

The Reflecting Mirror of

IMAGES

—By John Morris

Football season tickets will cost $3 more for students next fall if the Student Council endorsement of the increase is put into effect . . . and if students buy tickets.

In a race to catch up with five other Big Eight Conference schools in money available for the athletic department, thus bigger and better football players, students might have to pay $10 instead of $7, for their 1963 tickets.

The argument for the increase seems to center around the fact that Nebraska is one of three schools that is not subsidized in some way, in addition to the fact that Nebraskans do not have to pay taxes that go to the University Athletic Department.

The subsidies mentioned are reported to be in the form of waivers of fees, tuition and mandatory buying of tickets. As high as $150,000 a year is received at some schools by these methods.

Athletic Director Tippy Dye established a relationship between grants-in-aid and scholarships and ranking in the conference in a talk before the Student Council several weeks ago. It seems that higher paid players make better football players. Dye said that if Nebraska is going to remain competitive in the conference it will have to keep grants-in-aid in the same bracket as the top two or three schools.

That is, we will have to pay as well as the top two or three to turn out football players of similar quality. And who is paying in the end, student body?

And the student will continue to pay, whether tickets go up, whether intelligence is offered the same benefits physical ability is and whether all those football rank-raisers are hidden parts of an increased tuition that the student at school for school must pay.

Of those who return to a University prestige and honor through professional excellence, football players are in the great minority. Yet of those who get free training in order to attain professional excellence, football players are in the majority.

It has yet to be proven that funds from athletic activities benefit a University enough to make non-athletic students pay that price.

But there are many other things to consider: For instance, what ever happened to the idea of a balanced athletic program? It would be much better for students, athletes and the school if the athletic program were well-rounded.

Basketball players need a place to play and the baseball field needs a scoreboard. With appropriations to the so-called minor sports, Nebraska could be a valid leader in collegiate athletics. But the rounding out of the athletic program must wait until more seats are added to the stadium and those are paid for and the football team makes so much money that it cannot possibly spend it all on itself.

That seems like the long way around. Why not pep up the University's sports publicity? Send out a little info on baseball, basketball, tennis, golf, wrestling, swimming, etc. Why not upgrade the whole system and boast of a real good athletic department rather than concentrate on collegiate glamour, on the gridiron? Look it up anywhere, fans, an athlete is not defined as a football player and a coach is not defined as a football teacher.

Why not pay for only top grade football talent and transfer some funds to other sports, if we are going to pay athletes? That, in addition to better promotional work, would interest people in sports other than football at the University and make it worth while for athletes, other than football players to compete.

For instance, why not make the Nebraska football fan, the "super loyal nut" pay for what he gets to see. It seems odd that students must pay more than before and get, on the whole, not as good a view of action, as the other half, the public.

If students must start paying more they should start demanding more. Why not ask for 10,000 50-yard line seats, a perfect season and an Orange Bowl contract, plus enough influence to pressure hiring and firing of coaches in the future.

And, if the student body does not get what it wants then it should throw a mass tantrum and point to Big Ten Giants, to the Southeastern Conference Giants and wail out the injustice, and this time be heard by all.

The Snide Sisterhood

HORSE	STABLE	TRAINER	ODDS	TIPS
Claim Jumper	Ritz Dwelling	Court Marshal	1-1	Has been in all the way
Noisy Judge	Water Front	No Trainer	2-1	So strong she may hurt stable mates.
White House	White House	Innocent Lady	3-2	Careful handling by trainers has brought her right along.
Kat's Korner	Kat's Korner	No Trainer	3-1	Has shown good form all the way to the wire.
White House	White House	Cora Deer	4-1	Late starter—came on at a rush.
Water Front	Water Front	No Trainer	4-1	To continue winning tradition of former.
Ritz Dwelling	Ritz Dwelling	Live Pill	5-1	Stable Mate.
Water Front	Water Front	No Trainer	6-1	Much stuff.
Firm Foundation	Firm Foundation	Sweet Thing	6-5	Stable's Best.
Wet Barn	Wet Barn	Evening Star	8-1	Trainings has been top.
Heartbreak Hotel	Heartbreak Hotel	No Trainer	9-1	Looks good, but doesn't look like a strong finish.
Wet Barn	Wet Barn	Super Sister	10-1	Steady plodder.
Wet Barn	Wet Barn	Watch Her	14-2	Consistent, but may need help from trainer.
Barbed Corral	Barbed Corral	Evening Star	15-1	Solid pick.
Water Front	Water Front	No Trainer	20-1	Off to fast start, but fading.
Heartbreak Hotel	Heartbreak Hotel	Evening Star	25-1	Forced to run on the outside all the way.
Wet Barn	Wet Barn	Wet Cave	30-1	Could be just another runner.
Wet Barn	Wet Barn	Dollar Daze	40-1	Good training but has feathered on the last curve.
Kat's Korner	Kat's Korner	No Trainer	50-1	Steady but not spectacular.
Banana Barrel	Banana Barrel	No Trainer	60-1	Could finish in the money.
Firm Foundation	Firm Foundation	Sweet Thing	70-1	Classy stablemate may put this one out of the running.
God's Mouthpiece	God's Mouthpiece	Starry Sort	80-1	Long shot.
La Hacienda	La Hacienda	Definitely Needs One	84-1	Short in the stretch.
Ritz Dwelling	Ritz Dwelling	Liver Pill	90-1	Lost interest in running, but has been good in past performances.

Goody, Goody

R. F. I. H.

And, More To Come Too

The Devil's Disciples

HORSE	STABLE	TRAINER	ODDS	TIPS
Secluded Valley	Aviary	B. Henkle	4-1	Life's ambition achieved.
Excutor	Manure Hall	Porty Weiner	24-24	Fillers of the soil need something for compensation.
Doosee	Browned Palace	Cob Man & Jock	9-1	His smile is the most significant thing about him, and it makes me sick.
Manou	Golden Screw	None	69-16	Be sober, be vigilant, because your adversary, the Devil walketh about.
Trub	Manure Hall	See above	115-8	Hope to the end.
Pietz	Olsonville	Brewlow	15-8	Keep praying.
Beaked	Gobbie Land	None	152-8	Intra-recession, but anything can happen.
Ass	Cheese Box	Panas	4,321-49	Choked with ambition and of the master sort. (Shakespeare).
Jerke	Cliff's Club	Sleeper	15-1	To remember that Tammany cooks spoiled the broth.
Eversharp	Manure Hall	See above	45-3	Three things in life are inevitable: death, taxes and three Manure Hall Squeaks.
Rabbie Romer	Golden Screw	None	34-2	The have to get it.
Alto	Turkey Terrace	None	9-1	Al Smith had his problems, he could too.
Lindy	Hay Seed Square	None	45-3	Would make a better Mortar Board.
TNE Taboo	Manure Hall	None	145-19	Who needs this year. Once a decade is enough.
Katzenjammer Kid	Manure Hall	Mad	1-1	Myth.
Spence	Golden Screw	None	15-1	Fertilizers only set 1. He and Eversharp will duel.
Cora Job	Freddy Bear's Tavern	None	6-9	Four time loser.
Freddy Bear	Freddy Bear's Tavern	None	800-3	Doubtful.
Wally	Turkey Terrace	None	20-1	Watch him, he may drop.
Money Maker	Cheese Box	See Ass	$509-3	Grounded.
Wet Barn	Golden Screw	None	1 for 34	Probably will strike out.
Prophet	Manure Hall	None	344-2	If he could jump like he can just, he'd win.
Pitter Patter	Manure Hall	Mad	3000-1	Too many in front, may win Nobel Prize though.
Touade	Kia Klax Klax	None	4500-1	Nutty painters never make good politicians.
			2458-7	Too darn many farmers.
			3,200,000	Purged.

YOU TOO CAN BE A

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. SCHOLARSHIPS (It makes a difference for the Mortar Boards.)
2. ACTIVITIES (Neyer so few!)
3. LEADERSHIP (That the blind may lead the blind.)
4. SERVICE (Do a job!)

INTERVIEWS SATURDAY

HOW TO SEE EUROPE FOR ONLY $300 A DAY: NO. 1

Summer vacation is just around the corner, and naturally all of you are going to Europe. Perhaps I can offer a handy tip or two. (I must confess that I myself have never been to Europe, but I do have a French poodle and a German shepherd, so I am not entirely unqualified.)

First let me say that no trip to Europe is complete without a visit to England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, France, Germany, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Lichtenstein, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, Switzerland, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Finland, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Russia, Greece, Yugoslavia, Albania, Crete, Sardinia, Sicily, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria, Lapland, and Andorra.

Let us take up these countries in order. First, England.

The capital of England is London—or Liverpool, as it is sometimes called. There are many interesting things to see in London—chiefly the changing of the guards. The guards are changed daily. The old ones are thrown away.

Another "must" while in London is a visit to the palace of the Duke of Marlborough. Marlborough is spelled Marlborough, but pronounced Marlboro. English spelling is very quaint, but terribly disorganized. The late George Bernard Shaw, author of Little Women, fought all his life to simplify English spelling. They tell a story about Shaw once asking a friend, "What does g-h-o-u-t-i spell?"

The friend pondered a bit and replied, "Goatee." Shaw sniggered. "Pshaw," said Shaw. "G-b-o-o-t-i does not spell goatee. It spells fish."

"How is that?" said the friend. Shaw answered, "Gh as in enough, o as in women, f as in motion. Put them all together, you got fish."

This was very clever of Shaw when you consider that he was a vegetarian. And a good thing he was. As Disraeli once remarked to Guy Fawkes, "If Shaw were not a vegetarian, no lamb chop in London would be safe."

But I digress. We were speaking of the palace of the Duke of Marlborough—or Marlboro, as it is called in the United States. It is called Marlboro by every smoker who enjoys a fine, rich breed of tobacco, who appreciates a pure white filter, who likes a soft pack that is really soft, a Flip-Top box that really flips. Be sure you are well supplied with Marlboros when you make your trip abroad. After a long, tiring day of sightseeing there is nothing so welcome as a good flavorful Marlboro and a foot-bath with hot Epsom salts.

Epsom salts can be obtained in England at Epsom Downs. Kensington salts can be obtained at Kensington Gardens, Albert salts can be obtained at Albert Hall, Hyde salts can be obtained at Hyde Park, and the crown jewels can be obtained at the Tower of London.

The guards at the Tower of London are called Beefeaters because they are always beefing about what they get to eat. This is also known as "cricket" or "petrol."

Well, I guess that about covers England. In next week's column we will visit the Land of the Midnight Sun—France.

Wherever you may roam in Europe and in all fifty states of the Union, you'll find Marlboro ever-present and ever-pleasant—filter, flavor, pack or box.

*BOO!

Daily Nebraskan

SEVENTY-SECOND YEAR OF PUBLICATION
 Telephone 477-4711, ext. 2568, 2569, 2590
 14th & R
 Member Associated Collegiate Press,
 International Press Representative, National Advertising Service, Incorporated.
 Published at: Room 51, Student Union,
 Lincoln 8, Nebraska.

BUSINESS STAFF
 Business Manager: John Zellmer
 Circulation Manager: Mike MacLean
 Advertising Manager: Jay Gresh
 Assistant Business Manager: Bill Gostick, Bob Cunningham, Peter Lutz

EDITORIAL STAFF
 Editor: Albin Jensen
 Managing Editor: Gary Loney
 News Editor: John Morris
 Sports Editor: Terry Anderson
 Editorial Board Editor: Rick Road
 Art Editor: Bob Ray
 Copy Editor: Sam Hoyt, Susan Southberger
 Editor: John Lemquist, Hank Sprague, Gary Miller
 Editor: Mike Gasker
 Editor: Jan Beck