

Duda Sparks Whites To Near Red Upset

By TERRY ANDERSON
Sports Editor

The Red had to come back from an early White drive to take a victory, 21-15, from a surprisingly stubborn White squad.

The Saturday night intrasquad game at Seacrest Field climaxed 20 days of spring practice for the Husker griders and was the only bright spot in a dismal All-Sports Day program.

Tony Jeter kicked off for the White squad, a short kick that rebounded off of Ron Michka and recovered by Jeter.

The Whites converted the Red error into a 41 yard TD in 11 plays climaxing with Frank Solich's five-yard sweep around right end tallying the TD. Duncan Drum split the goalposts for the conversion.

Lightning then struck in the form of Kent McCloughan, Red halfback. McCloughan grabbed the White kickoff and raced 88 yards for a Red tally. Quarterback Dennis Claridge ran to the right on a keeper which accounted for a two point conversion and the Reds led, 8-7.

In the second period Claridge went to the airways en route to a perfect night's passing, hitting 7-7, to score the first of two Red TD's in the second period.

The second Red TD came just six plays after the White punted at the start of the second quarter. Claridge used everyone of his backs in the TD-drive.

Left halfback Willie Ross hit right end for ten yards, Claridge kept for six more, fullback Gene Young boomed for three and right halfback Rudy Johnson blasted for nine on a quick opener to put the ball on the White 25.

Young hit for three more to set up a Claridge to Larry Tomlinson pass for a 22-yard TD pass.

Yearling halfback Ted Vactor took the Red kickoff and nearly repeated McCloughan's feat but Ross stopped him after he had gone 52 yards with the ball.

But the White attack, behind the guidance of Fred Duda, bogged down on the Red 35.

A Red attack bogged down after a 13 yard pass from Claridge to Dick Callahan and they were forced to boot.

Henry Woods intercepted a White pass and returned it to the White 21. Doug Tucker then intercepted a Red pass in the end zone to stop the drive on the seven yard line.

Dave Lebsack, freshman quarterback from Lincoln Northeast, set up the final Red touchdown with an intercepted pass and a 42-yard run to the White three.

Lebsack then pitched to Tucker on the first play from scrimmage to hit paydirt.

Frank Solich scored the final tally of the game in the third quarter for the White team when he went in from the four yard line.

Duda directed the White drive that went 73-yards to end in paydirt.

Solich accounted for 37 of the yards on a 20-yard scamper and caught a one-hander from Duda for 17 more.

Fullback Bruce Smith contributed two carries for 18 yards in the drive. Another pass to Jeter was good for six to keep the drive alive.

Duda added a two point conversion to end the scoring, 21-17.

The Reds threatened to score three more times, once in the third and twice in the fourth period, but failed to hit paydirt.

Duda and Doug Tucker appeared to have the Whites in a position to win the game or at least tie it in the third quarter.

The drive came to a halt when defensive halfback Mike Kennedy pilfered a Tucker pass.

Claridge put the Reds in another position to score on two passes to Callahan for 19 yards, a Young run for four more, and two keepers for another 16 yards.

The bid stalled on the 24

when a new unit took the helm and missed a first down by a yard.

With 48 seconds left in the game Poggemeyer stole a White pass and returned it to the White 27. Lebsack then picked up 11 yards on three carries to run out the clock.

Solich was the game's top ground gainer with 56 net yards while Young was the top ball carrier for the Reds with 31 followed by Poggemeyers 24 and Ross's 18.

Smith hit for 30 and Bob Hohn went for 26 for the Whites.

Duda passed 11 times for 46 yards, hitting 4 receivers and one enemy receiver. Tucker hit one for ten and one of his were intercepted. Lebsack passed three times, connecting one for 11 yards.

The White squad outfought the Reds in first down productions but the Reds outdid them on the ground, 189-139.

Coach Bob Devaney was a spectator in the press box during the scrimmage as his aides handled the sideline duties.

Devaney thought the scrimmage went well except for the "basketball" tactics used by the White squad during the second quarter as they passed resulting in a sloppy second quarter.

Devaney thought that this year's team is ahead of last year's pace. He commented that they hadn't made any great progress last week but the hitting was good and the griders are in better position than they were last year at the end of drills.

He said that the main thing in spring practice is to find who can help you and what positions you can use them to best advantage.

Duda seemed to earn the No. two quarterback spot behind Claridge as he led the No. two team. But Devaney said that the other quarterbacks still have possibilities.

Devaney cited Duda, Solich, Hohn, Smith and Chuck Doepke for turning in outstanding performances for the White team.

Willie Ross, Gene Young and Rudy Johnson received the praise from the Red backfield.

Athletes Honored Saturday

Six Husker athletes were honored Saturday during All-Sports Day ceremonies.

Four wrestlers were honored by Newt Cople, former Nebraska star and National AAU champion. The four wrestlers honored received trophies for their varsity records, during halftime of the intrasquad scrimmage.

Mike Nissen, winner of 36 consecutive dual matches during his Husker career and 1963 NCAA champion at 123 pounds, received the Most Valuable and High Point Trophy.

Harold Thompson, 1962 Big 8 champion and third place finisher in the NCAA received the 1962 High Point Trophy.

Jim Raschke, 1962 Big 8 champ and third place finisher in the NCAA received the 1962 Scholarship Trophy.

Jim Falman, three-year letterman and Husker standout at 137 pounds, although he is blind, received the 1962 Sportsmanship Trophy.

Husker Cage ace, Ivan Grupe received the Walter E. Dobbins Memorial Award for the outstanding University of Nebraska basketball player. Grupe was presented the award at a special ceremony during the Cornhusker-Missouri track meet at Memorial Stadium.

Kenneth Boshart, exhalted ruler of Lincoln Elks Lodge No. 80 — which sponsors the award in memory of the late Mr. Dobbins, longtime sports editor of The Lincoln Journal — made the presentation to Grupe.

Grupe is a native of Bryon, Nebr., and was the strong man around the boards during his three-year Cornhusker career. He was selected for the Dobbins Award by a Vote of Big 8 basketball coaches.

Past winner of the Dobbins Memorial Award:

- 1953—Fred Seger 1959—Herchell Turner
- 1954—Bill Johnson 1960—Herschell Turner

- 1957—Hex Kwall 1963—Tom Russell
- 1958—Gary Reimers 1963—Tom Russell
- 1959—Ivan Grupe

During halftime of the climax to All-Sports Day, the Tom Novak Trophy was presented to Dwain Carlson, co-captain of the 1962 football squad.

The trophy was presented by J. Gordon Roberts of Omaha. The award is in honor of Novak, a Cornhusker great from 1946-1949.

Carlson was voted the most valuable player in the 1962 Husker football team which posted an 8-2 season record and a Gotham Bowl victor over Miami, 36-34.

Carlson, a guard, earned All Big Eight second team honors before playing in the Blue-Gray and Challenge Bowl post-season games.

Past winners of the Novak Award:

- 1950—Charles Toogood 1956—LaVerne Torzon
- 1951—Frank Simon 1957—Jerry Brown

Records Fall As Missouri Hands Husker Thinclads Second Loss

By JAN SACK
Staff Sports Writer

Records fell by the wayside as the Missouri track squad tripped Nebraska 79-66 in All Sports Day activity. Next week the teams clash in the Big Eight Outdoor Championship in Manhattan, Kans.

Nebraska's 440-yard relay team smashed three records at once when they clipped off their event in :40.9. The stadium and varsity record was :41.0 set by Keith Young, Tom Hodson, Dick Jahr and Keith Gardner in 1958. It was also a meet record as this was the first time this event has been run in a Missouri-Nebraska dual.

Mike Fleming of Nebraska set a new record in the mile as he was caught in 4:13.3 after a thrilling finish barely nipping teammate Ray Stevens who was but a step behind. Missouri's Jerry McFadden was third. The old mark was 4:18.8 set by Lee Moore in 1958.

The three-mile run, usually dead as far as the crowd is concerned, proved an exception.

Tigers Nearly Blank Huskers As Missouri Remains On Top

Bornschlegl Run

Saves NU Smear

Nebraska's diamond crew nearly ran into a blank wall this weekend as they met the nation's no. one team, Missouri, in a head on collision on the Husker field.

Mizzou nearly shutout the Husker '9' but the Cornhuskers managed to push across one run in the last inning of the finale on a Tiger miscue.

In the Friday twinbill action the Bengal visitors blanked the Huskers behind the pitching of Larry Bohannon and Rich Peterson.

Bohannon blanked the Huskers in the opener for his fifth win against two losses, giving up only six hits and allowing no walks while striking out seven.

He received support from the field and was backed by ten hits from his teammates including a 370-footer homer by Dave Havey.

Peterson tossed a one-hitter against the NU squad with Dave May getting the only Husker hit, a single in the sixth. He walked five and struck out five.

Friday's losses were charged to Ron Havecov now 1-5, and to Jan Wall now 3-3.

In Saturday's finale the Huskers managed one run in the ninth when Larry Bornschlegl singled and moved to third on a single by Dave May.

With one out Tom Ernst hit a sharp grounder back to third baseman Dave Harvey who fired to second baseman Bob Price who bobbled the ball. Price picked it up in time to get May but Bornschlegl went on home for the lone Husker run of the series.

The win boosted the Missouri record to 15-2 while the Husker record slumped to 5-12. The Husker diamond squad will meet Oklahoma State at Stillwater.

George Landgren was charged with the Husker loss in the finale although he was retired after facing the first eight Bengal hitters. Ernie Bonistall then took the mound to quiet the Tiger sticks.

Rightfielder Tom Ernst was the standout in the finale as he made a couple of saves that could have gone all the way. He made a leaping over-the-shoulder catch of McArtor's lone fly to end the sixth, then robbed Jim Sevek with a shoe-string grab in the seventh.

Missouri blasted the Huskers for 12 hits and played errorless ball. John Sevcik and Gene McArtor accounted for three apiece. All Mizzou hits were singles with the only extra bases blow of the game being Husker Don Schindel's lead-off double in the first inning.

In other Big Eight action there was considerable shifting of places in the conference.

Oklahoma remained in second place taking two out of three from cross-state rival Oklahoma State. The Sooners won the Friday doubleheader, 3-2 and 5-4, but the Cowpokes came back to take a 2-1 decision in the Saturday finale.

But in the other games Kansas traded Colorado fourth place for third place and K-State gave the Iowa State Cyclones the cellar chair.

The Jayhawks took third place by beating the Buffs 8-2 and 5-2, while the K-State Wildcats were whipping Iowa State, 6-4 and 2-1.
