

NU Frosh Bury 'Cat Yearlings With Running

Nebraska's freshmen ran up a 27 to 0 first-quarter lead en route to a 43 to 22 beating of Kansas State's freshmen Friday.

Arriving only 15 minutes before game time because of electrical trouble with the team bus at Marysville, Nebraska made 436 yards on the ground despite coach John Melton's moaning of inadequate warmup time.

All 44 Huskers played, and several looked like good varsity prospects. Kaye Carstens, all-stater from Fairbury, ran 80 and 52 yards for first period touchdowns and gained 148 yards in only five carries. Carstens did not play the second half because of a muscle cramp which he blamed on inadequate warm-up.

Pete Tatman, all-stater from North Platte, sparked on both offense and defense, carrying 91 yards in 14 tries. He ran 12 yards for a touchdown in the third period and added a two-point conversion. Harry Wilson carried 85 yards on 10 tries, and Ron Kirkland added 65 yards on 11 attempts.

Lincoln's (Northeast) Stan Grell ran back a Kansas State pass 43 yards for Nebraska's second score, while Carl Stith of Lincoln (Southeast) distinguished himself on defense. Coach Melton, scored on for the first time, praised linemen Joe Unis and George Blankenship particularly for their offensive blocking.

Coach Melton was very pleased with the team's effort and was pleased because he didn't think Nebraska was as ready to play as the final score indicated.

Kansas State's Vic Castillo completed 14 passes. He passed for one touchdown and scored another himself. Kansas State rolled up 121 aerial yards. Nebraska passed only six times, completing three for 62 yards.

Duda Pushes Huskers Past K-State In Starting Debut

Sophomore Fred Duda and his new responsibility, the Nebraska offense, shook a mediocre first quarter and rolled to a 28 to 6 conference win over pass-crazy Kansas State Saturday at Manhattan. Duda, looking as unruffled as the Husker's usual signal-caller, Dennis Claridge, finally prodded the sputtering Scarlet attack to scoring drive early in the second quarter. The 5-9½, 185 pound Chicagoan swept the last seven yards to cap an 87 yard drive with 11:54 left in the second quarter.

Fullbacks Rudy Johnson and Gene Young punched out most of the yardage on this drive before Bob Hohn scurried eleven yards to the Wildcat seven to set up Duda's touchdown. It was the last sustained scoring drive the Huskers could muster until late in the third stanza against the light but determined hosts.

The next two Nebraska tallies come because of, not in spite of Wildcat Larry Corrigan's passing. Corrigan, who has passed more than any other Big Eight field general this year, scared the Husker secondary on the first Wildcat drive.

Corrigan found his pint-sized pair of ends, Ralph McFillen and Jerry Puls open for three quick completions that carried to the Nebraska 45 before the Husker forward wall spilled Corrigan for an eight

Jayhawks Nearly Defeats Oklahoma; Iowa State Conquers Colorado, 19-7

Other conference games went as expected, but the Looneyless Oklahoma Sooners barely beat Kansas 21 to 18. Iowa State broke a 7-7 first-period tie to trim Colorado 19 to 7, while Missouri defeated Oklahoma State 28 to 6.

Hampered in big games last year and this because of the lack of a first rate quarterback, the Sooners may have found their man in Norman Smith, who started the game even though he was listed on the fourth team.

Smith himself scored the winning touchdown with 5:33 left in the game on a one-yard run, climaxing a 52-yard drive. Smith also scored Oklahoma's first touchdown on a six-yard run in the first period.

Kansas, which comes to Lincoln November 9th, looked tough for a loser as halfback Gale Sayers ran for 110 yards, including a 61-yard touchdown run to give Kansas the lead in the first period. Sayers also scored Kansas' other touchdown and a two-point conversion (both the touchdown and the two-pointer on passes from quarterback Steve Renko) in the final period.

The teams were even in first downs, passing completions, and punts, and nearly even in total yardage and yards penalized. Oklahoma, though, intercepted two passes and turned one into a touchdown. Charles Mayhue yard loss on a third down situation.

Later, Husker linemen put more and more pressure on Wildcat passing and Corrigan's air weapon misfired. After being dumped for a six-yard loss to his own 23, Corrigan was rushed so hard on the next play that his short aerial was deflected into the arms of Husker center Ron Michka. Michka gladly rambled sixteen yards untouched with the stolen ball for the second Nebraska score. Duda again used a favorite Claridge weapon, the sweep, to get the two point conversion with 6:43 remaining in the half.

But the 'Cats were yet to show their scoring punch. They did so with three seconds left.

With 43 seconds left in the half, Duda ran for 16 yards through the Kansas State secondary only to lose ball after a jarring tackle. Junior halfback Bob Sjogren fell on the fumble at the 'Cat 33 and Corrigan went to work. After two incomplete passes, one of which Ted Vactor of Nebraska nearly intercepted, Corrigan found Larry Condit on the Husker 13 with 26 seconds to go. McFillen then raced over the middle with another Corrigan aerial to Nebraska's six. State found pay dirt with three seconds on the clock as McFillen again was on the receiving end just inside the flag in the flat.

Guard John Kirby blazed through to spill Corrigan as he attempted a two point conversion. Denby Blackwell intercepted a Duda pass as the half ended with the Husker's narrowed margin of 14 to 6.

Another Corrigan pass that went awry sealed the Husker victory as the second half opened. Corrigan threw behind Spencer Puls and end Larry Tomlinson nabbed it on the State 34. Tomlinson used interference from Vactor to advantage and danced into the end zone. Duda flipped a pass to isolated Kent McCloughan for the two point conversion and Nebraska led comfortably, 22 to 6. Less than two minutes had passed in the half.

After stopping the Wildcats cold in their own territory, Duda directed the final 74 yard scoring drive. Willie Ross carried 22 yards to the 'Cats' territory and a illegal receiver penalty held the Scarlet push momentarily on the next play.

Kent McCloughan matched the penalty loss with a 15 yard scamper. Ross gained six more and Duda again ran well for 13 additional yards. Gene Young supplied most of the final power, bulging his way for 17 yards to the Wildcat nine yard line.

It was here that the Huskers suffered a possible loss. Ross, attempting to get his first touchdown of the season, was shaken up at the two. Nebraska's leading ground gainer sustained a shoulder injury that may keep him from action against Colorado Homecoming weekend.

NU Runners Lose Despite Two Places

Nebraska captured two of the first three places but Kansas State surprised the Huskers by winning the cross country dual 25-34 in Manhattan Saturday.

Wilfred Lehman, an unknown junior college transfer, led the Wildcats by placing first in the three mile course with a time of 15:46.

Nebraska's Larry Toothaker turned in a fine race but had to settle for second as he crossed the finish line in 15:51.5. Peter Scott of Nebraska was clocked in 16:02 for third place. The Huskers' third highest place runner was Stuart Tucker who ran sixth.

Nebraska probably can expect K-State to be tough next year. Running with Lehman will be Conrad Nightengale who toured the same course in 15:19 last Wednesday when the K-State freshmen ran against Hutchinson (Kans.) Junior College.

The order of finish:
1. Lehman, K-State, 15:46.
2. Toothaker, Nebraska, 15:51.5.
3. Scott, Nebraska, 16:02.
4. Gillaspie, K-State, 16:16.5.
5. Dutton, K-State, 16:21.5.
6. Tucker, Nebraska, 16:27.
7. Tuzigle, K-State, 16:34.
8. Francis, K-State, 16:42.
9. Kmetz, K-State, 16:57.5.
10. Batle, K-State, 17:07.5.
11. Wendt, Nebraska, 17:32.
12. Gies, Nebraska, 18:41.
13. Lillis, Nebraska, 18:51.

MISS AFFLERBACH'S GOLDEN JUBILEE: HURRAH!

MISS AFFLERBACH'S GOLDEN JUBILEE: HURRAH!

YOU have heard us mention Miss Revere Afflerbach who has been Forelady here at Eagle Shirts since 1918. It is not often that one sees such allegiance, and we appreciate it. Also, she has been very nice to allow us to bandy her name about in ads, books, etc. So we would like to proclaim something to honor her and also give us another excuse to bandy her name: The Afflerbach Golden Jubilee Year. ★ Now, ordinarily this wouldn't occur until 1968, but why wait until the last moment? Besides, we have already struck a medal (see above). The cloth in the shirt upon which the medal is hanging is also named after her: Afflerbach Cloth. It is made in Switzerland to her specifications, which are 20% wool and 80% cotton. Her reasoning is interesting. She wanted enough wool to make it very soft, but enough cotton to make it light and washable. Any more wool than that and it's not a shirt so much as a nice, if bulky, garment for woodchopping or other hearty activities. ★ Additionally, it is mothproof; if for no other reason than that no moth would be willing to go to all that work for such scant nourishment. Afflerbach Cloth is the moth equivalent of pomegranates. The Afflerbach Jubilee Shirt comes, complete with medal as shown, in solid colors (flame red, midnight navy, loden green, winter white, smoke blue) at about $13.00; and tartans, district checks and blazer stripes at about $14.00, wherever Eagle Shirts are sold. If you're not sure where that is in your town, write Miss Afflerbach, Eagle Shirtmakers, Quakertown, Pa. It might be nice if you said congratulations.
