Lawrence, Geoff Walker, Laurie Elliott and Alan Irwin. The Cougars are fresh from the Kansas Relays where they won the four-mile relay and Walker and Lawrence placed one-two in the three-mile run.

Husker coach Frank Sevine may run Ray Knaub in the 100-yard dash in preparation for Drake this weekend. Mike Fleming may also be slated for the mile, which he will run this weekend.

Nebraska's track team placed in four relays and won one at the 38th Kansas Relays last Thursday and Friday at Lawrence, Kan.

Nebraska's winning entry, the sprint medley relay, topped Iowa in 3:20.9 on Gil Gebo's sizzling half mile anchor.

Gebo's finish, probably one of the best individual performances in the meet, was timed in 1:48.6 by Sevine.

Gebo had to catch Iowa's Phil Frazier after teammates left him behind before the last 880. Other members of the winning combination were Knaub, Bill Kenny and Kent McCoughan.

The Scarlet's touted four-mile relay team finished a distant third after winning at the Texas Relays despite a good 4:15.5 mile anchor by Fleming.

Texas Southern won four relays and set two new meet records to spice a record-breaking assault at the annual affair. The Cornhuskers were the victim of one Southern record in the 440-yard relay as the Scarlet combination of Knaub, McCoughan, Steve Pfister and Fred Wilke succumbed to a dazzling 40.9 time by the Texans.

Nebraska also picked up two thirds in the 880 and the two mile relay to round out their scoring.

NU Loses to Sooners

Friday it was cold, Saturday it was hot. But on neither day were Husker bats fair as NU's baseball squad dropped three in a row to league-leading Oklahoma.

Tony Sharpe's weak stickers lost last Saturday, 7-1, after dropping a pair on Friday, 9-2, and 2-0. The Huskers are now 3-6 in the conference and 6-9 for the season.

The Huskers managed only 14 hits in three games.

Jan Wall started Saturday's game, after missing one week's action due to a death in the family, pitched fine baseball by striking out 11 men and giving up only three earned runs in his seven inning stint.

But four unearned runs were the Huskers' undoing. The Sooners picked up three runs in the third on a walk, an error, a wild pitch, a passed ball and two singles, one by pitcher Doyle Tunnell.

Oklahoma added one in the fifth before it tallied three more (two earned) in the seventh.

Tunnell scattered four hits and walked none to stifle the Cornhusker bats again. Tom Ernst hit a double followed by Don Schindel's single for NU's lone tally. Schindel and hard-hitting Dave May had the only other hits in the contest.

In the first game of the Friday doubleheader the Sooners jumped all over Nebraska starter Ron Havekost in the first inning for four runs on two singles, two doubles and a run-producing pass ball.

The Sooners added two in the third and seventh innings and one in the sixth frame.

NU got its lone two tallies in the first on singles by Dale Anderson and May and three straight walks to force in the lone pair of runs.

Sooner starter Jerry Haddock, playing with a heavily taped wrist gave up 6 scattered hits to up his record to 3-0.

Ernie Bonistall ran into tough luck in the second game.

The l righthander gave up a single to Jann Christian, who went to second on an outfielder error before Dale Mitchell Jr. slammed a triple to score Christian. Bonistall followed with a wild pitch to allow Mitchell to cross the plate and close out the scoring on both sides.

Managing only four hits, the Huskers were also stymied by three Sooner double plays in the seven inning game.

Net Team Wins Two

Nebraska's tennis team won two matches and lost four during the recent southern swing. The Huskers defeated Emporia State University and Oklahoma Baptist University and fell to Wichita, Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Oklahoma State.

Though the latter three teams shut out the Huskers, Dick Gibson won his singles match against the other three opponents. Dave Wohlforth won two singles matches and teamed with Gibson for two doubles victories. Rick Harley and Jack Lausterer won two doubles victories, and Lausterer teamed with Jeff Wu for another doubles win.

Golfers Split Matches

Nebraska's golf team beat Kansas, tied host Kansas State, and lost to Oklahoma Saturday at Manhattan. The Huskers had dropped all three golf matches Friday in a quadrangular match at Lawrence.

The second leg of the Big Eight match was played at the par 70 Manhattan Country Club. Nebraska defeated Kansas 10 to 5 and tied Kansas State 7½ to 7½. Oklahoma trounced the Husker linksmen 15 to 0.

Friday Nebraska lost to Kansas State 8 to 7 and to Kansas 14½ to ½. Oklahoma captured top honors by defeating each of the other schools in dual competition.
