

Candidates Speak Out

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a series of articles to assist students in voting by providing them with information about their Student Council candidates. At the same time, candidates are given an opportunity to express their views. Today's article treats candidates or representatives from Teachers College.

TEACHERS

Miss Anderson
Jeene Anderson, freshman, feels that issues to be debated in Student Council should be published or made public before each meeting of the Council so students would have an opportunity to voice their opinions before the outcome is reported. This would give the student body a more active role in student government, she said.

She feels the main functions of the Student Council should be to give the students a voice in University policy and to stimulate interest and opinion in the student body in the areas of public issues, scholarship and standards.

Miss Anderson has been active in the Student Council Associate program, debate, YWCA and Builders. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

Miss Baird
Travis Baird, sophomore, feels the main function of the Student Council is to represent and make decisions for the whole student body.

She thinks the Council should sponsor and the student body participate in more cultural events.

She has taken part in Family Project, Union films and is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Bargen
Denny Bargen, sophomore, says he feels the Student Council should act as a medium between the entire student body and administration, which should give the students a chance to voice their opinions and function practically in committee areas.

He suggests better lighting facilities in parking areas, special parking on city campus for Ag students, no compulsory ROTC, selection of cheerleaders under jurisdiction of Student Council.

He is a member of Phi Epsilon Kappa honorary, on the varsity baseball squad and a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

Barton
Mike Barton, sophomore, feels the Student Council should take an accurate, comprehensive assessment of student opinion and with this opinion in mind, formulate intelligent policies and recommendations on relevant issues.

He suggests implementation of the representation amendments sponsored by this year's Council and expansion of public relations efforts and student polls.

In addition to Student Council his activities include Teen-

Age Project, Phy. Ed. 27 instructor. He is a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Miss Christiansen
Kay Christiansen, freshman, feels the Student Council should function as a representative body for the whole campus and that any actions which may effect the students of this campus should be discussed thoroughly.

She would try to implement more effective parking rules, and further develop the Senators and masters programs.

Her activities include Red Cross, Water Safety Assistant, Phy. Ed. Club, and Jr. Panhellenic Council associates. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority.

Miss Erwin
Trudy Erwin, sophomore, feels the functions of the Student Council are to act as an intermediary body between the faculty, administration and the students and between students themselves a to set up the governing rules of conduct for the student body.

Her activities include Family Project, Union films, and a member of a College Board. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Miss Faris
Lynn Faris, sophomore, feels the Student Council should serve as the student governing body in regulating and aiding student self-government and establish good student and faculty relationships in addition to serving publicly as the right arm of the University.

She suggests the council integrate activities that demand good council and student body relationships and provide better representation through the use of mass council meetings, opinion polls, sponsored debates between students and Council.

She is a member of Tassels, Project, and Student Council Associates, and Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Miss Irish
Lynne Irish, freshman, feels the Council should represent the interests of the student body in student government and be the body between students and faculty which tries to bring about closer relationships between students and faculty.

She suggests that the Council check on organizations to see that they are following their constitutions, check book prices, investigate possible changes in grading system to the four-point system, and initiate community service projects.

She has participated in AWS Board, Red Cross, AUF and is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Miss Morrissey
Sharon Morrissey, freshman, feels the function of the Student Council as the student governing body is to solve student problems and those of student organizations in connection with the faculty.

She proposes a closer connection with the student body as a whole and publicizing more widely the purpose of the Council.

She has been active in Red Cross, YWCA, Newman Club, Student Council Associates and is a member of Kappa Delta sorority.

Miss Skarda
Susan Skarda, freshman, feels the functions of the Student Council are to promote student activities, develop and maintain harmonious relations between students and faculty and assist in school management.

She suggests the council involve more freshmen in Student Council committees in order that they become a part of the life of the University.

She has been active in Young Republicans, and is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Miss Skoda
Sandra Skoda, sophomore, thinks the Student Council is the student governing body that regulates and supervises all student self-government and acts as a medium for student-faculty relationships.

She suggests that one representative from each living unit on campus be a member of the Council to insure complete knowledge of campus activities and to better student relationships. She feels the president of the Council should be voted on by the student body instead of chosen by the members of the Council and that support should be obtained from the students.

She has been a member of Builders, Red Cross, UNSEA, ACE and is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

Thom
Doug Thom, sophomore, feels the Student Council serves as a link between the student body and administration and regulates and coordinates campus activities.

He suggests that the Council associates elect officers and have a regular Council member to help ease the representation problem.

He has been IFC Judicial Committee chairman, chairman of the Senators Noon Luncheon Program and treasurer of UNSEA. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Miss Woodward
Miss Woodward believes the Council should represent interests of students, regulate and coordinate all phases of student government, work toward solution to campus problems, improve relations among students, faculty and administration and guide student organizations.

Her platform suggests reorganization of the representation system, improvement of University publicity and an ending of disinterest toward Student Council.

Her activities include Union, Builders, Alpha Lambda Delta, Aquettes, Kernals, Yell Squad, French Club. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

NSF Grant Given For Scientist Plan

The Nebraska Academy of Sciences has received a $13,950 grant from the National Science Foundation in support of its visiting scientist program.

In charge of the program is Dr. James Rutledge, professor of secondary education at the University.

The planned program concerns consultations by outstanding Nebraska scientists with high schools, aimed at improvement of science education.

Interviews Tomorrow For PTP

What is PTP? PTP stands for People to People, a campus organization which exists for the purpose of promoting closer friendships between American and international students.

After a slow start last fall, the organization has become quite active during second semester, according to Loren Fairbanks, PTP committee chairman.

Most Friday evening feature films on some foreign country are narrated by a student from that country. Games and dances from various foreign countries are often introduced into the programs.

This spring PTP has also begun sponsoring a cricket team and soccer team. These teams play against PTP teams from other schools, and both foreign and American students play on these teams.

It is hoped that next year will see even further development and expansion of the organization, according to Fairbanks.

Interviews for officer positions and committee chairmanships will be held in the Student Union tomorrow beginning at 9 a.m.

Anyone interested in working in PTP must fill out an application form, located on the bulletin board outside 345 Student Union, return it to that room and sign up for an interview before 5 p.m. today.

Straight talk

from Lutheran Brotherhood about student insurance

WHEN TO BUY INSURANCE. During college is an ideal time. Even though right now your responsibilities may be few, those responsibilities often pile on fast after graduation. If you've started an insurance program now—in anticipation of those responsibilities—you'll be better able to meet them.

TYPES OF INSURANCE. There are three basic types of insurance policies: (1) term, which is temporary protection; (2) whole life, which is lifetime protection with savings features; (3) endowment, which is primarily savings with protection included until the endowment matures. Various combinations of these are offered by most insurance companies.

THE COST OF INSURANCE. Don't be fooled by "bargain" insurance. You get exactly the protection and savings features you pay for—no more. Yet the earlier you take out life insurance, the lower the premium.

WHICH INSURANCE PLAN? No single plan will fit the needs of all college students. Lutheran Brotherhood offers a variety of plans—each excellent, but each designed to do different things. One, for example, offers $10,000 of protection for less than 50¢ a day to college age men. Another—for married students with children—offers $2,500 of protection for each child at only $7.50 a year up to age 18. Yet another—designed especially for college students and young family men—offers $10,000 of protection at less than 12¢ a day during the first years, then builds into a solid protection and savings plan as your income grows.

HOW TO CHOOSE. You should have skilled counsel when you choose an insurance program. Your Lutheran Brotherhood representative offers that service. Whether you plan to buy insurance now—or simply would like a more detailed explanation about the role of insurance during your college days and in your future—drop him a note or give him a call. He'll be glad to give you all the information you want.
