A consistent performer and one who gives his all in every meet is the 1963 Outstanding Varsity Athlete as voted by the sports writers of the Daily Nebraskan. For three years Ray "Skip" Stevens has been a main cog in the Husker varsity track team.

His most recent achievement is the fastest mile ever run by a Big Eight athlete in conference competition. Skip said his 4:04.9 time "peaked my college track career."

Career highlights as seen through Skip's eyes:

SOPHOMORE — eighth in conference cross country running a 15:13. Tied for first in 4-mile cross country in Omaha with arch rival Dean White of Doane in 21:06. Placed fourth in indoor conference mile in 4:15.5 which is the first time he ran under 4:20. Ran 4:11.3 mile against Barrie Almond of Houston outdoors.

This was Skip's fastest mile until the 4:04.9 last Saturday.

JUNIOR—Placed fourth in conference cross country meet with a 15:22. Climaxed indoor season with second in the mile in 4:21.4 behind Bill Dotson of Kansas at the conference. After the mile came back for third place in 880 with a 1:58.0.

"I sure feel good when I can come back in the same meet," he said. Placed fourth in outdoor conference with 4:12.9. Set three records at Cozad meet: two mile relay of Bill Kenny, Clarence Scott, Mike Fleming, and Stevens in 7:54.5; won mile in 4:12.6 for fastest mile of the year; mile relay team of Fleming, Tom Saunders, Ray Knaub and Stevens in 3:21.4. His comment on Cozad, "It was fun."

SENIOR—Placed second in conference cross country behind Fleming in 15:01. Went to the NCAA cross country championships in East Lansing, Mich., and placed 27th in over 100 runners with 20:23.0 time.

"This was the first time I

ever beat Fleming," Stevens recalls. "I got my leg hurt in the first indoor meet and couldn't really recover," Stevens said.

Placed fourth in conference mile and fifth in the 880. On winning four-mile relay team at the Texas Relays with 4:15 leg. Turned in a -53.0 leg on two-mile relay at Drake despite mud and rain. Climaxed career with 4:04.9 at outdoor conference last Saturday.

During his track career Stevens said his parents, the boys in the house, University coach Frank Sevigne and high school track coach Clarence J. Kubicek have given him untiring support.

Skip will participate in the National Track Federation Meet in Houston, Tex., June 7-8 and then in the NCAA in Albuquerque, N. M., June 14-15.
